LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

—Merry, Merry Christmas.

—Bread is selling in town for eight cents.

—The Public Schools close to-morrow night for the holidays.

—Municipal and School Trustee nominations at noon to-morrow.

—The Clinton New Era has just come out to a fine new brick printing office.

—Guelph will insist on all school children of the city being vaccinated.

—The pretty Christmas decorations in the shop windows attract general attention.

—There'll be an abundance of wood for next season if all the fallen timber is cut this winter.

—Church and Sunday School Anniversary will command public attention for the next week or two.

—The sheds at the brick church above Acton were levelled by the weight of snow after Friday's storm.

There seems to be no good reason for doubting that somebody or others going to be Reeve and Councillors next year.

—The present quarter has fourteen Sundays. The first day of October was Sunday and the last day of December will be.

The train service was badly deranged on Saturday owing to the storm. Telegraph wires were down to all directions.

Imrie & Graham, publishers of the Scottish Canadian and Brough & Caswell, of the Endeavor Herald, both assigned last week.

Send a Christmas present to your distant friend which will be repeated every week of the year. Send the Free Press, it will fill the bill.

Don't fail to spend next Tuesday evening at the town hall. St Alban's Sunday School will please you with their Cantata "The Tables Turned."

Newspaper subscriptions are being renewed for 1894. Shouldn't your Free Press label be changed from dec 93 to dec 94. A dollar will do it.

Another prohibition rally will be held in the town hall next Wednesday evening. A number of outside speakers are expected. The public generally is invited.

When Sunday's bright sunlight fell upon the trees it made a scene most beautiful and picturesque. Every twig was itself a prism, but it was beauty dearly bought.

The remains of the late Mrs Alex Brown, Sr. will be interred at Fairview Cemetery this afternoon leaving the home of Mr. Thomas Somerville fourth line at 1.30 o'clock.

A prohibition meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church, Ballinafad, to-morrow evening, to which the people of that section are invited. Good speakers will be present.

Envelopes for renewal are sent this week to several hundred Free Press subscribers. Prompt return will insure the continuance of the paper every week without interruption.

Ballinafad Methodist Church will hold their anniversary tea meeting on Friday evening, 29th inst. A large array of speakers and Acton Methodist Choir will provide the programme.

William Gibson, the Halton man who was injured in a railway accident at Brampton lately, is doing well. He had a leg and an arm amputated and is still at Toronto General Hospital.

Springe Presbyterian Sunday School will have a big gathering on Friday evening, 29th inst. A host of speakers will deliver addresses and the choir of the church will provide music.

The avenue of beautiful maples on Education Lane, from Main Street to the Public School, was almost completely destroyed by the ice storm last week. The trees were planted 9 or 11 years ago.

—Acton has been suffering from the severest attack of grippe during the past week in her history. Nearly every home has been afflicted. Over a hundred pupils have been absent from the public schools.

—The fifteenth annual meeting of the Ontario Agricultural and Experimental Union will take place at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, to-day and to-morrow. An interesting programme has been prepared.

Fire on Tuesday night considerably damaged the papering and polishing rooms of the Raymond sewing machine factory at Guelph. The exact amount of the loss cannot be ascertained, but it is fully covered by insurance.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

An Unprecedented Ice Storm.

The most destructive ice storm that ever visited this section was that of Friday and Saturday. The rain fell all day Friday and froze as it fell until the accumulations on trees, fences and telephone and telegraph wires was enormous, and general havoc ensued. During the night the wires were levelled throughout town and for miles in the country, not a single through line, nor a subscriber's line on the telephone exchange, but was demoralized. The destruction of trees was terrible. The view on Saturday morning was pitiful in the extreme. Not only were thousands of beautiful shade, ornamental and fruit trees broken down and ruined but many of the strong and graceful maples and rugged elms which abound here were either denuded of branches or broken off at the trunk. Many who have planted and grafted and watched their trees for years are utterly discouraged at the result of this unfortunate storm. Much timber is also down throughout the country.

Rev. Mr. Moore's Lecture.

Thoroughly interesting and enjoyable was the lecture given by Rev. T. Albert Moore, of Dunnville, in the Methodist Church, last Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Epworth League. The subject "Mating and Mismating" was a popular one, especially among the young people. Matrimony was of course the topic, and the wise choice and the foolish choice, the happy home and the home where misery and failure prevail were vividly portrayed. In addition to many others the recital by the lecturer of numerous amusing incidents in connection with matrimonial unions which have come under his own observation during the 121 times he has performed the ceremony, added zest to the whole. There was much that was funny and much that was said, and there were numerous passages showing the joy and satisfaction ensuing where the marriage relation was entered into with a thorough realization of its importance and a true conception of the duty of husband and wife to each other. The lecture gives evidence of careful thought and a wide range of reading in its preparation, and it abounds in eloquent passages and well rounded periods. Rev. Mr. Edge occupied the chair.

