Rushing the Season

Some people think we are rather early with our baby carriages, but they are always in season. Well, we have new goods, a splendid assortment and right prices. And if we don't do the trade of the town in baby carriages it won't be our fault, we intend to do it cheap enough anyway. Call and see them at

Poetry.

WISHING THE WINTER WAD GANG.
I wish the winter wad gang,
That would melt away,
And leave the spring to me,
That I might see the day,
When the snow is all gone,
And the sun is shining bright,
And the birds are all singing,
And the flowers are all blooming,
And the world is all gay,
And I am all happy,
And the winter wad gang,
That would melt away,
And leave the spring to me,
That I might see the day,
When the snow is all gone,
And the sun is shining bright,
And the birds are all singing,
And the flowers are all blooming,
And the world is all gay,
And I am all happy.
