LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

February, the windy month, again.

Council meeting next Monday evening.

Canadian P. O. orders can now be sent to the Hawaiian Islands.

The singing is causing the wind to move in considerable quantities.

Measures Arnold from their new laundry at Glen Lawson in operation.

The members of the Baptist Sunday School were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Warren at their residence about a week ago.

Mr. Browning, the Cornish evangelist, is holding special services in Norfolk St. Church, Guelph.

Honey socials are the latest invention. Sweet viands, sweet speeches, sweet music and sweet girls are the indumentum.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association will be held in Toronto next Thursday and Friday.

The two men who had news which made slough passable one of the roads hereabouts.

Councillor Anderson is supplying the local hotel men and butchers with their usual stock of ice. It is of excellent quality.

"Jack the Ripper" is at large in Woodstock to the consternation of media and mistresses whom he hangs regardless of circumstances.

What is an ad? A lever of trade. The dealer's sure road to success. The thin blood of modern business. A money maker gather and save.

Some Georgetown people have sufficient effrontery to suggest that Acton purchase its cast off, suggesting to go away now. Keep your old clothes and such.

Chatham council will submit bylaws to the taxpayers, increasing tavern licenses to $500, tavern licenses without the necessary accommodation, $500, and shop licenses to $500.

At Auction's auction rooms, Toronto, on Thursday, the stock of Butler Bros., books and groceries, Ushers, £500, was sold to R. E. Nelson, Guelph, for 600 dollars on the dollar. Money.

The municipal authorities are making the annual examination of the tools of the trade of Manufacturer and School masters. They will present their report at the council meeting Monday evening.

A gentleman remarked during the progress of the recent plebiscite campaign that he had eight arguments in favor of the prohibition of the traffic; and when asked what they were, replied: "My eight children."

A witty contemporary points out that it has cost Canada $20,000 for the prohibition commission to find out that one section of the community like to drink water while others have a preference for "a stuck" in it.

The Oakville Star in last issue publishes a short article labelled "Wards, Warren, Wards." Warren's friends would never know him. The Star should be more care full. Label should be removed for his offence those individuals.

A man from York, Va., goes across. A man went for an original mount, which appeared in the New Record about the Free Press' handwriting column. It was likely owing to an oversight. Clinton, New York.

Farmers are warned to beware of strangers who go about painting patent medicines signs on barns and buildings, and ask the farmers to sign a certificate that the work has been properly done. In a short time the certificate generally turns up at some bank as a promissory note.

The only weekly gives no news of your locality. It is the local paper that advertises you business, your schools, your churches, your numerical strength, your friends, who you are, your afflictions, and expenses with your prosperity. In short it is your local paper that mentions the thousand and one things which you are interested, during the year, and which you do not find in the city papers. Don't forget this.

An unusually cool evening at Clark Hotel on Saturday evening. An intrepid young man from next door had his nose broken when invited to get out before seven—the hour for closing. He pulled down the top rack, made ribbons of the towels and did somersaults talking and kicking. Constable Lawson dropped in, quiet was restored, the damages assessed and paid for, and the festive party put on a scale like a summer night.
