LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLIGHTS

Which Caught the Eyes of Free Press Reporters this Week.

- Berlin has a new fad. It is "cobweb partner."
- The Canada Grow Works are in full blast again.
- The Station Hotel has been re-estimated.
- "The Commercial."
- The World's Fair in the Town Hall next Wednesday evening.
- The new book and ladder truck will be ready for shipment the 1st of March.
- The farmers are now getting in for the spring wheat, and the report is that it is the best in years.
- The Patrons of Industry have decided to bring out a candidate in South Wellington.
- Considerable quantities of furs are being shipped at the O. Y. R. station this week.
- A new post office, to be known as "Glen orky," has been opened at Slater's Corners, Trafalgar.
- Acton will send a good delegation to the Sunday School Convention at Milton to-day.
- The spelling of slighting the past week has caused teachers to rush in the line in large quantities.
- The flyer which has been running through Acton to Chicago at about 2 in the past year will be discontinued after Saturday.
- Sheppard's World's Fair, which is meeting with such success through Canada, will be shown in the town hall next Wednesday evening.
- Last night a man on a road near Silvercreek, a relative of Mr. Fuller will be repaired by leaving at the Fair Pass office.
- Our citizens will be pleased to learn that Mr. Durso has satisfactorily arranged with his creditors and is again doing business. The entire stock is to be cleared out at very low prices.
- The boys had a jolly time on Saturday evening on the ice. No accidents reported. Some drivers were good natured, others silly. Some of the boys were courteous some the exception of the others.
- Daniel Leland's famous St. Bernard child, which died suddenly on Saturday afternoon, she leaves a family of four six weeks' old youngsters that feature valued "Stella" at $20.
- The house social at Lewis' school last Thursday night was largely attended. The programme provided by the Jean's Hero Concert Company was enjoyed and the address by Mr. James Park interested the audience.
- Mr. William Jones has gone into the manufacture of gloves and mitts. He is a good workman and starts out with an encouraging prospect. He is making a specialty of fur mitts, for driving from new and improved patterns.
- A sleighing party, comprising the stout and young people of St. Alban's Church, visited the home of Mr. James Harper on Monday night. They had a jolly time and appreciate highly the hospitality enjoyed at the Harper household.
- Mr. R. J. McNabb has been appointed clerk of the Fourth Division, next here in place of Commissioner Healy, who resigned before taking office. Mr. McNabb is a young man of ability and will no doubt perform the duties of the office to the satisfaction of the public.
- What is advertising? It is a medium for the increase of business. The construction of the Temple of Fortune. The most tested process on the road to success. The power that starts and keeps trade in motion. The Fair Press will give you the satisfaction of your own success. For ten cents in advance you will receive a copy of this book, which is a most practical and successful manual. We secure the facts, and we reveal the secrets as you are given a showing.
- A man named Waters, who appears to be tromping his way westward from Dosh wood, near the town, was taken off at the O. Y. R. station Tuesday night. He was taken to the cells and received medical treatment, several young fellows recognized him during the night. He had been drinking heavily for some time.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adopting the world's best products, to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embodied in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

It excels in its purity and its pleasant in the most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, bronchitis and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given relief to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession; because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 25c bottles. Buy at the factory by the California Fig Syrup Co. being a health-giving product on every continent and being a health-giving product on every continent and being a health-giving product on every continent.

J. V. Kannawin

To youth and strength cold weather is life. To age and weakness it may mean the opposite. At no time of the year is the need of a good remedy so apparent as the present when weakness takes its rise in troubles of a pulmonary character. Bronchial Syrup is the best remedy for coughs, colds and hoarseness, it has great soothing and healing properties. A cough however troublesome soon yields to Bronchial Syrup it loosens the phlegm and allays irritation. Try a 25c bottle.
