THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

Cut his Knee while Chopping.

Mr. Isaac Snyder, Erin, met with an accident a couple of weeks ago which has ever since incapacitated him from doing work of any kind. He was in company with Mr. Wallace Lusby, cutting rafters in the swamp, when he made a misstep and the axe swung around, the sharp edge cutting into his knee cap. He is likely to be lame for some time as a result.

Fifth Form in Public Schools.

Replying to a question in the Provincial Legislature on Monday, Hon. Mr. Ross said the Fifth Form was never prohibited by the regulations of the Educational Department in the Public Schools of Ontario. For some years the trustees of Public Schools in cities, towns and incorporated villages in which High Schools were established were allowed the option of withdrawing the Fifth Form if they saw fit to do so. This option has been withdrawn, and a Fifth Form is now compulsory, providing there are pupils qualified to take up Fifth Form work. This obligation holds irrespective of the certificate held by the teacher.

A Former Resident's Success.

Mr. D. D. Mann, of Montreal, was here last week to spend a few hours with his father, Mr. Hugh Mann, prior to leaving for the North West to enter upon his contract in the construction of the Hudson Bay Railway. For many years Mr. Mann has been one of the most successful railway builders in the North West. He was also one of the contractors of the C. P. R. short line through the State of Maine to St. John N. B. Mr. Mann's firm—Mann, Ishister and McKenzie—have secured the contract of building the 750 miles of the new Hudson Bay Railway from Winnipeg to Hudson's Bay at $3,000,000; the road to be completed in three years. His Acton friends were glad to see him and wish him success in his gigantic enterprises.

Narrow Escape From Drowning.

On Tuesday evening as Miss Maggie Wilson, daughter of Mr. James Wilson, and her little brother Archy, were returning from a visit to the home of Mr. William Plank across "Fairy Lake" they had a narrow escape from drowning. In the twilight they inadvertently stepped aside from the path over the ice and upon the thin ice, at "The Point" where the ice cutters had been at work a few days before. In an instant both had gone through the ice and were struggling in the chilly waters. With commendable presence of mind Miss Maggie first rescued her little brother and then succeeded in drawing herself upon the firm ice. They walked home unaided, and, though their clothes were frozen stiff, are none the worse for their exciting experience

The arrangements for outside connection with the quarter's [illegible] somewhat different to those in vogue the past year The membership has been divided into two sections captained respectively by Messrs H. Jeans and W Williams. Each side will make efforts to provide the best programme and at the end of the term the critics will give their decision as to the merits of each

A First of April Joke.

On Monday evening a quartette of young men were seen wending their way to the home of a certain Reverend gentleman of this town with a look of deep anxiety on their countenances. The further they went the greater their wonder grew Why had they been sent for? and what could be wrong? However, with that undaunted bravery peculiar to their sex they plucked up courage enough to ring the door bell They were kindly received into the parlor when the usual commonplace conversation about the weather, roads, etc., followed. All went well until the speaker of the evening very courteously asked why he had been sent for, when to his great embarassment, and to the great delight of the jokers (who, by the way, were present,) they informed him that his errand was only "an April fool one Imagine the feelings of the noble quartette, each looking with a sly glance at his duped friend, with that cheap look characteristic of an innocent child. However, each one played his part well, and finally returned home, sadder, wiser, but feeling much cheaper, with Jim consoling the three Toms, saying, Well boys, we have been badly fooled by those two trickster lady friends, but we won't be again They solemnly declare that they will yet get square with Misses Mary and Max

The Sunday Schools' Quarterly Review.

Last Sunday was review day in the various Sunday Schools and considerable interest was taken in the review of the lessons of the past quarter, covering an important period in the life of Christ. The Sabbath Schools here were well attended and the various plans of review adopted [illegible] much of interest and profit. At the Disciples' School Rev. Mr. Stephens conducted the review, the school as a whole taking part. A general review also took place in the Baptist School. In the Methodist School the topics and golden texts were repeated by the school in concert. This was followed by an interesting synopsis of each lesson given by a scholar from each of the twelve intermediate and senior classes The primary classes responded without hesitation in a general catechising by the superintendent on the golden texts for the quarter In Knox Sunday School the review of the lessons was made in each class by their respective teachers. It was very through and proved that the lessons of the quarter had in no wise been taught in vain The review services of the various schools partook of some special feature in each case, spirited singing of suitable hymns having an important place in all. The attendance was very satisfactory, as the following will indicate Baptist 93; Church of England—47; Disciple 45; Methodist 205; Presbyterian 156, total 538. This aggregate, will, we venture to say, be a surprise to those who have not looked into Acton's Sunday School population.

