Rushing the Season

Some people think we are rather early with our baby carriages, but they are always in season. We have nice new goods, a splendid assortment of baby carriages, and if we don't do the trade of the town in baby carriages it won't be our fault, we intend to do it cheap enough anyway. Call and see them at

Years Ago

We could not find a place for our hat. But just as we were about to give up, we saw a man who we had seen before. He was the same man who had been with us when we were in the city. He was the same man who had been with us when we were in the city. He was the same man who had been with us when we were in the city.

NOT HIS BUSINESS

A New England town made the offer of a beautiful clock to any citizen who would give up his business. The offer was made in a public square, and the crowd was large. The offer was made in a public square, and the crowd was large. The offer was made in a public square, and the crowd was large.

A RUSH FOR TOMATOES

A clock, a beautiful green clock, recently received, and the owner had a great deal of trouble to get it out of the store. The clock was a beautiful one, and the owner was very proud of it.
