NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Manitoba Legislature has unanimously accepted Mr. Fisher's resolution condemning the Senate and advocating its abolition.

Canada's trade and navigation returns show that the exports in 1893 were valued at $118,619,750, as compared with $113,263,475 in 1892, an increase of $4,656,372. The total imports were $129,074,268, as compared with $127,105,068 in 1892.

A deficit for the past eight months of $18,000,000 is the story told by the recent official statement from the United States Treasury Department, and the amount is expected to reach $72,000,000 at the end of the fiscal year.

In the Legislature last Thursday Sir Oliver Mowat announced that his oldest colleague, Mr. C. F. Fraser, Commissioner of Public Works, had, owing to ill health, sent in his resignation, but would, until his successor was appointed, retain his portfolio.

The Provincial elections for Nova Scotia will be held on Thursday, 15th inst. It is said the abolition of the second chamber and a plebiscite on the Prohibition question will be interesting factors in the contest. An improvement in working the coal fields is also creating considerable interest.

Sir Oliver Mowat has introduced a bill separating the Rainy River District from that of Thunder Bay, for the purpose of administration of justice. The population in this new district is steadily increasing as it has become a favorite place for settlers on account of the fertility of the land.

The 4th of March in mercantile circles was an important day, being settling day between the retail and wholesale men and the banks. Reports from Montreal, Toronto and other wholesale centres in the Dominion state that on the whole notes were pretty well met and the outlook is better than was anticipated.

A despatch has been received by the Newfoundland Government from Lord Ripon, Colonial Secretary, in reference to the French treaties, insisting on the passage of permanent legislation to enforce the treaties and the arbitration agreed upon in 1890. Premier Whiteway has introduced a bill in conformity with Lord Ripon's request.

A large and complete assortment of Canadian fruit for exhibition at Antwerp has been prepared at the Central Experimental Farm. It consists of 1,094 bottles and jars of the best fruit shown at the World's Fair. The bottles were opened and new salicylic placed in them, so that the fruit will keep in good condition. The display is expected to be a thoroughly representative one.

The municipal corporation of the County of Middlesex is of the opinion that the officials of the county paid by fees receive a larger income than the services rendered by them justly entitle them to retain. They, therefore, pray that an Act should be passed by the Legislature making it optional with County Councils to pay such officials by salary, the surplus, if any, to go to the county.

New Zealand presents a striking example of the dependence of public prosperity on agriculture. Not many years ago New Zealand appeared to be crushed under a heavy debt, incurred by an extravagant system of borrowing and the Maori war. Instead of issuing more bonds the people and statesmen of the colony set themselves to developing its agricultural resources. The dairy and frozen meat industries have reached great magnitude and nowhere is the farmer more prosperous. In a single decade the annual exports of frozen meat have risen from less than $600,000 to over $5,000,000, and the exports of butter and cheese have doubled in half that period.

The Hon. William Ewart Gladstone has resigned the Premiership of Great Britain and Lord Rosebury reigns in his stead. Though he will retain his membership in the House of Commons and his connection with the administration of affairs, his life work is all but over. The career which is thus ending amidst storm and tumult is unparalled by any other in the records of the English people and Mr. Gladstone will pass into the niche in the Temple of Fame as the greatest statesman of the nation which is the mother of constitutional government. It is now almost sixty years since Mr. Gladstone first held office under a British sovereign. The Great Britain of to-day differs much from that of 1835, for though the millennium is yet far distant, and many harrassing problems vainly demand solution, there has been an enormous advance in the well being of the people.

BURGLARS IN BURLINGTON

Rev. Dr. Abraham's Residence Plundered While He Was Preaching.

The village of Burlington seems to be infested with tramps and burglars. The robbery of Little's grocery store on Friday night was but the prelude to another and more serious one, which was perpetuated last Sunday evening. While the Rev. Dr. Abraham and family were at church the manse was broken into and $65 in money and a number of valuables stolen. The thieves found entrance through the pantry window by forcing the fastenings with a jimmy. When once within they thoroughly ransacked the house. Several bedroom doors were locked, and those they forced open, opening trunks, cabinets and drawers. Unfortunately Mrs. Abraham had left her gold watch on the dressing room, and this they took with her wedding ring and other articles of much value, some of them souvenirs which no money can replace.

