NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Manitoba Legislature on Friday adjourned till May 9th, in order to give the Government time to consider its policy on the question of the Ottawa order-in-Council.

By an order-in-Council passed on Saturday, the Act of Parliament providing for the new ballot is to be brought into force immediately. It will be tried in the bye elections, and that will test its utility for the general elections.

The land offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company at Winnipeg are crowded daily with intending settlers in Manitoba and the North-West. The pressure is so great that the company will open a branch office at Calgary.

In regard to the statement published in London that Canada has urged Great Britain not to further paralyze British industry by assenting to the enforcement of the Behring Sea regulations, it is officially learned that, whatever Canada may desire, the decision of the Paris arbitration will be strictly adhered to during the coming season.

At a cabinet meeting on Saturday at Ottawa, the Premier, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Sir Adolphe Caron, Postmaster-General, Mr. G. E. Foster, Minister of Finance, and Mr John Haggert, Minister of Railways and Canals, were appointed to confer with the delegates from Newfoundland regarding the proposals for the union of Newfoundland with Canada.

J. J. Grace, a wealthy native of Newfoundland, who has been in Boston for some time, is the author of a stupendous scheme, which includes the construction of a dam across the Strait of Belle Isle, as a means of preventing the annual Arctic ice flow and bettering the climate of the west coast of Newfoundland, the Maritime Provinces and other sections of Canada.

A war generally makes as well as mars, many private fortunes. The China-Japanese campaign has brought aboard of prosperity to the Tien-Tsin hatters. Tailors and boot makers are working night and day on clothing for the troops, dealers in cereals are at their wits' end to supply sufficient rice, millet and flour, and bankers are building extra strong vaults for the money sent to them for security from the various towns threatened by the Japanese invasion.

Henry Clews, the New York banker, reports many signs of returning confidence on the other side, and speaks of the revival of speculation in American securities in London, and of the assurance of an immediate return to a state of general national prosperity. In general trade, the prospects remain encouraging. It is conceded in all markets that prices have touched bottom, and that lays a basis for buying which has not existed for the last two years.

In the British House of Commons last week Mr. Gardner, president of the Board of Agriculture, was asked to recommend the imposition of a duty equivalent to the bounty that Colonial Governments were giving on cheese and butter for exportation so that the British farmer might be saved from the result of unfair competition. In reply, Mr. Gardner replied that he could not undertake to propose to the Chancellor to embark upon a policy which might mean retaliatory tariffs.

The Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railways each lost in the neighborhood of ten millions of dollars' worth of traffic in 1894, as compared with other years. But they can find no consolation by comparison with other American systems. The Pennsylvania system dropped over twelve millions, the Atchison nearly eight millions, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy nearly seven millions, the Philadelphia & Reading six millions, Delaware & Lackawana nearly the same, likewise the Chicago & St. Paul. Fifteen other roads suffered a decline of two millions and over.

DEPUTY RECEIVER-GENERAL

Mr. David Creighton, Formerly of the Empire, Secures the Appointment.

Ottawa, April 1.—The superannuation of Mr. C. J. Campbell, deputy receiver general at Toronto, has been determined upon by the Government, that gentleman having given the country services which entitle him at his present advanced age to be relieved of duty. Mr. Campbell is 73 years of age, and when he retires will have served twelve years. By an order in council, the superannuation will take effect on May 10. Mr Campbell's successor will be Mr. David Creighton, formerly manager of the Empire. The salary that attaches to the office is $3000 a year.

CHATTELLE'S GUILT PROVEN

Sentenced to be Hanged at Stratford on Friday, 31st May.

Stratford, April 1.—The trial of Amedee Chattelle, of St Hyacinthe, for the murder of Jessie Keith, ended Friday afternoon. Evidence taking was concluded before four o'clock and Chattelle being asked if he had anything to say made some incoherent remarks, but offered no defence. The judge's charge occupied about half an hour and was entirely impartial. At 4.30 the jury retired, and about ten minutes later returned with a verdict of guilty. On being asked if he had anything to say, the prisoner said, "Nothing," and then the judge briefly pronounced sentence to the effect that Chattelle be hanged on May 31.

—N. J. Bonnar invites all people requiring any ordered clothing to call and inspect his stock and prices before leaving their order elsewhere.

—The stock and implements of William Holmes, tenant farmer, on lot 27, Con. 1 Nassagaweya, have been seized under a landlord's warrant, by George Storey, and will be sold by public auction on the premises on Thursday, 11th April, by William Hamstreet, auctioneer.

EX-WARDEN WARREN HONORED

With a Complimentary Address, and Made the Recipient of a Gold Watch.

