

The Young Folks.

FOUR GREAT EVENTS.

1. The first of the four great events... 2. The second of the four great events... 3. The third of the four great events... 4. The fourth of the four great events...

A GIRL'S OWN BROTHER.

"But he's my own brother." It is that reason why you should take his courtesies for granted, and never say "thank you?"

Because he is your very own brother you ought to be ten-fold more considerate of him than the brother of ordinary acquaintance.

NEW USES FOR PAPER.

The wonders in the use of paper... and pulp seem not likely to cease soon. The latest application of paper is for the manufacture of large guns.

NOW I HEAR YOU.

Father O'Halloran had a telephone put into the paragon in connection with the church, the parsonial, etc. Patrick McPee, his reverend's handy man, was instructed in the use of the instrument, and it was only the next day when Pat, sitting on the church, heard the clatter of the telephone bell.

WHAT HE UNDERSTOOD.

A certain superintendent of schools had a way of thinking questions at the children that completely deprived them of their wits. One day he called the third reader class to stand upon the floor, and began a pronounced ostentation. At last pointing his finger at a small, shrinking figure at the end of the class, he exclaimed, "You there! What do you understand by simile?"
