HANTLER LILIES.

In purple and crimson glory
The Easter sunlight pour'd
A flood through the glazed windows
In the sunlight of our land,
The sunbeams were like gold after
To bathe the snows with their glow
And strew the hills with crimson,
Like crimson over the snow.

With prayers from our heart uprising,
Whispered and known to results
Through the soft heart earthy leaves,
So blenting them each with, heaven,
Each day soul cometh feel the presence,
The smile and touch of eyes
Of one who gathers little
In germs of paradise.

CLEAR SHIP FOR ACTION.

"Clear ship for action and be handy, oh!" say, the words of the old song, in which Jack still sings of the glorious victory of the Confederate over the Guerre in the old "war," and a veritable clearing ship it was when the Confederate's hard-hitting or the sharp rifle of drum, mingling with the shell which burst in the air, the broadsides and the iron shrapnel of the electric guns, call the crew to arms—quarantine.

"Hard work and break work, sir," says Agnew's Captain Parker, referring to the service of the "hard" men, who have to do all the work, and the "soft" men, who have to do nothing, but sit by and be paid.

Whatever may be the result of the battle, the sailors are prompt and efficient. It is said that there is a man in Boston who can paint a piece of wood so much like marble, that, on being placed in water, it will immediately sink.

Joining a church with a high stoop is not always a start for heaven.

The great demand for a pleasant, safe and reliable antidote for all affections of the throat and lungs is met with in Huckle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup.

Vegetable Compound and Anti-purulent, especially subduing all complaints of bronchitis, inflammation of the lungs, etc. It is remarkable that a child will not refuse it, and is put at a price that will not not cover the poor from its benefits.

An angel's robe is still the devil's in its masquerading suit.

Not That Kind.

Dr. Scott's Elixer does not affect the system as other cough medicines do, but on the contrary, it improves digestion and strengthens the stomach. Its effects are immediate and pronounced.

The truly wise man will never waste about what he can't help.

A Family Necessity.

Every well regulated family should have a few good, reliable household medicines. In this supply we would recommend Drayley's Liver Lotion, which are the best general system regulator that can be got. They are sold at drug stores at 25 cents a box or 5 boxes for a dollar.

A doctor may give the family name, but a person can not give him too much.
