Advertising is business. If it wasn't business it wouldn't be a part of business. The man who cannot utilize advertising in his business generally goes out of business and concludes he has no business to be in business.

In the spring the busy barber whets his razors and prepares for the season's run of custom, which he knows will fill his chairs; and with right good will he labors as his tools he hones and strops, for in spring, unlike the farmer, is the time for mowing crops.

Master Hilton Jeans, son of ex Councillor Jeans, who was so badly hurt last winter, met with another accident yesterday. He was playing in the grand stand at the park when he fell and was caught in the abdomen on a hinge of the gate, and badly torn.

Acton Cornet Band is having regular weekly practice again, a fact which a few members have perhaps overlooked. The leader is anxious that all players be regular in attendance at practice so that the Band may make as good a showing in the open air concerts the coming season as possible.

The Acton Checker Club wound up its business and disbanded for the season on Tuesday evening. During the winter the Club furnished a quiet comfortable room for its members, away from bar room influences, and many an enjoyable evening was spent together in working out the intricacies of this brainy game. Much credit for the success of the winter's pleasure is due to Mr. H. S. Holmes who acted as secretary and manager and made matters comfortable for all the members

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

Courtship and Marriage.

The second of the series of evenings provided by the Epworth League will be given on Monday evening, 29th inst, when Rev. Dr. Henderson, of Guelph, will give his popular lecture on "Courtship and Marriage." This lecture will interest all classes. It is a subject in which the world universally is concerned, and the lecturer is a gentleman who occupies a prominent position and is well able to treat the subject named in a most interesting manner.

Acton Roller Mills.

The recently equipped roller mills of Messrs Cheyne & Cheyne have now been in operation for about six months and the farmers and people of Acton have had ample opportunity of testing the merits of the products of the mill. As far as the FREE PRESS can learn the output is giving general satisfaction. The quality of the flour is very good and is growing in favor. Our enterprising millers are spoken of in very complimentary terms for their treatment of their patrons and their straight forward methods of doing business. The people of this community are to be congratulated upon securing as good a mill and it is hoped the proprietors will receive the practical encouragement their enterprise is worthy of.

Death of a Former Resident.

On Sunday Mr. George Hynds, chairman of the Public School Board, received a telegram from Toronto conveying the sad intelligence of the death of his brother, Charles, who had been ill for several months. Mr. Hynds was down to see his brother on Thursday and left him feeling better than he had been for several days. The deceased will be well remembered by our older citizens. He came to Acton with his parents when they removed here from Guelph, and spent some time in the Public School here. He was a favorite with the young people. After the great fire in Chicago he removed to that city where he spent several years. He subsequently returned to Acton and was for a time in partnership with his brother Mr George Hynds in the jewelry and fancy goods business here. Of late years he has lived in Toronto and resided with his parents. His death is the first break in the family.

News of Interest from India.

The FREE PRESS received yesterday from Rev. F. W. Warne, of Calcutta, formerly of this vicinity, a copy of the Calcutta Messenger from which the following items are copied. "Mrs Warne and Edith leave for Canada by the Chusan on the 20th of March." Mrs Warne's father and mother reside at Oakville. "At Asansol Junction, Rev W P Byers and wife are pushing the work in three languages on all usual and some unusual missionary lines. Mr Byers carries the palm as a linguist in this District if not in the Conference. There are not signs only, but growth in every department." Mr Byers was a few years ago a printer in the Milton News offices and Mrs. Byers is a native of Glen williams. "On Sunday morning Rev F W. Warne preached the Conference sermon from the words, "He that has the Son hath life." The preacher had what is called by preachers a "good time" and so had the congregation. It was a season of great spiritual uplifting and all present felt, "It was good for us to be there."

News of Our Churches.

