The Young Folks.

MOTHER.

Of all the ways I've wandered, of all the roads I've trod,
Of all the paths I've wandered in of all the lots I've had,
Of all the maids I've courted, and all the women seen,
There never was a dearer than my old mother's been

Yes off up in the cottage when the day was almost done,
When sitting on the door step behind the green, green lawn,
There many a happy hour I passed with my old mother sweet,
That the wealth and gold of ages such scenes cannot repeat

And when a little urchin I ran and scampered past,
And sported on the same old lawn and played among the grass,
There was always one to love me, to comfort and caress,
And that was my old mother that God may always bless.

And now as oft I wander, amongst palaces and domes,
And wend my way to lordly halls, in kings and Princes homes
And listen to bold statesmen in wild and fierce debate,
My mind is tinged with anguish and my soul it burns with hate.

And among my happiest moments, at the climax of success,
Among the prettiest women and the choicest of the guests,
There is not a thought so happy, or half so blest a lot
As the thought of my old mother up in the hills side cot

ORIENTALS AT THE FAIR.

Among the young people who are visiting the Columbian Exposition this summer are a Javanese baby, three Chinese boys of from two to six years, a pickaninny from Dahomey, a dancing Soudanese baby, a little Bedouin girl who dances in the Arab encampment, a papoose or two in the Indian village, and a half dozen Egyptian boys who belabor the tiny gray donkeys in the Cairo Street. As the readers of Young People have already guessed, these boys and girls did not visit the fair to see the curious things in the wonderful white buildings, but to be a part of the show. They are there to be looked at, not to look, and they are among the most interesting of all the exhibits.

The black baby lives in the Dahomey village, which is supposed to look as if it had been picked up in Africa and set down in Chicago. In some respects it certainly does resemble the hot country about which Mr. Glave has told us during the past year. The ground is sandy enough and the sunshine is hot enough for Sahara, and the reed-thatched huts which line the high board fence surrounding the village are uncomfortable enough in appearance to satisfy the most enthusiastic explorer. In the middle of the village is a larger hut, open at the sides and covered with thatch, and in this hut the dwellers of the Dahomey village dance the war dance of their native country every hour or two for the entertainment of the white people who stroll in to see them. All of these men and women are hideous in their gay calico clothing, with strings of teeth and strange-looking bits of stone and metal hanging about their necks and dangling from their arms and ears. But the pickaninny is as cunning as most other babies are. When I saw him he was sitting in a puddle of dirty water with no clothing on to get soiled, watching his mother and an older brother scouring two or three brass and silver rings with a bit of rag and a handful of sand. The little fellow wanted the rings to play with, and when he found that he could not have them, he set up a howl that sounded very much like a white boy of two years crying because he could not have a porcelain clock or a circus wagon to play with.

Harper's Young People

WHY THE GUESTS ABSTAINED.

Bishop Otterton's mother was a remarkable woman and inherited much of the velocity of her father. When she and her husband were at Gibraltar during the peninsular war, the latter was known to be particular about his shaving water. From his friend, the Spanish governor of Algeciras, he received the sympathetic present of some dozens of rainwater in bottles, which he butler, thinking it to be wine, duly took charge of.

Sometime afterward the colonel gave a dinner party, but at the last moment was called off by official duty, and a brother was asked to take his place at the table. In due course the hock was handed round, but it was observed that the guests were singularly abstemious in regard to it. The explanation was discovered when they had departed. The well stored and savory shaving water had been supplied for hock!

Notes and Queries.

A STARTLING ILLUSTRATION

The Smith's Falls Record says: It is not often that the declarations of divines in their pulpits get such apt and convincing optical illustrations as did some remarks of the Rev Mr Nixon in St Paul's church last Sunday night. He was preaching about the future state and comparing the difference between the condition of those who had repented of their sins in this life and those who died unrepentant. We shall be divided, he exclaimed, some to the right hand where all is brightness and joy, others to the left where there is only the blackness of darkness and just then the electric light on that whole side of the church went out. As an object lesson it has had few parallels, and it is not to be wondered at that those sitting in darkness on the left were suddenly seized with a desire to change their seats.

