LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

—February 27th is Ash Wednesday.

—Council meeting next Monday evening

—Next Thursday is St. Valentine's day

—School Trustee Nomination on Saturday at noon.

—A total eclipse of the moon, visible in Canada, will take place on Sunday, March 10th.

—Halton Sunday School Convention at Acton Thursday and Friday, 21st and 22nd February.

—The zero weather of the past week has made a manifest dimunition in wood piles and coal bins.

—The mercury has been flirting with the figures below zero the past week too much for the comfort of most people.

—Mr. Neil McGill has the agency for this section of the Life of Sir John Thompson being published in Toronto.

—The Toronto Globe is now printed in its new premises 44 Richmond St. West, and from its own presses and material.

—Special services are in progress at Norval. Rev. Mr. Howell preached there on Tuesday afternoon and evening.

—Cobweb parties have become quite popular in town since the FREE PRESS explained their method of operation

—The annual convention of Pepl County Sunday School Association was held at Streetaville on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

—The FREE PRESS is mailed or delivered every Thursday morning without fail. If you do not receive your copy regularly something is wrong

—Mr. Donald Mann, third line, has secured the Public School contract for green hardwood, four feet long, mostly maple, at $2.70 per cord.

—The Epworth Leagues of C. E. and the Y. P. S. C. E. societies in South Wellington, will hold a convention in the Congregational church, Guelph, to-day.

—Wood is almost a drug on the market now. Farmers in this section say they are unable to sell it any more readily or at higher prices in Guelph or elsewhere than in Acton.

—Walker, Mulleau & Co., a Toronto firm have bought out the stock of Wm. McLaud & Co., of Georgetown The Mammoth was opened Saturday under the management of the new firm.

—Halton's Income Commissioners for 1895 were appointed last week, as follows: John R Barber, Georgetown Donald Campbell, Milton, and William F W Fisher, Burlington

—The smallpox has been pretty effectually stamped out in Guelph Swartz is convalescing and the other cases reported were subsequently found to be but the after effects of vaccination

Mr. John Warren, ex Warden, gave a very interesting review of the temperance cause in the County of Halton the past the past fifty years at the meeting of Acton Temperance Union last Friday evening

Attention is directed to the announcement of the great suit sale by R E Nelson, Guelph, which commences this morning. For many years Mr. Nelson has been the tailor of many people of Acton and vicinity and this special offer of superior suits at such low prices will no doubt be appreciated and taken advantage of by many. There are but three days in which to give the order but the suit may remain until May in the shop

The Newmarket Era last week celebrated its 44th anniversary The Era is one of the best local newspapers of the Province. It is ably edited and is popular throughout its constituency. Very rarely in this age is one paper able to hold a town of the size of New Market without opposition, but so well conducted is the Era that it supplies the wants of the people; respecting local news and the advocacy of local interests so completely that no other journal is desired in the same town. Mr. L. G. Jackson the energetic proprietor, is to be congratulated upon this condition of things.

—Printing.—Fine printing is an art, and when you are having any printing done you might as well have it well done. The FREE PRESS job printing department does work of the finest quality, and prices are always reasonable. Try us with your next order.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

Presbytery Meeting in Acton.

The next session of the Guelph Presbytery will be held in Acton on Monday and Tuesday, March 18th and 19th. On Tuesday evening a conference on State of Religion, etc., will be held. The Presbytery will meet in regular session at 10.30 next morning.

Run Down by the Train.

On Tuesday evening as Neil McGill was proceeding to his home at Glen Lawson, about a mile below Acton, on the G. T. R. track, he was struck by the ten o'clock train and sustained serious injuries One leg was fractured and he was badly shaken up Mr. McGill is well up in years, a fact which will render recovery very slow and tedious

The New Knox Church Building.

After the installation ceremonies were over the members were invited to partake of refreshments. Coffee, cake and sandwiches were served by the lady members A committee consisting of Bros. Francis, Williams, McLam and Hynds assisted by Sisters McLam and Francis entertained the members with a choice selection of songs, readings and recitations A most enjoyable evening was spent

The Modern Invalid

Has tastes medicinally, in keeping with other luxuries. A remedy must be pleasantly acceptable in form, purely whole some in composition, truly beneficial in effect and entirely free from every objectionable quality. If really ill he consults a physician, if constipated he uses the gentle family laxative, Syrup of Figs.

The time to get your printing is now the place is the Acton FREE PRESS Job Printing department. Will our friends everywhere remember that we print everything in the printing line. KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them so it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered
