LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFS.

Which Caught the Eyes or Earned of Free Press Reporters this Week?

Provincial elections next Tuesday.

Council meeting next Monday evening.

—Dominion Day a week from Monday.

—Counterfeiting ten cent pieces are on circulation here. Look out for them.

—Over 200 car loads of potatoes have been shipped from Hillsburg this year.

—The Patron's picnic yesterday was well attended and counted quite a success.

—The polling places in Acton for the election next Tuesday will be at the town hall and C. C. Speight's store.

The copious showers on Sunday night and Monday morning were much appreciated.

—Action Cornet Band went to Niagara Falls last evening to play at a lawn social at the home of Mr. Marshall Holmes.

—A garden party will be held at Mrs. Carr's, Erin, next Tuesday, 26th inst., in aid of the Congregational church, Churchill.

—The Fall Assizes for Halton will be held at the Court House, Milton, on Monday, September 10th. Chief Justice Galt to preside.

—Vote next Monday for the man you consider can best conserve the interests of the Province. Both of Halton candidates are good men.

The foundations for the new brick residence of Mr. Alex. Seccor on Bloor Avenue and Mr. John Chisholm, Jr., on Park Avenue, are about completed.

—E. R. Lewis, of Collingwood, died a short time ago and his funeral will be held in the parish church this week. The boys and girls enjoyed it, but it made dimmest disappear pretty rapidly.

To the first giving information that will lead to the conviction of the boys who rob birds' nests or have birds' eggs in their possession taken this year, the Galt Humane Society will give a reward of $5.00 upon conviction.

Our inglorious boys were again successful at Erin on Friday. In a keenly contested match of an hour and a half, they won the only two goals scored. The first was scored by Fred Hyler and the other by C. Williams.

A very sad and sudden death occurred at Linchfield on Saturday morning. Mrs. James Grant, who had been ill for some weeks but was rapidly recovering, died very suddenly from an attack of heart disease. Mr. Grant and his family have general sympathy in their affliction.

The Larcoms. A valuable addition to a reliable paper read. Probably the best of all the readers of the paper, but by sufficient number to make the a fit pay off the goods are right. No doubt about whatever it's all about, as we know it. A truly day comes sometimes but there's a stay long.

The Party bound for Galt has secured the services of Mr. M. Codd, a graduate of the Acton Free Press office, who has earned an excellent reputation as a job printer, and he has now charge of the mechanical part of our business. We will after the addition of a few improvements be able to turn out job work equal to that of any other office in the Province.

The Larcoms. A valuable addition to a reliable paper read. Charlie Morris, pianist, yesterday, and has seen the sunsets on his face, you would have said without knowing that a very nice little girl arrived at his home yesterday morning. Headlines that it is pretty of course, that means that it resembles its good looking mother but Charlie little."

The Guelph "Herald" says: There was placed on exhibition to-day in Savage's Cos. window a handsome gold medal presented by H. P. Moore, of the Acton Free Press, for competition at the closing exercises last week at Albert College, Guelph. The medal is 18 inches in diameter and is suspended from a bar. On the front of the disc is engraved the crest and name of the college and the date. On the reverse side is inscribed the following: Presented by H. P. Moore, Acton, for general proficiency.

Successful Launch of a Novelty. The first public gathering in aid of the proposed new Presbyterian church was held at the home of Mr. John Stalter, third line, on Tuesday evening. There was a good attendance and the evening was very pleasant. The money was spent in general intercourse, music, games, etc. Refreshments were supplied by the company.

—The company was well received and great spirits owing to the marked success of the exercises for funds for the new editor, and the prospect of building sports being commenced at an early date. The proceeds of the evening were about $100.

—Inland's Elginian for埋葬.
