now prevails is appreciated on all sides by man and beast.

Courtship and Marriage—Rev. Dr.
Henderson, Guelph Methodist Church next Monday evening.

Mr. Will Stark has just received a fine new 23 pound Stevens bicycle. He has secured the agency for this section.

The Bowmansville Saturday news paper office was destroyed by fire Monday night. Loss $5,000. Insurance $3,000.

This weather promotes a feeling somewhat of discontent in the individual who is compelled to labor within doors.

Mr. John H. Matthews is improving his residence on Bower Avenue. It looks better and much more comfortable.

There are not many fresh fishing points hereabouts for the coming season. Henderson's pond is generally open to all concerned.

Cycling is likely to be popular with ladies hereabouts. One or two ladies have purchased wheels and several others have given orders.

Mr. James Grant gave his left hand an ugly scratch when leaving his work at the tannery the other day. He has been off work in consequence.

Mr. Taylor of G. B. Ryan & Co., Guelph, is at Agnew's Hotel to-day showing samples of carpets, in Wool, Brussels, Moquette and Wilton.

The poor success of some fisheries next Wednesday will no doubt be due to the fact that they haul their breath offend-them they do hook.

Councillor Williams' new windmill is completed and works like a charm. When neatly painted it will add to the attractive appearance of his premises.

up the study of geology on the present year's course. Dr. Winchell is the author and the subject is treated in a most interesting manner. The Circle is talking of arranging for occasional geological excursions.

Ald. L. O. Barber, of Guelph, died last Friday afternoon from paralysis. Deceased was one of the most extensive cattle dealers in Ontario, and did much to promote the interests of the trade in those parts. His death is a distinct loss to the city, as well as in the circuit of his business dealings.

In writing up the business and professional life of Fred the Advocate has this to say of Mr. Wilson, who visits that town every Wednesday. "Wilson is a young gentleman well recommended in his profession, being an honor graduate of the Royal College of Dental Surgeons, also practicing in Practical Dentistry. His teeth are entire satisfaction since opening here."

A Former Hamiltonian Deceased.

Last Thursday Mr. Josias Freeman, who was well known by many residents of Acton and vicinity, died very suddenly at his home at St. Mary's. Mr. Freeman was a son of the late John Freeman, who lived for many years on the homestead adjoining the village of Guelph. His wife, Mrs.
Alexander Brown, of Acton, shortly after his marriage, in 1872, Mr. Freeman removed to St. Mary's, and settled on a farm on the limits of the corporation of that town, where he has ever since been a respected resident. He leaves two daughters, the eldest being the wife of Rev.
Mr. Treloar, of Aylmer, and the other, Mrs.
McLaren, Manitoba, she a daughter of Mr.
John McLaren, who was a son of Mr.
Alexander Brown, of Acton. Shortly
bought the blacksmith shop in Aberfoyle, formerly owned by A. Blackley.
