

BORN

TALK OF THE DAY.

Ruth, in Acton, on Thursday, 10th October, the wife of John D. Kelly, of a son.
Katherine, in Acton, on Friday, 11th October, the wife of John D. Kelly, of a son.
Peter, on Friday, Oct. 10th, the wife of Mr. Wm. Pollock, Nassauwaya, of a son.
John, in Niagara-on-the-Lake, 15th Oct., the wife of Mr. John Morris, of a daughter.
Ruth, in Waterloo, Oct. 10th, the wife of Mr. W. Kerr, Keene, of a daughter.
Anson, in Acton, on Sunday, 11th October, the wife of H. T. Arnold, of a daughter.
MARRIED.

Ernest, Chancery, at the Methodist Parsonage, Elgin, Ontario, on Saturday, 10th October, Mrs. Tyron, of Berlin, to Miss Sarah Crane, of Kitchener.
ALEXANDER-MCKENNAHAN.—At the residence of Hon. Alexander, in the city of the Britons, Ottawa, Ontario, by Rev. Mr. Blatch, Mr. James Alexander, Nelson to Maggie, the daughter of the late Duncan McKechnie, of Nassauwaya.

DIED.

Norah, in Toronto, on Monday, 12th Oct., Arthur Norris, in his eighties.

Nicholas, in the General Hospital, Guelph, on Friday, 13th October, Julian Brinkley.

Watson, in Waterloo, on Wednesday, 10th October, Mr. Thomas G. Watson, brother of Mr. W. H. Donley, Acton, aged 31 years, 7 months.

The Acton Free Press.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1894.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The elections in the Belgian Chamber of Deputies were held on October 12th under the new compulsory system. The clergy had three votes to two and one held by other citizens, and with this advantage it is believed the Clerical party will retain power. Many rebellious will be requisite.

The value of the crop of the Province of Ontario for 1891 is placed by the Bureau of Industries at one hundred and two million dollars. The principal items that go to make up the total are—Flax, $11,000,000; oats, $10,450,000; wheat, $15,000,000; peas, $7,651,000; turnips, $6,507,000; potatos, $5,100,000.

Two suicides which have recently taken place present a remarkable contrast. In one case a Montreal surrounded by luxury and wealth blew out his brains, while in the other a murderer condemned to life-long imprisonment in Quebec, pained himself. One man had liberty without health, and the other health without liberty. Few of us realize how well off he who has both "Mort."

In connection with the reports of China having offered to concede the independence of Corea and to pay a money indemnity to Japan as conditions of peace, the hope of the world will be that there shall be little or no further aggression. The day has gone by when humanity can view with complacency the needless butchery of thousands of men, with all the attendant horrors of war.

The Conservatives of the County of Peel are finding it very difficult to secure a candidate for the Commons. Last fall a fairly representative meeting offered the nomination to Mr. Blain. After considering the question, he declined to accept. Subsequently another convention requested Mr. McElroy to again enter the field. He too has declined the nomination. A third convention will be necessary.

On the subject of immigration Minister Daly says that, although the number coming in had fallen off compared with previous years, in no year since settlement had commenced in the North west had there been so many arrivals. The inquest was again adjourned.

The inquiry into the Westwood shooting fatality was resumed Monday night. Numerous witnesses were examined but no light was thrown on the mystery. The inquest was again adjourned.

A man is current in Shanghai that the Chinese Government are negotiating with Japan for peace, offering to acknowledge the independence of Corea and to pay a war indemnity to Japan.

Grave fears are entertained that Capt. Howard of Galtine's gun fame, who left Gaspé Harbour on Friday week with his son to visit his lobster cannery on the Labrador coast, was drowned in the big storm.

A man of Belleville, aged seventy-six, was married yesterday to Ottawa, Mrs. Mary Jane Wartman. The bride is sixty two. The happy couple left after the wedding breakfast for their honeymoon in England and on the continent.

It appears that ex Vice-President Merton of the United States, on his return from England recently, brought with him a young man to act as assistant coachman. The authorities got after the coachman, and it is said, he will be sent back to England.

