

BANK OF HAMILTON.*THE NEWS AT HOME.*THE COUNTRY AROUND.COMING AND GOING.—Waugh Hamilton, Ontario, raccoon.HEAD OFFICE, HAMILTON.
DRAFTS, FURNISHINGS, ETC., $500.00.J. TURNBULL, H. S. STEVENS, GARRETT, ASST. CLERKS.DIRECTORATE: JOHN TURNBULL, President;
HAMILTON; JOHN VAUGHN, Vice-Pres.;
CLARK, GRO. ROACH, Wood, A. B. LEWIS.GEORGETOWN AGENCY.
Kings, disengaged and advanced member of all political parties, and a man of great ability, the United States, Great Britain and the Government of Ontario - bought and sold Gold and Silver and all accessible points on most favorable terms.RAVING DEPARTMENT.
Detailed information concerning the sale and purchase of stocks and bonds, and information from date of deposit to date of withdrawal.SPECIAL DISPOSITION.
Also receive all types of stocks of interest.
No notice of withdrawal required.

G. M. LIVINGSTON, A. M.

THE METHODIST CHURCH
ACTON.

REV. JOSEPH EDGE, Pastor

Parsonage, Lower Avenue.

Public Services 10 a.m., 4:30 p.m., Sunday School 10 a.m., 4:30 p.m., conducted by the pastor. Alternately officiated by theStrangers and visitors always welcome. At active others at the door.Great Bargains.In Wall Papers, Window Shades, Curtain Poles,
200 rolls at 3c. worth 5c.
200 rolls at 5c. worth 8c.
500 rolls at 6c. worth 10c.
See our wall papers at 7, 8, 9, 10, 12. Curtain poles,
20, 25, 30, 35 to 75c complete.
Paper window shades, with holder, 25c. worth 30c. Cloth window shades mounted 50c.
Worth 50c.The best values will be found at
GEO. HYNDS, Acton, Ont.The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1904.

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETSWhich Caught the Eyes or Ear of Free Press Readers This Week.

—Council meeting next Monday evening.

—Brampton has lowered civic salaries by $125.

—Is your subscription paid in advance?

Look at your label and ascertain.

—The painters are busy transforming the appearance of Suanderland Villa.

—Guelph policemen occasionally impone

a hand cart in lieu of a patrol wagon.

—The warm rains of Saturday and Sun day have given vegetation a wonderful impetus.

—The next regular meeting of the Guelph

Presbyterian will be held in Guelph next Tuesday.

—The Guelph Indian Medicine Co.

opens a two week's campaign in the town

this evening.

—It is pleasing to note the tidy and attractive appearance of many of the laws surrounding residences of our citizens.

—The Sunday School Normal Institute

for the county will be held at Georgetown

on Monday and Tuesday, 21st and 22nd

inst.

—Spring cleaning of premises within the municipality has been pretty general and the Sanitary Inspector's duties will be light.

—Oakville's civic holiday is fixed for Monday, August 13th, and we understand

a local organization is preparing to have a demonstration on that date.

—An enthusiastic Bahamian was fined

$1.00 and costs at Guelph on Friday for trespassing on the preserves of the Old

Log Bridge Fishing Club at Eden Mills.

—A relay bicycle trip from Sarnia to Montreal will take place on Queen's Birth day. The route runs through Acton. It will be a cycling event of great interest.

—Mrs. John Norrish is prepared to sup ply all orders for House Plants, Bulbs,

Seeds, etc. Cut flowers a specialty.

Apply at residence, Lake Avenue, Acton.

—The town council at Peterborough has decided to free the taxation on the machines of all manufacturing establish ments employing not less than 25 hands.

The early May flowers now greet those who stroll through the woods and glens. The yellow violet and wild geran ium are among the many-splendored blossoms.

—Harold, the little four-year-old son of

Mr. A. E. Nicklin, of the Canada Glove

Works, fell off the sidewalk on Friday evening and broke his arm below the shoulder. He is doing well.

—Mr. James Gibbons has purchased the farm of the late Peter Lee, part of lot 24,

con. 2, Esquinton, near Acton. This prop erty adjoins Mr. Gibbons' homestead on which he has resided since 1883.

W. Williams has removed his boot and shoe business to his store next door, which makes quite a neat and well ordered shop.

Charles &amp; Co., have removed to the shop vacated, from Mrs. Beard's block.

—Successful business has five underlying principles. First, something to sell.

Second, a place to sell it in. Third, suffi cient capital and business management.

Fourth, employes. Fifth, advertising or publicity.

—The Emma Wells Concert in the town hall on Thursday evening under the auspices of the Albion's Friends' School, was well attended. The programme had consider able merit but is decided by concertgoers

not to be up to that previously given by the Emma Wells Company here.

—Wm. Taylor, a young man who pump ed the organ at the Norfolk Street Metho dist Church, Guelph, in ascending the church stairway Friday afternoon, alighted and fell onto the floor below, a distance of ten feet, receiving such injur ies to his head as to die Saturday morning.

—Bob Lambert, tinsmith, Fergus, one day last week was working on the roof

when he got off his balance and fell back wards. He hit on the edge of the roof when he turned and fell to the ground. He fell a distance of 10 feet. He received no in jury further than a severe shaking of the limb.

