LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

—Public holiday to-morrow

—The price of paris green is advancing

—Queen's weather is hoped for to-morrow.

—The warmer weather is enjoyed after the cold waves.

—The terraces at Knox Church have been graded and sodded.

—The frame for Mr. George Dill. new house on Park Avenue is up

—The Court of Revision for Acton will be held on Monday, 3rd June

—The ice cream crop has been badly frozen up the past week or so.

—The games and sports here to-morrow will be interesting and enjoyable.

—The frost last Sunday night was not so disastrous as that of the week before.

—The old Knox Church property on Main street is offered for sale by tender.

—George Statham will play this season with the Olympic Lacrosse Club, Milton.

—A car of emigrants passed through Acton on Monday for the Western States.

—Subscribers who do not receive their paper regularly will please notify us at once.

—Esquesing Sunday School convention at Union Church, above Glenwilliams, to-morrow.

—Mr. A. G. Heaven, of Oakville, recently fell heir to $50,000 through the death of an aunt in England.

—The Concert to morrow night by the Sims Richards Family will be a varied and enjoyable treat.

—Sunday hunting and fishing are prohibited by the game laws. Certain sports men will do well to note this fact.

—The Drayton Council has instructed the constable to have every boy arrested and fined that is seen mutilating the shade trees.

—Acton's public park is looking very pretty just now. A considerable number of shade trees could yet be planted to advantage.

—Mr. Hugh Mitchell, of Fergus, has been gazetted clerk of the Fourth Division Court of Wellington, in succession to the late T. W. Thompson.

—Judging from the crowds of spectators attending the practice games at the park each evening old time interest isevinced in base ball this season.

—Fairview Cemetery continues to attract many visitors. When the caretaker completes his work on the paths and drives the general effect will be much enhanced.

—A Garden Party, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of Boston Church, will be held at the residence of Mrs James Hume, lot 10, Con. 4, Esquesing, on Thursday evening, June 6.

—"Anything new or fresh about here to-day," asked the enquiring citizen at a place where repairs were in progress the other day. "Yes," was the reply, "that paint you're leaning against."

—Permanent by-law No. 6 says that "no person shall throw or pile cordwood on any street of the municipality nor leave any vehicle upon the streets thereof." Is this by-law enforced in every case?

—The members of the Ashgrove Methodist Choir drove to Acton last Thursday and spent a very enjoyable day with friends here. A splendid group photograph of the choir was taken by artist Ramshaw

The "At Home" of the Epworth League on Monday evening completed the series of the three months. This entertainment, like its predecessors, was well attended. An enjoyable social evening was spent.

The youths who persist in smashing fence pickets and damaging flower gardens will find themselves subjects of the Reeve's reward of $25 for conviction one of these fine mornings, if they do not desist their lawlessness.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of Knox Church has arranged for the lecture of Rev. D. Strachan B. A. of Hespeler, "Italy and Scotland," to be delivered in the church on Friday evening, May 31. Rev. Mr. Strachan is a most entertaining lecturer.

—The "Knoll Washing Machine," manufactured in Brantford, is the best washer made. It took the first prize among 800 at the World's Fair, and was successful in taking the first premium and gold medal. For sale by John Matthews, Willow street, Acton.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

Women's Missionary Convention.

The annual convention of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Guelph District will be held in the Methodist Church, Acton, on Thursday, June 20th. An interesting programme of missionary addresses, with reports from the various auxiliaries of the district, and other missionary intelligence will be given. This convention will no doubt give an impetus to the Woman's Missionary Society here, which has just closed a successful year.

A Lecture by Rev. Mr. Ranton.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church have arranged with Rev. A. H. Ranton for his popular lecture "Curious People and their Curiosity" to be delivered on Tuesday evening, 11th June. The many who listened to his able and earnest sermons and exhortations during the special services last November will all be glad of the opportunity afforded of hearing him again and renewing friendship. Rev. Mr. Ranton is at present laboring at Whitewater, Wis.

Continues His Successful Work.

The Goderich Signal says:—Sunday evening there was an interesting service in Northst Methodist Church when after the sermon some thirty members joined the church, and were heartily welcomed by the pastor and class-leaders on behalf of the congregation. The influx is largely due to the revival carried on in January and February, together with a number of newcomers to town who joined on certificate. North st Methodist Church, under Rev. J. Edge, seems to have taken a forward movement of considerable dimensions.

Esquesing S. S. Convention.

The programme for the Township Sunday School Convention, to be held in the Presbyterian Church, at Union, to-morrow, is one which will interest those engaged in Sunday School work very much. The topics from the opening till the close are of a practical character and will be presented by ladies and gentleman actively engaged in this important department of church work. The friends at Union will entertain all who attend both at dinner and tea and this will afford an enjoyable opportunity for social intercourse. A good contingent from Acton will likely drive over.

Evening of Historical Drama

Acton Lodge No. 307, A. O. U. W. have arranged with the Townsend Shakesperian Company for their appearance in town hall on Monday and Tuesday, June 3rd and 4th. This well-known company will appear in scenes from the following repertoire of noted tragedies, comedies and dramas:
The Merchant of Venice, King Richard III, Othello, Macbeth, The Honeymoon, The School of Scandal, Deflonte Ground, Damon and Pythias, Little Toddlekins, A Dead Shot, A Day after the Fair, etc. Handsome and appropriate costumes and stage settings will be used at each performance. An unusual treat is here offered for those who enjoy the portrayal of historical drama.