Movements to Sir John Macdonald have now been suspended in Hamilton and Toronto. There is a bust of the dead chieftain in St. Paul's cathedral. At Kingston, Montreal, and Ottawa monuments are to be erected. Few men have been so highly honoured by any country.

Near Blenheim, Ont., Friday, Joseph Laird an old resident, who lived alone, hanged himself in his barn. He made a rope of binding twine, formed a noose at one end, fastened the other end above, stood upon a chair placed end broad through the noose and jumped off. He is said to have been a heavy drinker.

THE STATUE UNVEILED.

Another Tribute to the Mentor, Sir John Macdonald.

Toronto, Oct. 14th. The third anniversary of the death of Sir John Macdonald, the first Prime Minister of Canada, was observed in the Queen's Park Saturday afternoon in presence of 30,000 spectators.

The occasion was honored more than any event in years past by the presence of distinguished men of the country, and, as a consequence, a great display of speeches bearing an historical stamp, perpetuating in words the personality, spirit and achievements of the late Premier to whose memory enduring memorials are being set up in the principal centres of population throughout Canada.

THE SUPREME COURT.

No Judgment yet as to Ontario's Power to Prohibit the Liquor Traffic.

Ottawa, Oct. 16th. The Supreme Court met again to day, there being on the bench Chief Justice Strong and Justices Taschner, Gwynne, King, and Sedgwick. It was expected that judgment would be given in the "Power to prohibit" case, but this was not done. The Ontario bill which includes all acts west of Quebec was passed with.

A SLAUGHTER OF HOOS.

Hamilton, Oct. 16. Quite an extensive slaughter of hogs took place on the Grand Trunk Railway this side of Galtown last night. About 10 o'clock a through freight was "popped" east on its way from Chicago to Cambridge, Mass., when an axle of one of the cars broke and derailed nine cars. These cars were loaded principally with hogs, and between 200 and 300 of these were killed. The accident caused a considerable check of traffic on that line, and the road has been held up for several hours.

These cars were loaded principally with hogs, and between 200 and 300 of these were killed. The accident caused a considerable check of traffic on that line, and the road has been held up for several hours.

The new offices are: President, G. T. Ferguson, Toronto; vice-president, Rev. A. F. McGregor of Woodstock; Rev. E. A. Munro of Hamilton; E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, and T. Best, of Bradford; constable, Rev. J. R. Fletcher, of Stony Creek; Rev. A. C. Gurnett, of Guelph; and Rev. A. H. Dickson, Galt, joint superintendent; C. J. Atkinson, Mimico, treasurer; W. J. Doherty, London; general and statistical secretary, Ald. Morris, Hamilton.

Cold in the head—Nasal Balm gives instant relief & speedily cures. Never fails.

No one was hurt in this accident.

ACTON EXHIBITION'S SUCCESS.

An Epitome of the World's Doing During the Week.

Five cases of typhoid fever are reported in London General Hospital.

The Siberian railway was opened for traffic Monday as far as Ussuri.

China. In Nagasaki, on Monday, 15th Oct., W. Kerr, Keene, of a daughter.

Ruth, in Waterloo, Oct. 2d, the wife of Mr. W. Kerr, Keene, of a daughter.

Arnold, in Acton, on Sunday, 14th October, the wife of H. T. Arnold, of a daughter.

MARRIED.

Ernest, Chancery, at the Methodist Parsonage, Elgin, Ontario, to Miss Sarah Crane, of Kitchener.

ALEXANDER-MCKENNAHAN.—At the residence of Hon. Alexander, in the city of the Britons, Ottawa, Ontario, by Rev. Mr. Blatch, Mr. James Alexander, Nelson to Maggie, the daughter of the late Duncan McKechnie, of Nassauwaya.

DIED.

Norah, in Toronto, on Monday, 12th Oct., Arthur Norris, in his eighties.

Nicholas, in the General Hospital, Guelph, on Friday, 13th October, Julian Brinkley.

