THE LORD'S PRAYER.

"The following beautiful composition was found in a book of devotion, South Carolina, during the war of 1861-62. It is a beautiful and simple prayer, and is well worth a study by every Christian."

Our Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory, forever and ever. Amen.

For ever, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory, forever and ever. Amen.

HOW JIM MORRIS WAS SAVED.

"Jim Morris" I saw cheerfully as possible, as I went into a narrow, cheerless "hall bedroom," the one window of which opened upon a back yard, from the top floor of a lodging-house in Trent Street. When I rapped on the door and asked for John Morris, the occupant of this fifth back had heard his name spoken, and peered through the partly open door to see who wanted him and why anybody wanted him for anything. He was so nearly gloom-stricken that he was trying to decide whether he had better do something that would send him through the police court to the island for three months, when the visitor would be past, and then he would try again to be honest and hold his head up among men. He was not a criminal, had never been in any company, but when with a few dollars more he could have bought a horse and north Canada farm, his hopes were high and his work in Boston had been steady. But now, on Christmas morning, he was without a cent; his room rent would be due in a day, and he was willing to stake his life, perhaps there was some prospect of getting at the facts of this mysterious robbery—otherwise, you need waste no more time in this neighborhood.
