LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

Now for sharp frosts again.
Beechmills are fairly plentiful.
Poloates are turning out well this fall.

The woods are being supplied by storm doors.

The autumnal shades are appearing on forest foliage.

All Faxx Paxx subscriptions must be paid in advance.

Householders are laying in their stock of winter coal.

Acton Cornet Band played at Erin passing Fair yesterday.

The equinox passed over without any serious meteorological disturbance.

The Fergus and Elora fair will both be held on the same day this year.

The Terra Cotta Brick Works at Campbellville will be sold by auction on Saturday.

Farmers! Citizens! Visitors! remember our big exhibition next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Courtney and Hunter will commence evangelistic work in Brampton on the 1st of October.

Considerable grain is coming in to market here, but farmers generally are holding for higher prices.

The Provincial Christian Endeavor Convention will be held in St. Catharines on the 10th and 11th October.

Peter Gibson's bank has been at Guelph and has been completed. It is a convenient and commodious farm structure.

The cheapest and best place for Carpets, Orlitho, and Dry Goods is Clark & Tournoux's, 30 Lower Wyndham St., Guelph.

In consequence of the tramp scare in Milton, the electric lights have been ordered to be kept going all night, and a night watchman put on.

The young people of the Presbyterian Church, Oakville, with commendable enterprise have put in a $1,000 pipe organ. The money has been paid or subscribed for.

The best way to capture the fall trade is to take into your confidence the hundreds of families that buy and read, and advertise your attractive wares in the Free Press.

The dog legislation is being severely felt in Kitchener township. No less than $100 was voted at the meeting of the Council on Monday to recruit farmers who had sheep killed.

The township collector of taxes for the current year are: No. 1, G. P. Preston, No. 2, David Lindsey; No. 3, Wm. Moore; No. 4, Wm. Hampshire; No. 5, George Campbell; No. 6, John Bingham.

A good town to settle in is that in which you see the farmers patronize the home merchants, the merchants advertise in the local papers, the laborers spend the money they earn with their own tradesmen, and all animated by a spirit that they will not purchase articles abroad if they can be purchased at home. The spirit of independence, self-reliance, men and laborers, farmers and manufacturers, results every time in making the best article. Factory one in half to do business. Such an one, to a considerable extent, is Acton, though in a few cases there is room for improvement.

The several disgraceful orgies at the Station Hotel the past week have disgraced respectable citizens. Last Thursday the drunken revelry culminated in several fights and as a result at least three black eyes were earned the rest of the week.

Another orgie attracted attention Monday. It is to be hoped that the students are aware that the premises are forced, when walking past the premises, to keep foot off and cross and cross for help and police. The authorities should see that there is no more of it. The good report of the town demands that such places be quashed and offenders pay the penalty.

Games of chance illegal.

The season's best when followed with descriptions are the start to catch the unwise with their single devices for making money. It will be well for all to remember that all participants in games of chance, lotteries or other are liable to heavy fines.
