The Young Folks.

MY CHILD.

No much like a frail flower
But I am bound to be
That I have no time to message
Cares little to me,
And asks for my little one to sleep
Beside the Japies' tree.

I know that the winds of autumn
Are here to stay,
I know that the trees with their shades
Would rain his soul as pure,
And so I let my love go.
With a tear.

Thus comes as the principal Breaks over the autumn land, Crushing the earth & the flowers.
As the autumn king's command,
I know that my love is destined
To a long, Python's head.

And I know in that fair morning
That covers the bled years,
As I gain the "many mansions," Beneath the tall and taper,
I shall kiss her in her again,
Unclouded by care or care.

AIRED HER KNOWLEDGE.

She was a Vassar graduate, and didn't know a little about house keeping when she married her fast head and domineering to domestic life.

Her first order at the grocer's was a crusher, but that good man was used to all sorts of people, and could interpret Vassar as easily as plain English.

"I want ten pounds of paralyzed sugar," she said with a business air.

"Yes?"

"Two cans of condensed milk."

"Yes?"

"A bag of fresh salt—be sure that it is fresh."

"Yes?"

"A pound of desiccated rubber."

"Yes?"

"No," she said with a sad wobble to her flexible voice, "it would be of no use, as we don't keep a house."

Then the grocer sat down on a kit of machinery, and fanned himself with a patient washboard. Vassar had taken the cake.

A SURE CURE.

The merchant was rather blue, and his wife, noticing it, asked what the matter was.

"Master enough," he sighed. "I've been looking over my books and I find I've lost money every month for the last year."

"How did you lose it?" she inquired.

"Oh, don't know," he said wistfully shaking his head.

"Where?"

Then the thought a minute and remembered what she did when she lost her pocketbook, and her face brightened.

"Why don't you advertise for it?" she asked, innocently.

"By George," he exclaimed, "I never thought of that," and the next day he had a big display ad. in the paper, and the next and the next and the next, and in three months time he was in clover up to his chin.

A spinster, in writing to the newspaper of her native village, says: "I wonder that some of you scrubbers, who think you selves so smart, have not called us unmarriable marriageable ladies waiting maid."

An editor in Illinois announces the death of his paper thus: "We've concluded to kick the bucket." It has been a question of slow starvation or suicide, and we've determined on suicide.

The Philadelphian North American says,
"what is fame?" to which the Boston Post responds: "Fame is the result of being civil to newspaper men."

A honked husband being asked what his wife's "favorite game" was when she got home, only angry, scolded replied
"Shaw poker."

Mr. Stephen (during the honeymoon):
"When did my little duckie darling first discover that she loved me?"

Bride (sweetly): "When I found myself getting mad every time anyone called you a fool."

Minard's Liniment (Upper Burns &c.)

Itch on human and horses and all animals tried in minutes by Woodford's Santuary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by J. V.
Kannin, druggist.

Fair Maidens the foot ball game, during an exciting le. Oh, look there mu can't Jack hug just beautifully

Highly Praised.

I have tried you size yard's Yellow Oil and found it unequalled for burns, sprains, sciatica, rheumatism, and colds. I have recommended it to many friends and they also speak highly of it.

Mrs. Hight,
Montreal.

A political demagogue recently declared that "so long as the people are silent under their wrongs, their oppressors will be deaf to their cries."

Corna's Corns: Corns!

Discovered at last—a remedy that is sure, safe, and painless. Putman's Patent Cure. Extracts new salts, never causes irritation, never causes inflammation, nor does it irritate. It is the best and most simple, dangerous and the most saving substitutes in the market. See that it is made by Polson & Co., Kingston.

CONSUMPTION

Is averted, or if too late to avert it is often cured and always relieved by

Scott's Emulsion

the Cream of Cod-liver Oil Cures Coughs, Colds and Weak Lungs. Physicians, the world over, endorse it.

Don't be deceived by Substitutes!

SEE TO IT
that you're not put off with some poor old trick for
Dr. Pfeiffer's Golden Medicinal Wine. It is an honest dealer.

—Mantua.

Having used B. B. B. for biliousness and torpid liver, with the best results, would recommend it to all those troubled.
The medicine is worth its weight in gold.

—John White,

Mantua.

A disagreeable young man finds whose idea of fun differs from yours.

Like the deer on the mountain,
Like the bird on the wing over Lake the hollows of the Spirituous.

—There are no forever.

How beautifully these lines of Scott's express the instantaneous flight of single headache after the use of Stark's Headache Powder, which effect a permanent and immediate cure for all cases of Neuralgic Biliousness, and are sold every day twenty five cents per bag. Mr.
Alex. Hinman, Industrial Bank, Holland, say they are excellent and he recommends them to all who suffer from headache.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable.

The total value of the war material of the French army stands to nearly $500, 000,000.

Chronic Disengagements of the Stomach, Liver and Blood, are speedily removed by the active principle of the ingredients entering into the composition of Parmentier's Pills. These Pills are specifically on the deranged organs, stimulating to action the dormant energies of the system, thereby removing disease and renewing life and vitality to the afflicted. In this lies the great secret of the popularity of Par-mentier's Pills.

The deepest mining shaft is at Prudhom, in Bohemia, 3290 feet deep.

For the thorough and speedy cure of all Blood Diseases and Eruptions of the skin, take Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. Mrs. B. Forbes, Detroit, had a running sore on her leg for a long time, commenced using Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and she is now completely cured. Her husband thinks there is nothing equal to it for Ague or any low Fever.
