LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

—First week of Autumn.

—Toronto Exhibition, of 1924, is in operation.

—The rains have helped the farmers in their seedling.

—Norwich's rate of taxation will be 20 mills on the dollar.

—The rain on Sunday and following days was happily welcomed.

—The Executive session of the County Council will meet next Tuesday.

—The balmy days of summer are being replaced by the cooler days of fall.

—Gen. Booth, of the Salvation Army, will visit Geolph, January 29th, 1925.

—The brick work of Mr. John Chisholm's new residence on Park avenue is completed.

—Namsagwaya Judge's Court Session will be held on 13th September.

—The coroner's case of who knew Church will be laid next Wednesday afternoon.

—Hilton Patrons will put a candidate in the field again for the House of Commons.

—The bricklayers are now busy on Mr. Alex. Bennett's new residence after waiting a month for brick.

—The bush fire in "The Gore" did much damage last week on the farms of Messrs. W. Plank and J. Townsend.

—Labor Day was not generally observed here on Monday. The Canada Works here gave its employees a holiday.

—The County Judge will hold a Court of Session for Enquiring into the case at Stawston on Wednesday, 10th Sept.

—In a football match between Opeongo and Acton on Saturday evening in the Park here the visitors won by two goals to one.

—The prize list and posters for Acton Horticultural and Agricultural Fair are now on hand.

—The Conservative of the County of Peel have nominated Mr. W. A. McCullis as their standard bearer for the House of Commons.

—While playing football Saturday Frank Swackhammer had his ankle badly twisted that he is unable to work this week.

—A lacrosse match between the Juniors of Milton and Acton was played here on Monday and resulted in four straight goals for Acton.

—Duck shooting came on to the 1st of September, but it is against the law for any person to kill or shoot any bird or wild fowl between sunset and sunrise.

—We will send the Free Press to any address till the end of the year for 25 cents. An excellent opportunity to show your friends at a distance what Acton and vicinity is doing.

—The bush fire in the vicinity, which has done much damage to fence and timber, and threatened destruction of several farm buildings, were pretty well subdued by Sunday night's rain.

—The Council met on Monday evening in regular session. The only business transacted was the passing of the 16th report of the Finance Committee, covering a number of small accounts, aggregating $100.

—Notwithstanding the constant and prolonged howl of hard times, and the fact that the business is not so good as it was last year, the attendance at the year-end party was larger than at any previous time in their respective histories.

—The full text of the petition against the election of Col. Kerne to the Provincial Legislature is published in "last issue."

—Every line of a newspaper costs something. It is for the benefit of an individual, it is for the benefit of the community. It is for the benefit of the nation. It is for the benefit of the world. It is for the benefit of the universe.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Monthly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

Improvements of St. Joseph's Church. Rev. Father Healy has pushed forward the improvements at St. Joseph's Church so that they will be finished in a few days. The vestry is almost finished, the plasterers have completed their work in the auditorium, and the painters are now busy. A splendid new furnace has been put in and when the work is finished the church will be a new building—within and without. The reopening will take place on Sunday, 7th October, when Right Rev. H. J. Dowling, D. D., of Hamilton, Bishop of the Diocese, will officiate.

Whitson Election Expenses. The published statement of the expenses incurred by the candidates, in the recent provincial election, showed that Mr. H. H. Whitson's expenses were: Livery accounts, $100.00; travel, $100.00; printing, $100.00; rent of hall, $25.00; personal expenses, $50.00; distributing campaign literature and canvassing, $100.00; telegraph accounts, $50.00. Total $525.00. (Liquor, $100.00; rent of hall, $25.00; printing, $100.00; advertising, $100.00; livery, $100.00; total $525.00.)

The H. and A. Society's Concert. President Duff was in town the other evening and informed the Executive of the concert at the close of the Fair this year will be of a most attractive character. Miss Jessie Alexander, who has just returned from Europe with a new repertoire of songs has been secured and will assure a large attendance. Miss Alexander is one of the foremost educationists on this continent and has already won the hearts of the people here. In addition the programme will have other excellent talent, and definitely settled.

Marriage of a Former Actor Boy. The Quilch Marzary says:—A very interesting ceremony took place at eight o'clock Wednesday evening in the Church of St. James. It was the marriage of Mr. Patrick Kelly, of Stratford, engaged in the dry goods business, to Miss Lizzie McTague, eldest daughter of Mr. Chas. McTague, of Stratford. The young lady departed from here, while regretted by her friends, is consoled by the hope of a happy future in her new home. The gift of the gown to the bride was a diamond ring, and the bride wore a bracelet. The newly-made ones will leave by the 10:30 train en route for Stratford, to visit Mr. Kelly's parents, amid showers of rice at the station and the well wishes of a host of friends.

Churches and their interests. The event of the coming week in ecclesiastical circles will be the ceremony of the laying of the corner stones of the new Presbyterian Church next Wednesday. The stones will be laid by Rev. J. G. Gifford, of Hallowell, and Archibald Campbell, Esq., at three o'clock in the afternoon. Addresses by visiting brethren will follow. Supper will be served on the lawn at the church from 7 to 7:30 and the Rev. J. P. McKay, M. A., General Secretary of the Foreign Missions, and Rev. J. Gifford will deliver addresses. Owing to the work in progress in St. Joseph's Church the services will be held in the Church of St. James, Church Street.

Death of a Former Resident. The sad intelligence of the death of Mr. John Milne, of St. Louis, Mo., reached his relatives here Sunday afternoon. Mr. Milne had been in ill health some months and gradually failed until death came on Sunday morning. Mr. Milne left Acton over twenty years ago and has been in St. Louis most of the time since. He was a miller by trade and by ability perseverance forced himself to the front ranks of his vocation and was for a number of years manager of the Plant Milling Co's works, one of the mammoth flouring mills situated on the banks of the great Mississippi, at a very liberal salary. Mr. Milne was a most genial character and highly esteemed by all. He lived in the hearts of his family who will mourn the loss of a loving husband and father. The funeral will be held on Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at the residence of Mrs. Milne, 125 St. James Street. The Rev. J. G. Gifford, of Hallowell, will officiate. Mr. Milne's wife and two sons are sisters of Mr. Milne. As a young man here he was a general favorite with his companions, who will ever remember him as "Johnnie Milne."

When Crosses are the Best. The harvest festival in St. Alban's Church last Thursday evening was largely attended and was a most interesting service.