RIDEAU HALL IN MOURNING.

Sudden Death on Sunday of the Father of Lady Aberdeen.

OTTAWA, March 5.—A telegram received at the Government House yesterday afternoon conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of Her Excellency's father, Sir Dudley Coutts Marjoribanks, first Baron Tweedmouth. In consequence of their Excellencies being thus placed in deep mourning all the social engagements at Rideau Hall will be discontinued until further notice. The death of Lord Tweedmouth occurred in Bath. He was born in 1820, was the youngest son of the late Edward Majoribanks, for many years senior partner of Coutts' Bank. Called to the bar in 1846, he was elected to Parliament as a supporter of Mr. Gladstone in 1853, and continued to represent Berwick as a Liberal until 1881, when he was created Baron Tweedmouth of Edington, having been previously created a baronet in 1866. Lord Tweedmouth was a close follower of Mr. Gladstone whilst he was in the House of Commons, but dissented from him on the Home Rule question, although he never openly separated himself from the Liberal party.

THE WILLIAMS MURDER.

The Charge Against Buchard Abandoned. The Trial to Take Place Next Monday.

TORONTO, March 5.—It is understood that the crown has abandoned the charge against George Buchard, the Little York milkman, charged with being an accessory after the fact in the murder of James Williams and his wife on the Middle road, Toronto Township, on 19th ult. last. Mr. B. B. Osler, who will conduct the prosecution, is now preparing his case against the principals, Walter MacWherrell—or Whurrell, which is believed to be his real name—and John Walker, alias Kinsie.

CREWSON'S CORNERS FATALITY

James D. McDonald'd Death the Result of Cardiogonagnosa on Both Sides.

The adjourned inquest touching the death of the late Jas. D. McDonald was resumed at Crewson's Corners last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, before Coroner Hynes, at the residence of Mr. Wm. Anderson, postmaster. Mr. Peterson, the County Crown Attorney, of Wellington, watched the case in the interests of the Crown, and Mr. C. B. Pope was present in the interests of the G. T. R.

Dr. Urch, of Acton, gave evidence to having been called to attend the deceased immediately after the accident. He found the man suffering from a severe shock and what appeared to be concussion of the brain. Dr. McKeague and he made an examination and found no broken bones or injury excepting to the head, where a lacerated wound of three quarters of an inch or so appeared on the upper and back part. Witness did not further attend the deceased.

Dr. McKeague stated that he was called to see deceased immediately after the accident occurred, and attended him until he died. The man was unconscious from the first, which became more marked and ended in complete coma before death. He and Dr. Lowry trepanned the seat of injury, and found a fracture of the skull. He considered the cause of death was from pressure of blood on the brain.

John Kyle, Toronto, engine driver, said that he whistled at the signal post as usual. The post was about a quarter of a mile from the crossing. Then he did not see anything near the crossing, but upon getting within a short distance of it he saw a team walking slowly up the incline. He immediately cut off steam, blew the whistle and put on the air brakes. The engine struck the hind part of the sleigh, and the man was thrown out upon the road side.

John Bradshaw, Toronto, fireman, said that his mate blew the whistle at the proper place and he began to ring the bell. He thought at first the man would not attempt to go across. However, he went on, and when just at the crossing his mate saw him and blew the whistle. He then jumped up and urged his horses across the track by striking them with the lines. When the horses were across they appeared to hesitate and stop, and the man fell forward in the sleigh. The witness saw no more, having dodged behind the boiler to keep clear of flying splinters.

Joseph Gresdon, Wm. Alexander and Nicholas Forbes confirmed the evidence of Wm. Anderson and Alex. Cripps at last sitting as to not hearing the whistle blown.

Alex. Cripps was recalled for the purpose of showing the dangerous character of the approach to the crossing. He considered it entirely too steep and narrow, and the track from one part of the incline was obscured by fences and trees.

The verdict was:—That the said James D. McDonald came to his death through a collision on the Grand Trunk Railway at Crewson's Corners, and they think that the deceased showed great carelessness in approaching the crossing as he did; also, they think the employees of the railway company did not carry out the rules of the company and did not give timely warning of danger. They also think the grades approaching the track should be made less steep, larger and wider, and there would be much less danger.