Watson, in Waterloo, on Wednesday, 10th October, Mr. Thomas G. Watson, brother of Mr. W. H. Donley, Acton, aged 31 years, 7 months.

The Acton Free Press.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1894.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The elections in the Belgian Chamber of Deputies were held on October 12th under the new compulsory system. The clergy had three votes to two and one held by other citizens, and with this advantage it is believed the Clerical party will retain power. Many rebellious will be requisite.

The value of the crop of the Province of Ontario for 1891 is placed by the Bureau of Industries at one hundred and two million dollars. The principal items that go to make up the total are—Flax, $11,000,000; oats, $10,450,000; wheat, $15,000,000; peas, $7,651,000; turnips, $6,507,000; potatos, $5,100,000.

Two suicides which have recently taken place present a remarkable contrast. In one case a Montreal surrounded by luxury and wealth blew out his brains, while in the other a murderer condemned to life-long imprisonment in Quebec, pained himself. One man had liberty without health, and the other health without liberty. Few of us realize how well off he who has both "Mort."

In connection with the reports of China having offered to concede the independence of Corea and to pay a money indemnity to Japan as conditions of peace, the hope of the world will be that there shall be little or no further aggression. The day has gone by when humanity can view with complacency the needless butchery of thousands of men, with all the attendant horrors of war.

The Conservatives of the County of Peel are finding it very difficult to secure a candidate for the Commons. Last fall a fairly representative meeting offered the nomination to Mr. Blain. After considering the question, he declined to accept. Subsequently another convention requested Mr. McElroy to again enter the field. He too has declined the nomination. A third convention will be necessary.

On the subject of immigration Minister Daly says that, although the number coming in had fallen off compared with previous years, in no year since settlement had commenced in the North west had there been so many arrivals. The inquest was again adjourned.

The inquiry into the Westwood shooting fatality was resumed Monday night. Numerous witnesses were examined but no light was thrown on the mystery. The inquest was again adjourned.

A man is current in Shanghai that the Chinese Government are negotiating with Japan for peace, offering to acknowledge the independence of Corea and to pay a war indemnity to Japan.

Grave fears are entertained that Capt. Howard of Galtine's gun fame, who left Gaspé Harbour on Friday week with his son to visit his lobster cannery on the Labrador coast, was drowned in the big storm.

A man of Belleville, aged seventy-six, was married yesterday to Ottawa, Mrs. Mary Jane Wartman. The bride is sixty two. The happy couple left after the wedding breakfast for their honeymoon in England and on the continent.

It appears that ex Vice-President Merton of the United States, on his return from England recently, brought with him a young man to act as assistant coachman. The authorities got after the coachman, and it is said, he will be sent back to England.

Movements to Sir John Macdonald have now been suspended in Hamilton and Toronto. There is a bust of the dead chieftain in St. Paul's cathedral. At Kingston, Montreal, and Ottawa monuments are to be erected. Few men have been so highly honoured by any country.

Near Blenheim, Ont., Friday, Joseph Laird an old resident, who lived alone, hanged himself in his barn. He made a rope of binding twine, formed a noose at one end, fastened the other end above, stood upon a chair placed end broad through the noose and jumped off. He is said to have been a heavy drinker.

THE STATUE UNVEILED.

Another Tribute to the Mentor, Sir John Macdonald.

Toronto, Oct. 14th. The third anniversary of the death of Sir John Macdonald, the first Prime Minister of Canada, was observed in the Queen's Park Saturday afternoon in presence of 30,000 spectators.

The occasion was honored more than any event in years past by the presence of distinguished men of the country, and, as a consequence, a great display of speeches bearing an historical stamp, perpetuating in words the personality, spirit and achievements of the late Premier to whose memory enduring memorials are being set up in the principal centres of population throughout Canada.

THE SUPREME COURT.

No Judgment yet as to Ontario's Power to Prohibit the Liquor Traffic.