COUNTERFEITERS AT WORK

Health and Life Endangered by Unscrupulous Dealers who Persuade Unsuspecting People to Take Imitations Some Pointers Worth Remembering.

No medicine that is not of more than ordinary merit suffers from imitations or substitutes The fact that an imitation is offered is one of the strongest proofs of the excellent qualities of the genuine article The Dr. Williams Medicine Co. is continually trying to impress upon the public the fact that Dr Williams Pink Pills are only sold in securely sealed boxes, the wrapper around which is printed in red ink and bears the registered trade mark "Dr. Williams Pink Pills for Pale People" Notwithstanding this constant warning there are unscrupulous dealers here and there who defraud the public by selling an imitation pill (also colored pink) either by the dozen, hundred or by the ounce, alleging that they are "just as good," or "just the same" as the genuine Dr. Williams Pink Pills. This is a falsehood and the unscrupulous dealer who offers the imitation knows it, but is more concerned for the extra profit he makes on the imitation than for the health of his unfortunate victim

Will the public, in their own interest, bear in mind the following facts,—Dr. Williams Pink Pills are never sold by the dozen, hundred, or ounce. If any dealer offers you a pill in this form (no matter whether colored pink or not) he is trying to cheat you and should be avoided.

The formula of Dr. Williams Pink Pills is a secret and is known only to the company. Therefore if some dealer tells you a substitute is "just the same" or "just as good" he is simply trying to deceive you because there is a larger profit for him in selling the imitation.

When you ask for Dr Williams Pink Pills see that the trade mark is on the wrapper of every package, and do not be persuaded to take anything else, no matter how plausable a story the dealer may tell. Imitations in medicine are always cheap, always worthless and often dangerous, and people who have a care for their health will always refuse them,

Dr Williams Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail. That's why they are imitated, and that is why you should insist on getting the genuine Used as a spring medicine Dr. Williams Pink Pills surpass all other medicines. If feeling "out of sorts" give them a trial.

The Evolution

Of medicinal agents is gradually relegating the old-time herbs, pills, draughts and vegetable extracts to the rear and bringing into general use the pleasant and effective liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs. To get the true remedy see that it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only. For sale by all leading druggists.

Death of an Enquiring Pioneer.

On Thursday, 21st of March, there died at lot 13, concession 6, Esquesing, one of the township's oldest residents, Mr. Joseph Standish. Seventy-seven years ago his father left Queen's county, Ireland, and his wife and his children came to Canada and remained for two years in the Lower Provinces. They then moved to the farm above noted, and which was his home continuously for three quarters of a century. Forty nine years ago the deceased married Caroline Cook, who survives him. Their children were ten in number. Only eight of these are now living: Joseph, of Halifax; William, of Manitoba; Richard, of Erin; George, of Seattle; Clark, of Calgary; James, who has charge of the homestead; Mrs. Hunt, of Grand Valley, and Miss Sarah, who resides at the old home. The deceased was one of a family of fifteen, only two of whom are living; Mrs. Frank Standish, of Ashfield, and Mrs. Dr. McCullough, of Esquesing. If the descendents of Joseph Standish were counted, it is stated that five hundred would not be an over-estimate of the number. Many of these reside in this locality, while others have moved to more remote sections. - Herald.

Took Poison by Mistake

Bad Effects Entirely Eliminated by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen—In April last, through the effects of a dose of strychnine taken in mistake for another drug, I was laid up in St. John, N. B., for ten days After this I never seemed to regain my former health, and continually suffered from indigestion and heart palpitation, for which I could get no relief. I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking one bottle, I felt a little better, so continued using the remedy until I had consumed six bottles. I found myself gaining strength and flesh every day, and am now as healthy as I was before taking the poison." E. V. WARNELL, representing the Reely Perfumes, 30 Melbourne Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.