Special sermons et appropriate character were made to the Eastertide on Sunday in the various churches. In Knox Church Rev Mr. Rae preached an interesting sermon on Baptism in the morning and at the conclusion of the service the rite of baptism was conferred upon two infants. In the evening an Easter sermon was preached. On Sunday morning, Rev D A Muir, B T L, of Georgetown, preached an able discourse in the Methodist Church in connection with the educational anniversary. Mr Muir is always popular in Acton, and the people heartily welcome him. In the evening an Easter service was held. Rev Mr Howell preached a stirring sermon. St Alban's Church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and a profusion of flowers and plants. Rev Mr. Soares, of Wycliffe College, Toronto, preached morning and evening. The Young People's Union of Christian Endeavor of the Baptist Church will give a parlor social at the home of Mr John Warren on Friday evening, 26th inst. Particulars in next issue.

The Mystery Revealed.

The entertainment which has been talked about by members of various secret societies for months past, took place as announced, in the town hall on Monday evening. The hall was crowded to the entrances and numbers were obliged to stand throughout the proceedings. The evening was devoted to a complete exposure of the doings of the members of the Ancient Order of Hercules in their lodge room, giving to the public a vivid insight into all the mysterious rites and ceremonies of the order including the exciting details of the ceremony of initiation. It was a burlesque in two acts and was interspersed with humorous songs and choruses. When the curtain rose the interior of the lodge room was revealed and in the first act the opening ceremonies manner of conducting the regular work of the lodge and balloting for and introducing a candidate was demonstrated. The second act comprised the solemn and sublime ceremony of initiation and was an exceedingly realistic, in some of its details that several ladies and children present were sincerely alarmed for the safety of the candidate. This was especially the case in the branding, amputating and "tiger" scenes. The principal officers were clothed in gorgeous and fantastic costumes. Each performed his part well and gave evidence of careful study and assiduous rehearsal. The following is a list of the lodge officers with their mystic initials and bifulutin titles. H G H, W Stark, Highly Illustrious Grand Hiawatha; L O W, A E Wenham, Laird of Walhalla; J A C K, George Lawson, Just and Conscientious Knight; G A M E, W Jeans, Grand and Mighty Executioner; P P C, H Grindell, Pre-eminent Prime Counsellor; C O D, H. Jeans, Custodian of Dispatches; P D Q, J H. Matthews, Particularly Distinguished Quarter master; A M, W Saunders, Assiduous Marshall; P M, W Pollard, Principal Musician; R A P S, J T. Halsted and Thomas Cameron, Reliable and Trustworthy Sentinels. The roll of the candidate was well taken by John Warwick. In addition to the above, there was the usual quota of private members, whose part was to act silently when called upon. The entertainment was a novel one; burlesqued many of the superfluous features of the numerous orders now in existence, and was most appreciated, perhaps, by the members of these orders present.

The sweet young men who made a raid last week on a neighborhood sugar bush seemed to enjoy themselves immensely, although they had to gather their own sap. The owner of the bush is sorry that he did not know they were coming as he might have left things more convenient for them.

There was a typical Irish eviction in this place last week when a poor widow a few household effects were seized for rent and she was evicted from the house. The only difference was that in Ireland the sheriff and bailiff are sworn in by the authority of the Queen. But the bailiff here acted without a warrant or anything else. There were about a half dozen bailiffs, most of them juveniles. We understand that the landlord has since then had to bring back the widow's goods. This case will likely end in a lawsuit if not settled.

ROCKWOOD

A number of witnesses were in here in the G T R obstruction case.

It is said that the entertainment given in Acton Monday night "The Order of Hercules" will be reproduced here. It is intensely funny.

M W Chapter D D G M I M Seymour accompanied by a number of others paid Rockwood Lodge, A O U W a fraternal visit on Friday night. After the business of the lodge was transacted the visitors were regaled with an oyster supper. Taken altogether a very pleasant and profitable evening was spent.

Fined as a Transient Trader.

The case against Duncan Ferguson & Co., of Stratford, who brought goods from Stratford and sold them in connection with the Durno & Co. stock, came up for hearing on Tuesday before Justices Storey and Pearson. Messrs. Ferguson & Co. had been summoned but failed to appear. Evidence was taken as to receipt of goods from Stratford, the sale of said goods, and the fact that the firm had failed to take out a license. A conviction was entered, and the firm fined $20 and costs, in all $30.25. Messrs. Ferguson & Co. threaten to appeal.