Ottawa, Oct. 16th. The Supreme Court met again to day, there being on the bench Chief Justice Strong and Justices Taschner, Gwynne, King, and Sedgwick. It was expected that judgment would be given in the "Power to prohibit" case, but this was not done. The Ontario bill which includes all acts west of Quebec was passed with.

A SLAUGHTER OF HOOS.

Hamilton, Oct. 16. Quite an extensive slaughter of hogs took place on the Grand Trunk Railway this side of Galtown last night. About 10 o'clock a through freight was "popped" east on its way from Chicago to Cambridge, Mass., when an axle of one of the cars broke and derailed nine cars. These cars were loaded principally with hogs, and between 200 and 300 of these were killed. The accident caused a considerable check of traffic on that line, and the road has been held up for several hours.

The new offices are: President, G. T. Ferguson, Toronto; vice-president, Rev. A. F. McGregor of Woodstock; Rev. E. A. Munro of Hamilton; E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, and T. Best, of Bradford; constable, Rev. J. R. Fletcher, of Stony Creek; Rev. A. C. Gurnett, of Guelph; and Rev. A. H. Dickson, Galt, joint superintendent; C. J. Atkinson, Mimico, treasurer; W. J. Doherty, London; general and statistical secretary, Ald. Morris, Hamilton.

Cold in the head—Nasal Balm gives instant relief & speedily cures. Never fails.

No one was hurt in this accident.

ONTARIO E. UNION.

Closes at the Christian Endeavor Convention at Kingston.

Kinston, Oct. 13. The Christian Endeavor convention came to a close last night, affording the most enthusiastic and successful gathering in the history of the work. The meetings were all crowded to overflowing.

The new officers are: President, G. T. Ferguson, Toronto; vice-president, Rev. A. F. McGregor of Woodstock; Rev. E. A. Munro of Hamilton; E. A. Hardy, of Lindsay, and T. Best, of Bradford; constable, Rev. J. R. Fletcher, of Stony Creek; Rev. A. C. Gurnett, of Guelph; and Rev. A. H. Dickson, Galt, joint superintendent; C. J. Atkinson, Mimico, treasurer; W. J. Doherty, London; general and statistical secretary, Ald. Morris, Hamilton.

Cold in the head—Nasal Balm gives instant relief & speedily cures. Never fails.

No one was hurt in this accident.

TALK OF THE DAY.

An Epitome of the World's Doing During the Week.

Five cases of typhoid fever are reported in London General Hospital.

The Siberian railway was opened for traffic Monday as far as Ussuri.

China. In Nagasaki, on Monday, 15th Oct., W. Kerr, Keene, of a daughter.

Ruth, in Waterloo, Oct. 2d, the wife of Mr. W. Kerr, Keene, of a daughter.

Arnold, in Acton, on Sunday, 14th October, the wife of H. T. Arnold, of a daughter.

MARRIED.

Ernest, Chancery, at the Methodist Parsonage, Elgin, Ontario, to Miss Sarah Crane, of Kitchener.

ALEXANDER-MCKENNAHAN.—At the residence of Hon. Alexander, in the city of the Britons, Ottawa, Ontario, by Rev. Mr. Blatch, Mr. James Alexander, Nelson to Maggie, the daughter of the late Duncan McKechnie, of Nassauwaya.

DIED.

Norah, in Toronto, on Monday, 12th Oct., Arthur Norris, in his eighties.

Nicholas, in the General Hospital, Guelph, on Friday, 13th October, Julian Brinkley.

Watson, in Waterloo, on Wednesday, 10th October, Mr. Thomas G. Watson, brother of Mr. W. H. Donley, Acton, aged 31 years, 7 months.

The Acton Free Press.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1894.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The elections in the Belgian Chamber of Deputies were held on October 12th under the new compulsory system. The clergy had three votes to two and one held by other citizens, and with this advantage it is believed the Clerical party will retain power. Many rebellious will be requisite.

A death is reported at London of a young lady who caught cold after swimming.

Mr. George Williams, ex M. P., for East Middlesex, died Friday suddenly at Wingham, aged 60 years.

A battle is expected on the Yulee River, between the armies of China and Japan.