LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETSWhich Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.SCHOOL TRUSTEE ELECTION ON SATURDAY.—The roads are getting pretty well broken again.ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.

Beware of Cupid's arrows.

—The weather this week is appreciated more than that of the previous ten days.—This open (I) winter will be remembered and talked about for the next fifty years.—You are invited to attend the Sunday School Convention in Acton next Thursday and Friday.—The cold weather and accompanying blizzard last week were unprecedented in this section.—A subscriber in Michigan, a former resident, writes: "I could not keep house without the Free Press."—Mrs. Albert Stewart is hauling brick for a new house he intends erecting on his farm on the second-round snowbank.—The snow on Mill Street and Bower Avenue is six feet deep in some places.
The sidewalks have been kept well cleared, however.—Nasawagwea Township Sunday School Convention was held at Sudore yesterday.
Rev. J. E. Howell, M. A., spoke afternoon and evening.—"Love is tapping at my door," wrote the post, we contest. Said the wife:
"You're wrong once more, that's the last word for the rent!"—The Public School will be closed to-morrow. The teachers will be in attendance at the annual convention of the Teachers Association at Milton.—Rev. Wm. Patterson, of Cook's Church Tottenham, will deliver his famous lecture
"Ireland and the Irish" in the New Presbyterian Church on Monday evening, 25th inst.—The cold weather and accompanying

"Ireland and the Irish" in the New Presbyterian Church on Monday evening, 25th inst.—A sunbeam carried a valentine to an uncle's youngest daughter, when, sad to say, she fainted away, on account of the shock and the heat of the day, and fell in a pool of water."—Give the delegates to the Sunday School Convention next week a hearty acclamation. A taste of the hospitality of the warm hearts and houses in this front of the County will do them good.—At a meeting of the Milton town council Monday evening a by law was passed increasing the grant to the free schools from $100 to $150, and reducing the number of trustees from 11 to 10.—Status like this will stand among the sentimental days of the beloved, where I turn, some trace of these enchant me eyes. In every glance burn. They blushed over every flow retell.—There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Ewings League on Tuesday evening when a historical sketch of the Church here was given. The subject was particularly interesting to the older members.—The annual tea of the Brick Church announced for Wednesday evening of this week, was postponed owing to the roads being blocked, until next Wednesday evening, 20th inst. The programme advertised will then be carried out.—Acton lost a good citizen last week in the death of Mrs. John Watson. She had been ill for some time with heart trouble.She was a member of Keen's congregation and looked forward with keen anticipation to being present at the coming opening services of the new church.—Every member of the Free Press present still has had a brother serve in the army, in the office. This surely speaks well for the office as well as for printing as a trade. Four years is the apprenticeship, and candidates must have passed the High School entrance examination before being accepted.—Miss White, of Galt, has opened her Millinery and Fancy Goods Store in Mc-Bride's Block. The shop presents a very neat and attractive appearance. Judging from the variety and excellence of the stock, the ladies who favor Miss White with their orders will be satisfactorily served.
Look for an announcement in next issue.—If you want first class English cash and doors at Guelph prices, T. Evans can fill your order, at his plating mill.THE NEWS AT HOME.Monty of a Local Character, and