Last Friday evening the members of Esquesing Council, consisting of Dr. Webster and Messrs H. P. Lawson, John Wrigglesworth, John Stalker and R. Stewart, accompanied by a number of residents of the township, among whom were noticed Wm. Russell, Robert Harper, J. R. Lindsay, N. Gillies and Col. Allan, waited upon John Warren Esq., ex Warden at his home in Acton and presented him with the following address and a handsome gold watch and chain, in recognition of his lengthened period of service in the interests of the township. The address was read by Mr. J. R. Lindsay, of Limehouse, and the watch and chain were presented by Mr R. Harper, of Norval

To John Warren, Esq.

Dear and Honored Sir,—We who have called upon you to night come as representatives of the people of Esquesing, and what we say we say for them as well as ourselves.

When you announced at the close of last year your determination to retire from public office in the Township a determination which had been time after time overcome in previous years at the earnest solicitation of the people we felt that some expression other than mere words however sincere, would have to be permitted us of our appreciation of your long, valuable and self sacrificing labors in connection with the public administration of our Township and County.

Your fairness and moderation your fearless independence in questions of doubt and difficulty, have secured for you the admiration of your friends and compelled the respect of those opposed to you. In continuing the conscientious discharge of arduous labors for the public good, while foregoing that public recognition of them which you might justly consider your due, you have "magnified your office and made it honorable." You have exemplified Tennyson's conception of a true politician, wherein he says

"No toil for title, place, or touch of pension,
Neither count nor praise
It grows to guerdon after days."

Along with the purely administrative phase of your public career we recognize the elevating moral influence which you have exercised as a public man. "So life can be pure in its purpose and strong in its strife and all life not be purer and stronger thereby." And while rendering tribute to the energy and progressiveness which have characterized your work, we do not forget the wisdom and purity of purpose which have controlled and guided it, and that while you labored for the material advancement of our community you did not forget that "righteousness" which alone "exalteth a nation."

We you then who have united administrative ability with unimpeachable integrity and used all in our service we beg leave to tender a small memento which we trust you will regard as embodying the best wishes of a grateful people

Esquesing, March 26, 1895.

Mr Warren was completely overcome, and it was with difficulty that he was able to reply. A few words of grateful thanks were tendered for the handsome testimonial received and brief reference to his love for his adopted township and the pleasure it had always given him to serve it, followed.

The company was then invited by Mrs Warren to tea and her hospitality was much enjoyed.

After tea short addresses were given by Dr. Webster, H. P. Lawson, Col. Allan, Robt Stewart, Robt. Harper and J. R. Lindsay, expressive of the kindly relations which had existed for so long between Mr. Warren and themselves.

THE DORLAND-BROTHERS CASE.

Sir Oliver Mowat Explains Why the Milton Forger Was not Pursued.

Toronto, April 2.—In the local legislature yesterday Mr. St John asked whether the government was aware that Detective Murray had located the defendant in the case, Regina v. Joseph Brothers, and knows his exact whereabouts, and if so, why they refused to incur the expense of apprehending the defendant, and bringing him back to this province for trial.

Sir Oliver, in reply, said the case referred to was first brought to the notice of his department in the latter part of 1890. It was alleged that Brothers had, by means of forged notes, amounting to over $5,000, defrauded one Amos Dorland, and that Dorland had in consequence been deprived of his farm and left almost penniless. The rule of his department in forgery cases had been to require the parties aggrieved and prosecuting to bear part of the expenses of the extradition, which were often very great. In the case in question he had given instructions that extradition proceedings should be taken providing that the expenses did not exceed a moderate amount. In connection Detective Murray went to California, but the man wanted could not be located. The expenses of this trip were $415. It had recently been reported that the man was in Mexico. Extradition proceedings in that country involved a very large expenditure, on the last occasion amounting to $2,500. In the face of this he did not feel justified in pursuing the matter further at present.