The Easter Youth's Companion.

Among the many attractive and handsome Easter numbers so popular among readers of magazines and papers, the Youth's Companion excels in appropriateness to the season and in the exceptional quality of its reading matter. "The Story of a Statue" by the Marquis of Lorne, prepared for the Companion, in collaboration with the Princess Louise, is an article of rare interest. "Dorothy's Easter," and "A Corner in Eggs," are two typical Easter stories well worth twice reading. "The Romance of a Shoal," an adventure story by W. Clark Russell, would be hard to duplicate.

Each one of the entire collection of stories deserves special mention, and with the miscellany, poetry, etc., collected in this one issue is worth the price of the paper for the entire year.

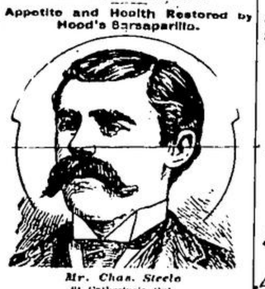
Broken in Health

That Tired Feeling, Constipation and Pain in the Back

Appetite and Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.



Mr. Chas. Steele
St. Catherine's, Ont.

C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"For a number of years I have been troubled with a general tired feeling, shortness of breath, pain in the back, and constipation. I could rarely get rest at night on account of the pain, and had no appetite whatever. I was thrilled in my limbs that I gave out before half the day was gone. I tried a great number of medicines but did not get any permanent relief from any source until, upon recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla which made me feel better at once. I have continued its use, having taken three bottles, and I feel like a new man. I have a good appetite, feel as strong as ever I did, and enjoy perfect rest at night. I have much pleasure in recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla." CHARLES STEELE. 14th, 1894. The Proprietors of Hood's Pills are [illegible] Hood's Pills are [illegible] 25c.

We have a large staff of assistants, and can handle a large business. Still orders left early are always surest and safest. What a lot of talk there is in silver garments about Millinery, much of it very puerile and silly. Wonderfully mystic avenues and channels of supply in which those who tread them speak in tongues unknown save by a favored few magic springs that fly open to [illegible]! But why rehash the humbug? We don't advertise in that way, don't have to. Everybody knows that our Millinery always is of the right sort, that the department is the largest, finest and best, among its competitors, and that our manager, Miss Manny, has no superior, if, indeed, anyone near her equal, in Guelph's Millinery Departments. Never did our Millinery show to better advantage than this spring.

AT THE RIGHT HOUSE

THE OPENING DAY for the display of new importations at the Right House has been very successful. Nine hundred thousands of our citizens and country friends have crowded this establishment, gazing with admiration upon the beautiful styles of the various goods displayed. Genuine words of appreciation were heard on all sides, and the verdict of [illegible] friends was that we had never done as well before. This will spur us on to better deeds in the future, and our constant aim will be to place before our customers the very latest novelties as they appear in the foreign markets. We are in an excellent position to do this, as our agent resides abroad.

Many cases of Novelties and Staple Goods are yet to be received, and in the course of a few days our immense stock will be very complete. Well-made goods, and guaranteed satisfactory to the purchasers, are appreciated, especially when they are sold at moderate prices. This is the way we do business at the Right House. GOODS GUARANTEED—POLITE ATTENTION PRICES MODERATE.

The MILLINERY DEPARTMENT is now ready for Easter orders. In addition to having all that the feminine heart can desire in Trimmed or Untrimmed Millinery, we have some of the most EXPERIENCED TRIMMERS to be found in Canada.

The MANTLE DEPARTMENT is fully equipped with leading novelties in Capes and Jackets manufactured in Paris, London and Germany. This department is now ready to receive orders for making up.

DRESS-MAKING DEPARTMENT is under the charge of Miss Robinson, who has just returned from New York. She has many fresh and novel ideas for leading styles in Costumes. Some of them she secured from the most fashionable Dress Modistes there.
