THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1894.

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLISTS

Which Caught The Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

-The dust is flying again.

-Farmers are busy plowing and seeding.

-The roads are in pretty fair condition again.

-The firemen had a good practice Monday night.

-April showers have not failed to connect as usual.

Mr. H. Grindell is improving his residence on Mill street.

-One of our new barrels has taken down his signs and departed.

-Slated hay and fat cattle are the ships here this week.

-The trout fishing season opens three weeks from next Tuesday.

-Dr. Wilkinson's office is now open every day from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

-Foot ball seems to be the popular game with the juniors this spring.

-John Kirkpatrick was fined $10 at Kingston this week for using an old stamp on letter.

-Annuity services are being reserved by the Home Circle and Acton Temperance Union.

-The Guelph Horse Association will hold their annual Spring show on Wednesday afternoon, 11th April.

-The delegation to Toronto was successful in securing the Provincial Fat Stock Show for Guelph for 1894.

-Mr. Arch. McNabb and family have removed to Mrs. R. Little's residence on Church and Wilbur streets.

-Now that warmer weather is here the clothing news will soon be sent out that the price of coal has been reduced.

-Mr. P. Kelly having settled in Buffalo is anxious to dispose of his property here. He advertises it in another column.

Constable Graham has had numerous quests of the tramp species this spring.
Last Thursday night he found five in the cells.

-C. Meissel complains that various tools and other useful articles have lately been taken from his barn on Main street without his permission.

-The Nassauwa Agricultural Society will hold its annual fall show on the 5th October. The exhibition will be open to Erskine, Puslinch and Nelson.

-South Waterloo Agricultural societies met Guelph Saturday and decided to take no action at present on the matter of bringing out a candidate for the Legislature.

There must be something in the air at Burlington. A few pieces of straw it has turned out quite a lot of naughty men within the last few years. Hamilton Herald.

William Hensett exhibited his double action spraying pump to the members of the Fruit Growers Association at Burlington last week. It commanded much admiration.

A couple of eggs of wonderful size were left at this office yesterday by Col. W.
Allen, who is confident he has the finest layers in the community. They are the Brahma-Plymouth Rock variety.

Mr. Robert Nicklin, who recently returned to his home at Brandon, Man., has been born out. The first originated up state and was started by children playing with marbles. The family just considerable clothing and bedding has saved much of their furniture.

Dr. G. H. Cook, dentist, Toronto, is arranging to visit Acton on the first and third Saturday of each month commencing on the 21st April. The Dr. is well known in this section having taught school at Dublin and at S. S. No. 5, Nassauwa, for some time.

The municipal council met in their regular session on Monday evening, but as all business has been kept cleared up there was nothing requiring their attention.

The putting in of a sewer from the John Matthews property on Mill street, west to the stream at the mill, was suspended.

Just opened up at the Drug Store, 100 window shades to go at $5, 10, 20 & 40 cents each, mounted on good spring rollers, cut in pine in oak, walnut and cherry to go at equally low prices. Call and see them.

By their advertisement G. B. Ryan & Co., Guelph, seem to be importing enough goods for Guelph and Acton too.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

THE COUNTRY AROUND.

COMING AND GOING.

Glasgow House, Acton.

WE beg to announce to the ladies of Acton and the vicinity that our stock of Spring Millinery will be displayed for their inspection on Saturday,

31st March.

Miss Stone will be again in charge this season and will be pleased to

WM. MCLEOD & CO. GEORGETOWN.

WERE it not to enlighten our patrons regarding the new-born fashions that are constantly arriving from over the sea and placed on our counters, in Dress Goods, Millinery, Mantles, etc., it would seem hardly worth while advertising as it is acknowledged we are the leaders in these important branches.

We have all the new, rare and exquisite fabrics in Dress Goods at away down prices. Our millinery is simply lovely. We have mantles and jackets at $1.00, the wonder of the country. Our prints and Cotton Wash Goods are marvels for extent, variety, beauty and cheapness. Our general stock of staple goods is right up to the mark, including check-ed shirtings, cottonmades, white cottons, tickings, etc.

Our ordered clothing department never was in better shape.
If you haven't left your measure-tor out of those $10.00 and $12.00 suits, our advice is, "Do it at once." Cheapest goods on earth.

This is house cleaning time.
Remember we have a large variety of excellent carpets, curtains, in lace, chintz and all the latest varieties, Union and Tapestry Carpets, $2.50 per yd.; Chenille Curtains, $2.75 per pair; lace Curtains, 35c. per pair; Muslin Curtains, 5c. per yd.; Scrub Curtains, 5c. per yd.

Book and Shoe Stock Complete.
Ready Made Clothing in men's and boys', large variety, low prices.

Our Dressmakers and Milliners are hard at work. Our regular opening show of Millinery and Dress Goods will take place on Thursday.

5th April, and following days. A cordial invitation extended to all to call and see.

We have lots of money savers in our stock, why go elsewhere and pay more? Come and take advantage of the depression prices. Market Day every Thursday in Georgetown, and special bargains those days.
