Our Mantle Room never fails to be interesting. It could scarcely help being especially so just now, containing as it does a remarkably choice selection, and at prices which are the lowest. Extra good value is the attraction that keeps our Mantle Room filled to overflowing large as it is.
We don't send a buyer to Berlin to get the latest styles, we make our own. We do not say that there are no stylish Mantles except our own, but we do assert that our very thorough and exceptional efforts to obtain nothing but the latest and most fashionable garments at exceedingly low prices are distinctly warranted if we cannot give you better selections in our Mantle Room than you will find anywhere else. We guarantee you satisfaction there.

ABOUT FURS.

Ten years of fur selling on a very extensive scale, dealing only in goods of a most reliable character, selecting the dressed skins and having them made up according to our taste and measure, guaranteeing absolutely every price of goods sold, going to different manufacturers for their particular specialties, buying in enormous quantities and selling at close profit—this is a wonder that people naturally turn to us when wanting anything in this line. Our stock of Ladies' Fur Capes is still very large and our latest styles, and at prices of raw skins have advanced very largely and many deals have had to put up their prices, as we advise you to make an early selection while there's the pick and choice at the lowest price at which you will see them this season.

Call and secure some at once, as they are going out at the rate of from three to five dozen per day.
