The Young Folks.

A LITTLE SUNDAY.

Upstairs and down stairs,
With her little feet—
Climbing,
All the happy day—
Hopping about like a squirrel,
Teaching her to dance and play,
Up and down the stairs!

Upstairs and down stairs,
Laughing if she falls;
Playing—
Dancing—

Lakes on April rain,
Playing calls to mamma's house—
Dows and smiles, and teats again,
I pass down the stairs!

Up stairs and down stairs,
Gaily chattering—
Bouncing,

Moves the golden head;

Somewhere always scattering—
Wherever she may tread—
Upwards—
Good Hopkeeping.

TOO CONFIDENT.

Serving on a jury is a disagreeable duty, from which the ordinary man always seeks to be excused. Not long ago in an Omaha court Mr. John Doe was called, and after giving his name asked to be excused.

"What excuse have you?" asked the judge sternly.

"Hey," said Mr. Doe, "You'll have to speak louder, judge."

The question was repeated, and Mr. Doe replied, "Well, judge, I'm hard of hearing, and I would be useless for me to try to serve."

"Can you hear an ordinary conversation at once?" asked the judge.

"Hey," exclaimed Doe, placing his hand behind his ear.

"I say can you hear an ordinary conversational tone?" asked the judge, pinching his voice a little higher.

"Well, it bothers me a great deal," replied Doe.

"Then," said the judge in a low tone of voice, "I will have to excuse you from not hearing well."

Low as the tone was, Mr. Doe heard it, and he started away with a pleasant smile on his face.

"Wait, Mr. Doe," said the judge quickly. "If you can hear that, you can hear well enough to serve as a juror. We cannot excuse you."

And John Doe collapsed and fell into the nearest chair.

THE CITY OF PULLMAN.

Pullman has suddenly, through the recent strike inaugurated there, become a point of much interest to the whole country.

It is a noted industrial suburb of the City of Chicago, to which it was annexed in 1889. It is situated in the middle south of the county, about 15 miles from Chicago and three miles from Lake Michigan. In 1890 its population was 10,000. It was founded in 1889 by the Pullman Palace Car Co., and besides the extensive works of that company, which ordinarily employed about 4,000 men, it has several other important industries, such as the Allen Paper Car Wheel Works, the Union Foundry, the Pullman Iron and Steel Works, and several other establishments, which in the aggregate give employment to fully 6,000 men. Pullman is a great solar system, with gas and electricity and is believed to have the most perfect system of water supply and drainage known. Like Homestead, Pennsylvania, it was founded for the convenience of mechanics and was believed to be more nearly the ideal home of labor than any other place in the world. Like Homestead, however, it has become suddenly notorious as the point of a tremendous labor strike and disturbance.

CONCENTRATED EXTRACT.

Woman is the masterpiece.

Men have eight, women insight.

Virtue is like a rich stone, best plain set.

True prosperity depends upon true labor.

They never pardon who commit the wrong.

Even an upright piano is sometimes a downright nuisance.

High heeled shoes for women date from that of King Louis XIV.

The greater the need the best things ought to be calm and tranquil.

Cupid is always represented as a baby, because Love seldom lives to grow up.

A pretty girl can usually forgive a man for staring at her, but you wouldn't think so to hear her tell the folks about it when she goes home.

Some pessimists may still contend that marriage is a failure, but to the bright lights of the operatic prima donna, there is no such word as fail.

It is by a noble boldness to run the risk of becoming half to half of the evils we anticipate than to remain in cowardly indecision for fear of what may happen.

UNDENIABLE.

You shouldn't be so restless in church, Charlie, said the minister to his son, "I could see you nodding and jumping about to the point all through my sermon."

"I was stiffer than you were," answered Charlie. "You was wavin' your arms and talkin' all through church."

The Best in Canada!

People Say It Is the Best.

Paine's Celery Compound Meets the Wants of All.

In the cities and towns of Canada, the drug trade seems without hesitation, that Paine's Celery Compound is their best and safest aid. In the villages and small country districts, the general storekeeper gives the same report. Why is this? Simply because Paine's Celery Compound cures disease, and people who buy it are not disappointed as they are with the scores of other medicines now on the market.

Paine's Celery Compound is an acknowledged triumph of medical research, and meets cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles, ear aches, headache and insomnia in a way that no other medicine can do. Its effects are prompt and sure, the first bottle often cures.

This is indeed the medicine for every sufferer in our midst. Do not allow your dealer to lead you some other "medicine" when you ask for Paine's Celery Compound. If he has not got it in stock, ask him to procure it for you.

NOTES HERE AND THERE.

Items of General Interest to Press Readers.

Acute Indigestion Cured.

Admonton, Ont., July 6, 1891.—Hood's Pills have performed wonders in curing indigestion and other stomach trouble. A few weeks ago a lady had a severe attack of indigestion without obtaining any relief for three days. "I then prepared a box of Hood's Pills and after two doses the indigestive food was dispelled, the distress removed and I have been well ever since.

I take pleasure in recommending Hood's Pills to the public.—Mary Bryson.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable.

Every age has its problem, by solving which humanity is helped forward.

Dear Sirs.—I was suffering much from diarrhoea, and could not get nothing to cure me. A friend told me of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberries, and a few doses completely cured me. Thank you, Dr. Graham, M.D., Mass.

The girls of course were treated, while the boys partook of the same.

A Cure for Chronic Cases.

The old calmed treatment for chronic trouble of the digestive system should be restored to us. Eddy's Liver and Gall Bladder Tonic is the best.

Dear Sirs.—I am a widow, and have a large family which is in bad health. I have a vegetable compound, a regular course of treatment with this medicine for the worst forms of dyspepsia, indigestion, chronic constipation, impure blood, piles, etc., only involves the use of a few boxes. If your tongue is coated it indicates that you require them and you should get a box at once. Remember to ask for Eddy's Liver Lozenges.

DOCTORS ENDORSE IT.

An Eminent Physician of Arkansas tells of some Remarkable Cures at Commercial.

See Dr. F. Phipps Co., Ark.

Dr. H. V. Price.

Eddy's Liver Lozenges.

Each man learns that in going down into his own mind he has descended into the depths of all kinds.

Each man learns that his wife is the wide chain that lies between his wife and his powers.

A Home to Horsemen.—One bottle of English Spavin Emulsion completely removes each from my horse. I take pleasure in recommending the remedy, as it acts with mysterious promptness in the removal from horses of hard, soft or calloused lumps, blood spavin, splints, corbs, swells, stiles and sprains. George Bob, farmer, Markham, Ont. Sold by J. V. Denen, Ont.

Eaten cannot be where there is no confidence; and there can be no confidence where there is no respect.

Not Crude Material.

Scott's Emulsion is Cox Liver Oil perfected and is prepared upon the principle of its digestion and assimilation in the man system; hence it is given without disturbing the stomach.

Nature and certainty are very hard to come at; infidelity is merely vanity and pretence.

No family living in a bilious country should be without Parnell's Vegetable Pills. A few does taken now and then will keep the Liver active, cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter and prevent Ague. Mr. J. L. Price, Shreve, Martin Co., Ind., writes "I have tried a box of Parnell's Pills and find them the best medicine for Fever and Ague I have ever used."

So should we live that every hour may bring us the natural flower, a self-reviving thing of power.

Dear Sirs.—I have used Yellow Oil for two or three years, and think it has no equal for cramps. Mrs. J. S. O'Brien, Huntsville, Ont.