It was close on midnight before all the evidence was taken.

The evidence also showed that the railway distributed ties along the highway and that the deceased was thrown out of his sleigh by the collision, and found lying near one of the ties upon which were marks of blood. This tie was within fifteen feet of the centre of the highway and about six feet from the rail.

It is understood that Mr. Peterson, County Crown Attorney, will present the verdict to the proper railway authorities, and it is to be hoped that for the safety of railway travellers as well as for the public at large travelling on the road, that the present crossing will be improved.

LITERARY NOTES

The Methodist Magazine for March 1894. Price $2 a year, $1 for six months, 20 cents per number. Toronto: William Briggs. The Methodist Magazine for March has a striking variety of contents. A warm tribute is paid to the memory of Dr. Douglas. An eminently practical paper is that by Dr. Meacham of Japan entitled "Hard Times, Their Causes and Remedies." "Our Molten Globe," by the eminent scientist, Alfred Russell Wallace, is a popular paper of great interest. The Italian Lakes, Como, Lugano and Maggiore are illustrated with numerous high class engravings. In Tent Life in Palestine is given an account of Hellier, with its stirring Biblical memories and other places connected with the Sunday school lessons now being studied throughout Christendom. An Easter Record is given by selected readings on The Risen Christ. The Larger Easter and Easter Poems. A portrait of Dr. Timothy Johnston and a review of his recent adventures in crossing the Dark Continent are also given.

A certain added interest attaches to books issued at this season from well known publishing houses. They, of course, are not often editorial utterances but they seem to carry something of the importance of editorial opinion backed by the successful books that have preceded them. In the January Harper's appeared a strong unsigned article on "The Mission of the Jews." The writer is the author of the volume on The Jewish Question which will be published by Harper & Brothers about March 16th. He or she prefers to remain anonymous for a time at least, but the subject and its sympathetic treatment at an opportune time like this ought to provoke enough discussion to reveal the author's identity.

The Delineator for April is the second of the "Great Spring Numbers," and has many special features in addition to the unusually fine display of attractive styles. Prominence is given to the dying in an illustrated article which describes How to Ride and What to Wear, and also in a full page of figures in bicycling costume and an original piece of Music entitled The Cyclists' March. Mothers of families will be glad of the aid of the very suggestive paper on Putting Out the Family for Spring and Summer. The latest literature is discussed in Among the Newest Books, and Flower Culture for the Month tells what work should be done in preparing the Garden for the Spring and Summer. The illustrated articles on Netting, Tatting, Knitting, Crocheting, etc., are as fascinating as usual to the lover of fancy work. Many other subjects are also treated. The subscription price of the Delineator is $1.00 a year. Single copies, 15 cents. Address orders to the Delineator Publishing Co. (Ltd.), 33 Richmond Street West, Toronto, Ont.

A MIRACLE IN N. B.

THE TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE OF A WELL-KNOWN GENTLEMAN

So Badly Crippled with Rheumatism That he was Helpless as an Infant. How he was Cured. A Lady Relative Also Restored to Health.

From the Richibucto, N. B. Review.

The attention of the Review having been called to two cases in Kingston in which it was alleged remarkable cures had been effected by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a reporter was sent to inquire into the parties named, and find out whether the cures were really the result of Pink Pills. Mr. Samuel Barnes, who for years resided in Dorchester, N. B., and who removed to Kingston, Kent Co., some years ago, was first interviewed, and asked whether the reports concerning his illness and his recovery from the use of those pills were true. He expressed his self willing to add his testimony to the many he saw in the papers concerning the wonderful cures effected by Pink Pills, and hoped his story might be the means of bringing relief to others. "We give his story as nearly as possible in his own words: "I was first attacked with acute muscular rheumatism in March, 1891. I was then living in Dorchester. For three months I lay in bed unable to move hand or foot, more helpless than an infant. The joints of my arms and legs were much swollen, and my hands and fingers twisted almost out of shape. The physician who attended me bandaged my limbs and in every way attempted to give me relief, but without effect. Two other doctors were called in consultation, but could not do anything for me. I was told by a friend who called to see me of wonderful cures reported to have been effected by the use of Pink Pills, and I resolved to cast aside doctors' medicine and give the pills a trial. When I had about half finished the second box I began to feel slightly better. After taking four or five boxes I was able to get out of bed and walk around the house on crutches. I continued taking the pills until I had taken a dozen boxes, when I stopped for a time. I was then able with the help of crutches to get out of doors and around. I have since removed to Kingston and continued taking the pills, and have continued to improve and hope soon to be entirely cured. Mr. Barnes is a gentleman of education, whose statements will carry weight. The writer remembers when Mr. Barnes first came to Kingston he was forced to use crutches, and was able to get around only with difficulty. He is now able to move around using only a cane, and apparently without any difficulty. His hands and fingers, however, still bear traces of the severe suffering he has undergone.