Consumption

is oftentimes absolutely cured in its earliest stages by the use of that wonderful

Food Medicine,

Scott's Emulsion

which is now in high repute the world over.

"CAUTION."—Beware of substitutes or Emulsions prepared by Scott & Bowne, Belleville. Sold by all druggists. 50c. and $1.00.

DON'T BE FOOLED by the dealer who brings out, something else, that pays him better, and says that it is "just as good." Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is guaranteed. If it don't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back. No other medicine of its kind is so certain and effective that it can be sold so. Is any other likely to be "just as good"?

As a blood-cleanser, flesh-builder, and strength-restorer, nothing can equal the "Discovery." It's not like the sarsaparillas, or ordinary "spring medicines." At all seasons, and in all cases, it purifies, invigorates, and builds up the whole system. For every blood-taint and disorder, from a common blotch or eruption, to the worst scrofula, it's a perfect, permanent, guaranteed remedy.

NOTES HERE AND THERE.

What do you take

Medicine for? Because you are sick and want to get well or because you wish to prevent illness. Then remember that Hood's Sarsaparilla cures all diseases caused by impure blood and debility of the system. It is not what its proprietors say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story of its merit. Be sure to get Hood's, and only Hood's Dame Experience.

Has contrived many that to use any of the substitutes offered for the only sure pop and painless corn cure is attended with danger. Get always and use none other than Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, for sore producing substitutes are offered just as good as Putnam's Corn Extractor. Safe, sure, painless.

Dyspepsia Cured

GENTS, I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I started to use it and soon found there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case.

So rapidly does lung irritation spread and deepen, that often in a few weeks a simple cough culminates in tubercular consumption. Give heed to a cough, there is always danger in delay, get a bottle of Hickie's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and cure yourself. It is a medicine unsurpassed for all throat and lung troubles. It is compounded from several herbs, each one of which stands at the head of the list as exerting a wonderful influence in curing consumption and lung diseases.

Unbearable Agony

For three days I suffered severely from summer complaint, nothing gave me relief and I kept getting worse until the pain was almost unbearable, but after I had taken the first dose of Dr Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry I found great relief and it did not fail to cure me.

Many Parents

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to all his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French or English with full directions for preparing and using. A Comfort Sometimes.

When health is far gone in Consumption then sometimes only ease and comfort can be secured from the use of Scott's Emulsion. What is much better is to take this medicine in time to save your health.

Horses are said to be particularly fond of the skin of the banana.

A Boston housewife utilized hailstones to freeze four quarts of ice cream.

Mrs. M. Stephens, of Albany, N. Y., writes us as follows: My stomach was so weak that I could not eat anything sour or very sweet, even fruit at tea time would cause Heartburn, fulness or oppression of the chest, short breath, restlessness during sleep, and frightful dreams of disagreeable sights so that I would often dread to go to sleep. With the use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery this unpleasantness has all been removed, and I now can eat what suits my taste or fancy.

The two most precious things on this side of the grave are our reputation and our life.

Oh, What a Cough?

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask your selves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c. to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails.

The main token of a strong character is not to make known every change and phase in thought and feeling, but to give the world the finished results.

Sore Feet. Mrs. E. J. Neill, New Armagh, P. Q., writes: "For nearly six months I was troubled with burning aches and pains in my feet to such an extent that I could not sleep at night, and as my feet were badly swollen I could not wear my boots for weeks. At last I got a bottle of Dr Thomas Eclectric Oil and resolved to try it and to my astonishment I got almost instant relief and the one Bottle accomplished a perfect cure.

The race of mankind would perish did they cease to aid each other.

The Four Cardinal Points

The four cardinal points of health are the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. Wrong action in any of these produces disease. Burdock Blood Bitters acts upon the four cardinal points of health at once and the same time, to regulate, strengthen and purify thus restoring health and removing disease.

Doubts are sometimes safer than certainties.

As Parmelee's Vegetable Pills contain Mandrake and Dandelion they cure Liver and Kidney Complaints with unerring certainty. They also contain roots and herbs which have specific virtues truly wonderful in their action on the stomach and bowels. Mr E. A. Cattermole, Shakespeare, writes: "I consider Parmelee's Pills, an excellent remedy for biliousness and Derangement of the Liver, having used them myself for some time."