—Acton has a good family time work in the service of Mr. Moses Smith at George town. Mr. Smith has entered into partner ship with Mr. E. H. Nicklin and the firm will make and shoe leathers at George town. They have secured the Lawson Mill

Property for this purpose. Mr. Smith has been with the Acton Tanning Co. since the incorporation. Mr. Andrew Ford takes his place with the Company here.

—Just opened up at the Drug store, 100

windup shades to suit at 35, 40, 50 &amp; 60 cents

each, mounted on good spring rollers, cur tain poles in oak, walnut and cherry to go at equally low prices. Call and see them.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

THE COUNTRY AROUND.

COMING AND GOING.

—Waugh Hamilton, Ontario, raccoon.

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

A Pleasant Event.

Acton and the Union further confirmed their fraternalities last week by a social evening spent together on Friday night. After the transaction of the usual business and the initiation of three new members into the Union's program of readings, music and an encouraging address by Rev. J. Edge was carried on. This was followed with refreshments, ice cream and cake being served. Almost the entire membership was present.

The annual convention of the Brampton, H. S. Association will be held at Eden Mills on the 14th inst.

Mr. W. W. St. John, formerly of Guelph, has measured the distance from the city hall in Acton to the hotel. Action, Thursday afternoon, with cyanoacrylate their bicycles. They found 1000 feet from here to the hotel, 1000 feet to the station, 1000 feet to the post office.

Last week a warrant was issued for the arrest of a youth named Lawrence on Marysough, a little girl eight years old. Lawrence escaped.

Hague of Guelph, however, has put in a fine new sitar for the C. G. C. Club. The work is credit to the young and enterprising firm.

Owing to the heavy rainstorm Sunday evening the Sunday School workers from Guelph failed to reach Rockwood to assist in the Sunday school service.

Guelph's Birthday at Guelph.

Guelph offers a most attractive program for its demonstration on Queen's birthday.

A royal salut at the 1st Bn. of Field Artillery, Guelph, ushered in a series of events of all sorts interesting and enjoyable.

The first league game of baseball between Hamilton and the Maple Leafs will commence at 10 o'clock. In the afternoon a long program of games and sports, including tug-of-war, Scotch and Irish dances, foot races, pony races, etc., will be held. A balloon ascension and parachute drop from the clouds will be the grand finale.

The Streetcar Strike says, Thus, Campbell, late of Georgetown, has taken possession of his hotel here, the Franklin House, and intends running it in first class style.

Rev. A. E. de Neill, D. D., attended the commencement exercises at McMaster University last week.

Mr. J. M. Roy, formerly of Georgetown, has resigned his position as manager of the Bank of Hamilton at Alliston.

Quarterly sacramental service was held in the Methodist church last Sabbath morning. A song service was given in the evening, subject, "The Ninety and Nine."

Rev. C. Cookman, of Port Dover, is visiting his daughter Gertrude who has been ill at the home of her uncle, Mr. James Brown, the past week or two. Miss Cookman, of Toronto, is also here.

Mrs. Ann Durio, of Maumie, Mich., arrived in Acton on Saturday morning, having come to stay with her daughter in the hospital there.

Mrs. Durio, a widow, has a daughter in the hospital there.

Miss Alice, wife of Mr. Roy, who has had a close in music here the past year, is about to return to England.

The Streetcar Strike says, Thus, Campbell, late of Georgetown, has taken possession of his hotel here, the Franklin House, and intends running it in first class style.

Rev. A. E. de Neill, D. D., attended the commencement exercises at McMaster University last week.

Mr. J. M. Roy, formerly of Georgetown, has resigned his position as manager of the Bank of Hamilton at Alliston.

Quarterly sacramental service was held in the Methodist church last Sabbath morning. A song service was given in the evening, subject, "The Ninety and Nine."

Rev. C. Cookman, of Port Dover, is visiting his daughter Gertrude who has been ill at the home of her uncle, Mr. James Brown, the past week or two. Miss Cookman, of Toronto, is also here.

Mrs. Ann Durio, of Maumie, Mich., arrived in Acton on Saturday morning, having come to stay with her daughter in the hospital there.

Mrs. Durio, a widow, has a daughter in the hospital there.

Miss Alice, wife of Mr. Roy, who has had a close in music here the past year, is about to return to England.

The Streetcar Strike says, Thus, Campbell, late of Georgetown, has taken possession of his hotel here, the Franklin House, and intends running it in first class style.

Rev. A. E. de Neill, D. D., attended the commencement exercises at McMaster University last week.

Mr. J. M. Roy, formerly of Georgetown, has resigned his position as manager of the Bank of Hamilton at Alliston.

Quarterly sacramental service was held in the Methodist church last Sabbath morning. A song service was given in the evening, subject, "The Ninety and Nine."

Rev. C. Cookman, of Port Dover, is visiting his daughter Gertrude who has been ill at the home of her uncle, Mr. James Brown, the past week or two. Miss Cookman, of Toronto, is also here.

Mrs. Ann Durio, of Maumie, Mich., arrived in Acton on Saturday morning, having come to stay with her daughter in the hospital there.

Mrs. Durio, a widow, has a daughter in the hospital there.

Miss Alice, wife of Mr. Roy, who has had a close in music here the past year, is about to return to England.

The Streetcar Strike says, Thus, Campbell, late of Georgetown, has taken possession of his hotel here, the Franklin House,