The Queen's Birthday Concert.

The joint committee of the Band and Base Ball Club has secured the sims Richards Family of entertainers for Queen's Birthday evening. In their unique, artistic and varied drawing room entertainment, under the distinguished patronage of their Excellencies the Governor General and Lady Aberdeen, this talented family provides a superior programme. It consists of songs, duetts and quartets, humorous songs and readings, ladies' mandolin and guitar quartets, banjo and string quartets, violin solos, wand and dumb bell exercise, pantomime action, archery drill, sword drill and fencing, also posing in Greek costume. Each of the six members of the family supplies an important individual feature. A delightful evening is in anticipation.

Good Queen Victoria.

In spite of the acknowledged feebleness of Queen Victoria, preparations for the world wide celebration of her birthday, tomorrow, are under way, and the public celebration and loyal observance of the event will be in no whit decreased over past anniversaries. At every British naval station, at every consulate, wherever the flag of England flies, in every colony, wherever Britons' hearts beat, the anniversary will be duly honored. Booming cannon will accompany the sun in the girding of the empire on which the sun never sets. Acton's loyal citizens will not be behindhand, as it is evident from the public announcement. And withal the celebration will be the more general from the knowledge that in the natural course of events these celebrations cannot be many more in number.

The Celebration To morrow.

Everything is in readiness for the Queen's Birthday celebration to-morrow. The committee of Acton Cornet Band and the Clipper Base Ball Club are well able to superintend the programme they have promised the public and an enjoyable day is looked for. Queen's weather will no doubt bring crowds of visitors. The base ball match is a feature in which much interest is centred, being the initial match under the schedule of Halton County League. A well contested game is looked for. The lacrosse match will also afford an interesting event on the programme. The various other games will attract those not otherwise interested and the programme as a whole is one which arranges a variety of enjoyable contests in athletic skill. The admission to the park for the entire day is only fifteen cents.

The Pulpits and Their Pastors.

This being Ascension Day divine service will be held in St. Alban's Church at 7.30 this evening. Rev. W. Bryers preached at Crewsons Corners and Eden Mills on Sunday.... Rev. G. W. Johnson, of Erin, preached an excellent sermon in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning from 1 Chron 29 5, "who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the Lord." In the evening Rev. Mr. Howell preached a most impressive sermon to young men, basing his remarks upon, 1 Kings, 2 2, "Shew thyself a man." True manliness was presented in most attractive form, and the young men were earnestly exhorted to aim at attaining a high standard in life and character. A continuation of the discourse will be given next Sunday evening.... Rev. Dr. Robertson, Superintendent of Missions in Manitoba and the North West, occupied the pulpit of Knox Church last Sabbath. His discourse in the morning touching missions was highly interesting. The true spirit of missions was forcefully presented. Dr. Robertson preached at Limehouse in the afternoon.

Return tickets will be issued between all stations in Canada, on the G. T. R. and C. P. R., on May 23rd and 24th, at first class single fare. Tickets good till May 25th. Also on May 24th and 25th at single first class fare and one-third. Tickets good till May 27th.

The vice-regal party will then proceed to Judge McGibbon's residence for luncheon. The ceremony of the laying of the stone will take place at 2.30. At 8.15 at the town hall, addresses will be presented by the Bishop of Niagara on behalf of the clergy and laity of the rural deanery of Halton, and by the warden and council of Halton. His Excellency and Lady Aberdeen will hold a reception at the town hall, when the citizens of Halton and neighborhood will have an opportunity to be presented.

ERIN

The new Sunday School room in the basement of the Methodist Church was completed last week and opened on Sunday afternoon by Rev. J. E. Howell, M.A., of Acton, with interesting but appropriate ceremonies. The new school room is very cosy and homelike and will be the means of creating new interest in the Sabbath School. Dr. Stronghman's lecture on his trip to Palestine on Monday evening was much enjoyed.

Messrs. J. H. Collier and F. J. Hamilton have gone into partnership as general merchants.

Summer . . .

Dress Goods

Fine Printed Cottons are becoming more and more popular for summer Dresses. The artists are progressive in their ideas adding to the variety of choice designs, and almost reaching perfection in colorings. Many of the styles this season are simply charming, and the temptation to buy is irresistible.

You will find your money go further this year in Wash Goods of this nature than at any previous season. Manufacturers are selling goods on a smaller margin of profit, and we have taken advantage of every circumstance in order to be able to give our Customers better value than ever. The public seem greatly pleased with both the styles and values of our Summer Dress Goods. They are selling freely—that is how we know.

A few of the prices are as follows:
Dress Ducks, in stripes and spots, in plain White, Cream, Pink, Tan and Navy, 10 and 12½c per yard.
Crepons, plain and fancy, in Cream, Rose, Nile, Blue and Fancy Tints, 15 and 25c per yard.
Piques 20c, 30c, and 45c.
Dimities 20c, 25c, and 30c.
Organdies, in flower and spot, at from 20 to 45c.
New Crinkle Cloths, in delicate shades, 20c.
Dark Wash Goods, in the new material Tokio Pongee, 15c.

What a contrast! While other stores are trying to unload, we are buying new goods in large quantities to sell at low prices. No wonder shoppers are quick, and mail-orders numerous.