The Churches Here and There.

Sunday School anniversary sermons will be preached in the Methodist Church next Sunday in the morning to the children and in the evening to the parents and adults generally. The Christmas anniversary entertainment will be held on Monday evening. St Alban's Sunday School Christmas Tree entertainment will be held on Tuesday evening next 26th inst on the 22nd as previously announced. The children of the school will present the pretty cantata "The Tables Turned." Rev. Dr. Stronghman, of Erin, preached in the Methodist Church last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Edge who was to have preached in Erin Circuit was unable to leave his bed and Rev. Byron Laing took his place. Midnight mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father Haley at Oustic Church on Christmas eve. The musical services will be rendered by the three choirs of Georgetown, Oustic and Acton. Rev. J. W. Rae preached the anniversary sermons in the Presbyterian Church, Seaforth last Sunday. He also delivered an address on Monday evening. A student from Knox College, Toronto, filled the vacancy here.

Anniversary Knox Church S. P. S. S.

The young people met in the church on Thursday evening last, to celebrate the first anniversary of their organization. D. Henderson, Esq., M. P., occupied the chair. A lengthy and interesting programme of readings, recitations, speeches, duets and choruses first engaged the attention of the audience. Mr. Henderson on behalf of the congregation then, in a very neat address presented Miss C. McPhail, organist of the church with a purse of over $35 as a token of appreciation by the congregation of Knox Church. Mr. Henderson in his address referred to her faithfulness in the discharge of her duty, her ability in the performance of her work, and to the fact that her lady like demeanor and sterling worth had done much to secure the perfect satisfaction that everywhere prevails in the church regarding the use of the organ in public worship. He also paid a warm tribute to the choir as a whole for the faithfulness and harmony that has always been manifested in that department of the church's work. Suitable words of reply were made on behalf of Miss McPhail by the pastor after which refreshments were served to all present and after a social hour spent together one of the most pleasant meetings ever held in the history of the church was closed by the singing of the doxology and the pronouncing of the benediction.

New Clerk and Bailiff.

The last issue of the Gazette announced the appointment of Geo. Bevith to the Clerkship and John Lawson, V. S., to Bailiff of the Fourth Division Court of Halton. The appointment of new officers was necessary owing to the resignations of Messrs. James Matthews and William Hemstreet who have filled the respective positions for many years. Several reasons are given for their taking this action. Both officers are Conservatives and it is alleged that efforts have been on foot for some time to have them removed in order to make places for men who have been faithful to the party in power. Unfortunately delinquencies were found to exist and an investigation showed that errors had in several cases been unintentionally committed whereby lenable objections could be urged against their continued tenure of office. Seeing this they concluded to resign. During his term in office Mr. Matthews has transacted thousands of dollars worth of business in the Fourth Division Court between debtors and creditors. He has always been courteous and obliging and the fact of having held the office for upwards of quarter of a century should be satisfactory testimony to his business ability and integrity. Mr. Hemstreet has endeavored to faithfully perform the duties of his office, which everyone knows are trying and exacting on every side. The lot of the bailiff is never a happy one. If he exercised it pas through his feelings for the debtor who was often in distress, and undue lenience occasionally resulted. His honesty of purpose has always been manifest. That both gentlemen will enjoy greater peace of mind by retirement from their positions it is unnecessary to state. Messrs. Hazill and Lawson will commence their duties with everything new and in order and of course A new broom sweeps clean.

We have just the Christmas present you are looking for. A beautiful line of Christmas Slippers for gentlemen in all sizes.—Isaac Hess, Acton.

We have the finest stock of bells, blankets and robes in the county at prices to defy competition. Call and be convinced. J. H. Matthews, Acton.

THE COUNTRY AROUND.

News Items Supplied by Correspondents and Exchanges.

MILTON.

The public school promotion examinations were held last week.

Rev. I. Tovell, of Hamilton, preached two able sermons in the Methodist Church on Sunday.

Rev. John Pickering, Milton, has received a call to the Methodist Church, Dundas.

CREWSON'S CORNERS.

The Methodists held their annual tea meeting here last evening.

Owing to the stormy weather and the prevalence of grip the temperance meeting announced for Monday evening was postponed.

Rev. Mr. Sapinge was to-day ill to preach on Sunday.

Our postmaster, Mr. Anderson, who has been ill for a good time, is recovering.

ERIN.

