

The Young Folks.

MOTHER'S HYMN.

How glad are those lips that smile so sweetly...

The stars are at least. While I sit gazing at her own dear face...

And think of her long hair. The room still echoes with the soft thro music...

As singing soft and low. Those grand, sweet hymns, the Christian's chosolists. She rocks her to and fro. Some that can stir the heart like storms of triumph. No lullaby lullaby has been composed...

And tender notes, filled with ungodlyapture. That heavenly music...