His sister, Mrs. John Taylor, was also a sufferer from muscular rheumatism. She was first attacked by the disease eight years ago, and at that time it was only with great difficulty she was able to move around. Doctor's medicine did not help her, and she tried all so called cures for rheumatism, but they appeared to do her no good whatever. Through the advice of Mr. Barnes and with the consent of her physician she began taking Pink Pills last fall. By the time she had finished her second box she felt decidedly improved. She has now finished her fourth box, and is apparently as well as she ever was. She said she was perfectly willing that the public should know that she was a firm believer in the efficacy of Pink Pills. The improvement wrought by these pills in the case of Mr. Barnes had first induced her to give them a trial, and she was now satisfied that the pills possessed wonderful curative powers.

Dr. Williams Pink Pills are a specific for all diseases arising from an impoverished condition of the blood or a shattered condition of the nervous forces such as St. Vitus dance, locomotor ataxia, rheumatism, paralysis, sciatica, the after effects of la grippe, loss of appetite, headache, dizziness, chronic erysipelas, scrofula, etc. They are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, correcting irregularities suppressions and all forms of female weakness, building anew the blood and restoring the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry or overwork of any nature.

Dr. Williams Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y. at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

ROCKWOOD.

Monday's Guelph Herald says:—W. H. Jago & Son, the well-known glove manufacturers of Rockwood, are desirous of moving the tannery department of their business to this city. Mr. Jago was in the city on Saturday and had a look round for a suitable building. He was piloted by Ald. Howe and Ald. Schultz. The firm's tannery business is in a flourishing shape and the excellence of manufacture is remarkable for its speed and thoroughness. If the tannery is located here it will only be a question of time when the glove works will follow suit.

A carnival will be held on Friday evening, March 9th. Mr. Pasmore will devote the entire proceeds to the laying down of new sidewalks next summer.

A petition is in circulation here and at Acton to the superintendent of the G. T. R. praying that a passenger coach may be attached to a freight train which passes this station at 8 o'clock a. m. for the accommodation of pupils attending the Guelph Collegiate Institute.

Mr. Daniel Pearyll has purchased two lots on Guelph street from Ald. Schultz upon which he will build a brick residence next spring.

Rev. J. W. Freeman, B. D., who some years ago was stationed at Rockwood, and who had to retire from the ministry on account of his health, located in Ontario, California, and went into fruit raising. He has carried off a number of prizes on lemons at the Midwinter Exhibition in San Francisco, being first in several varieties.

Long and Terrible Illness from Blood Poisoning

Completely Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Pilgrim's Rest, Quebec, writes as follows: "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla, and can truly say that it has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever taken. For years I was afflicted with a terrible ulcer on my leg, and suffered untold agony. Sometimes I could not walk across the floor, and was confined to my bed for months at a time. I was treated by the best physicians, but they could not cure me. I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after using a few bottles I was able to walk about the house. I continued its use, and in a short time was entirely cured. I am now in the enjoyment of perfect health, and can truly say that Hood's Sarsaparilla saved my life. I have also given it to my children with excellent results. I cannot say too much in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla."

An Odd Thing.

About a rain storm is, that the harder it rains the more soft water falls, and another thing is, that the more water falls the faster the water falls go. And speaking about rains, no matter how low you buy an umbrella, it always goes up when it rains. Some men only need a few "drops" to raise a storm (when they get home). One way to make a short a jacket a fashionable shape is, to wear it a little longer, but a more practical way is, to buy one of the Lion's latest styles at just half price. The purse need not be longer because the Jacket is longer. We will not linger longer on this subject, or the longing for our Jackets will become so intense that we will not be able to supply the demand.
