David Wackhamer was one of the oldest settlers of this section. He died at the age of 87 on Tuesday. Mr. Wackhamer came from Beamsville nearly sixty years ago and settled on the first line, Erin on the farm adjoining that now owned by ...

A Toronto paper is happy over the return of Canadians from the United States. It says: "Many who foolishly removed from Ontario to the United States a few years ago are now on the way to the Great West. Hundreds of French-Canadian who have been deprived of work in the factories of the New England States are getting ready to return to the dearest land in the world. Let the good of the return migration go on. The returning exiles will make all the better off as a result of their discovery that the brilliant verdure of a native land often exists, only in the imagination."

None from the North West.
The following from Mr. Clinton Falkner, dated at Saskatchewan, N.W.T., on April 15th, will be read with interest. "You may like to know how the crops last year were good all round. Wheat, spring wheat, hard, but prices low. They yielded very well at prices from 35 to 30 cents, at the present time. Potatoes were poor, selling at 75 cents a bushel. The snow is going rapidly. Farmers are on hand and expect to start seeding on Wednesday. Our winter was pleasant. Cold, certainly, at times, but we had very few storms. Average depth of snow, 15 inches. The Fall Frost is reported and I am always glad to get the local news."

The above are instances of one department only. You find leaders in all departments throughout the store

Carpets.
It is considered to be a novel on small articles much can be saved on large such as Carpets. Our stock is one of the finest in Western Ontario, we having the advantage of buying direct from the Manufacturers. You probably saw our challenge in the Globe and Mail, offering to send samples in competition with any House in Canada.

Mantles.
We cannot take time and space at present to describe our large stock of Spring Mantles Capes and Wraps, direct from Germany or our importations of French and English Dress Goods. We are very busy in these Departments.

Besides above goods we are offering a bargain lot of Lace Ends, suitable for short Curtains, many of these are very fine quality and the price less than half their real value. Also a number of Ladies' Print Wrappers, stylish garments bought in New York, selling prices, $1.25, $1.35, $1.50 and $2.00.

On Thursday, April 19th, we commence a Sale of 400 Pairs of Lace Curtains from 48c. to $5.00. These are at least 50 per cent. below their real value.