The forgeries perpetrated by Brothers were the most despicable ever recorded in Canada, and if ever a man deserved to be extradited and punished for his crime this man does. The case will be remembered by Free Press readers. Amos Dorland, a farmer near Milton, in this county, owned 100 acres of land on which was a fine brick house, and everything was free of encumbrance. Joseph Brothers, his brother-in-law, conducted a foundry at Milton, and did business through the branch of the Bank of Hamilton in Milton. Brothers deposited with the bank a large number of forged notes, purporting to be signed by well to do farmers in various parts of the country. The notes were in possession of the bank for some time when Brothers was notified to take them up. He visited Dorland, and told him he had a lot of collateral security in the bank, that the bank did not wish to carry it any longer and Dorland was asked to give a note for $5,000, Brothers offering to him the collateral, which drew 7 and 8 per cent interest. Dorland, suspecting nothing wrong, accompanied Brothers to the bank, where the note for the $5,000 was was drawn up. Dorland did not secure the notes that day, but subsequently received them. None of them were at that time due. Meantime Dorland had renewed his $5,000 note at the bank. Then the bank demanded and secured a mortgage from Dorland on his farm. This mortgage was transferred by the bank to a third party. Before the notes given to Dorland became due Brothers had fled the country. Dorland subsequently discovered that all the notes he held were forgeries. The Government took up the case and placed the matter in the hands of Chief Provincial Detective Murray, who located Brothers as working in the Risdon Iron works at San Francisco, while the family were residing at Oakland. Murray proceeded to San Francisco, and after a diligent search found that Brothers had received a telegram to make himself scarce that Murray was after him. The officer endeavored to locate him in California, believing at that time that he was there, but subsequently ascertained that he was at El Paso, Tex., and left for Mexico where he was a short time ago.

NO COMPROMISE.

Premier Greenway will Stand by National Schools no Matter What the Issue.

Winnipeg, April 2. Those who had the idea that because Premier Greenway delayed before making answer to the Remedial Order, he was weakening, will probably find themselves mistaken. The Tribune which speaks with authority, being the organ of Mr. Greenway's Government, says to night: "It is learned to day from a high source that there is not the slightest truth in the report of a division in the local Cabinet over the school question, but that each member is resolute in his determination to stand by national schools, no matter what the issue may be. To yield to any suggestion as to the appointment of a commission, or making any compromise, would, it is considered, be perfectly suicidal, and would never be approved by the public."

THE SHADOWS OVERHANGING A NIAGARA FALLS HOME HAVE VANISHED.

Little Mabel Dorety Cured of St. Vitus' Dance After Four Physicians Had Ineffectually Treated the Case.

From the Niagara Falls Review.

In speaking to a friend recently we were asked if we had heard that little Mabel Dorety, the eight year old daughter of Mrs. Dorety, Ontario Avenue, had been miraculously cured of St. Vitus' dance. We replied in the negative but stated that we would investigate the case and ascertain the facts. Accordingly we visited the home of Mrs. Dorety, when she related the facts as follows: "My little girl has had a miraculous experience. It is about two years and a half since Mabel was stricken with St. Vitus' dance caused by the weakening effects of la grippe and rheumatism. Three local physicians were called in as was also one doctor of considerable reputation from Niagara Falls, N. Y., but in the face of the prescriptions of these physicians and the best of care, Mabel grew rapidly worse. She could not be left alone an instant and was as helpless as an infant as she had no control of her limbs at all. She could neither walk without assistance nor take food or drink. At this stage one of the attending physicians said, "Mrs. Dorety, there is no use in my coming here any more. There is nothing that I know of can be done for your little girl." Well matters went on that way for a short time with no better results till one day I was sure the poor child was dying. I remembered having seen accounts of St. Vitus dance cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and I determined to try them. I was skeptical as to the effect and only tried them as a last resort, but was soon agreeably surprised at the result. It was not long before they had a good effect and I then felt certain I had found a remedy that could cure my little girl if anything could. In less than three months she was so much better that the dread disease had almost disappeared and the pills were discontinued. In a few months however she showed that the symptoms of the disease had not been entirely eradicated from her system, so I had her again commence the use of Pink Pills. I feel certain that all traces of the awful malady will be swept away, for she goes to school now and we have not the slightest anxiety in leaving her alone. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is certainly a grand remedy and I would not be without them under any consideration, for I think they are worth their weight in gold, as in my little girl's case they have been true to all they advertise. I am only glad to let others who may be unfortunate know of this miraculous cure through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

When strong tributes as these can be had to the wonderful merits of Pink Pills, it is little wonder that their sales reach such enormous proportions and they are the favorite remedy with all classes. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. Sold in boxes (never in bulk form by the dozen or hundred, and the public are cautioned against numerous imitations sold in this shape), at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville Ont. or Schenectady, N Y.

THE RIGHT HOUSE, HAMILTON.

It has been the good fortune of the ladies of Hamilton to witness during the past week many millinery openings of exceptional excellence. Not the least of these was the very elaborate display to be seen yesterday at the Right House. It is upon extra occasions like these that the resources of this magnificent store give scope to the management to exhibit, without crowding the numerous departments brimming over with the latest novelties of fashion, and to still further adorn the already beautiful interior with a wealth of decoration rarely seen. It is not the fault of the buyers of this house if the up to date woman can not have her innumerable wants gratified.