Missionary services were held in the Methodist Church on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Neeley preached in the morning, and Rev. Byron Laing Acton, in the evening.

The entertainment to be held in the Temperance Hall, Erin, this evening, under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. Lodge of this place, promises to be one of the events of the season. Miss Jessie Alexander will be the attractive feature of the programmes.

Miss Daisy Crawford, of Chicago, has been visiting her mother in this place the past week.

Mr. Hugh Turner, of Orton, has rented the old Clark Hotel property, and it is his intention, we understand, to open up a first class livery barn.

The Township Council met at Hillsburg last Friday.

J. D. Gale, agent from Orangeville, who sustained damages to his horse and rig while travelling on the 3rd line, Erin, opposite lot 32, has been offered $40 in settlement.

ROCKWOOD.

Rev. D. Strachan preached in this section on Sunday evening on the Plebiscite. It will no doubt have a good effect.

Rich Stoneman had a narrow escape while splitting wood last week. While striking at a stick his axe caught in a clothes line and bounded back striking him in the back of the neck and knocking him down. The fall inflicted a couple of ugly cuts on his forehead. He was unconscious for some time but is now able to be at work again.

Rev. R. J. M. Glassford, of Guelph is announced to address a plebiscite meeting here on Friday evening, 22nd inst.

The Royal Templars expect to give a rare concert to night. They have some superior talent.

Mr. Charles Knowles has returned from the States.

Rev. Mr. Sabine was confined to his room with the grip last week.

During the storm of Friday night a frame barn, 80x30, belonging to Mr. Hugh Black, Eramosa, had the roof crushed in with the weight of snow and ice that had accumulated.

KNATCHBULL.

The ice storm of Friday and Saturday last did considerable damage to the fruit trees, some of them being completely ruined with the weight of the ice, while the hard wood bushes suffered severely. The telephone wires near Knatchbull are nearly all down.

Mrs. John Taylor, Nassagaweya, had the misfortune the other day while dressing geese for market, to get her foot and ankle scalded. The scald is a bad one and will lay her up for a few weeks.

Miss M. Haw and Miss Langford, of Bracebridge, Muskoka, spent a few days with relatives at Knatchbull last week.

Mr. Gilbert Taylor, of Port Huron, is visiting relatives and friends in Nassagaweya.

Nominations for the municipality of Nassagaweya will be held in the Town Hall, Brookville, on Friday.

There was a meeting of the Temperance workers of Polling Subdivision No. 3, in the Patron's Hall, Knatchbull, on Monday evening, for the transaction of business pertaining to the coming plebiscite vote. There was a fair audience. They adjourned to meet on Wednesday, Dec. 27th, at 7 o'clock p. m. All temperance workers are cordially invited to attend that meeting.

There is to be a Honey Social held in the School House at Colwhin on Friday evening next under the auspices of the Patrons of Industry of that place. A good time is expected.

Bloomsbury Association, No. 632 of the Patrons of Industry, meet on Wednesday evening, 27th inst., after the Temperance meeting, instead of Monday evening. This is on account of Christmas falling on Monday.

ASHGROVE.

Mr. W. Thompson, M. C. A., is home on the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Richard Dick was in Hamilton on Saturday last, on business.

We are pleased to report that Master Georgie Copeland, who was attacked with inflammation of the lungs, while visiting at Burnhamthorpe, is speedily recovering.

Mrs. Jno. Brownridge is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. J. H. Morrison, who is giving up teaching with the close of this year, held an examination at his school in Stewarttown on Friday afternoon. His pupils presented him with an address and several beautifully bound volumes by standard authors. Mr. Morrison purposes going to college and fitting himself for a higher position.

Rev. Mr. Moir preached an extract temperance sermon on Sabbath afternoon, from the text "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."

On account of the storm on Friday evening there was no meeting of the Sons of Temperance. This is the first time since the division was organized that there has failed to be a meeting.

Taking young ladies for a drive on the front bob of a sleigh seems to be a favorite amusement this winter. Sleighing in the lanes is good.

The country around presents a scene of desolation since Friday's storm. Telegraph wires, fruit orchards, shade trees, etc., were alike destroyed by the weight of ice upon them.

Judging from the tasty posters, and the amount of practising for the Christmas tree on the 24th, it is bound to be a grand success. A most wonderful tree is pictured upon the posters, laden with such fruit as children prize at Christmas times. It is to be regretted that a Christmas tree at Hornby and an entertainment at the Scotch Block are to be held on the same evening. It was not known, however, until too late to alter the date.

Singular as it may seem, some of the spring flowers defy even the severe frost of December.

COMING AND GOING.
