There are people who imagine a newspaper man can't keep a secret, that when he hears any news no matter what its character may be he will put it in print It's a grave mistake. If an editor printed all he knew, his paper would raise a merry war every week

Some of our younger citizens, who would perhaps like above all things to be married themselves, were a trifle previous in showering with rice a young couple at the G. T. R. station the other morning. The said couple had not the remotest idea of matrimonial relations.

—The Berlin News says that the Council at its last meeting granted exemption from taxes for eight years to Mr Horace J Hall on the additions to his planing mill, the original property to be assessed at $3,000 as previously. The property is not exempt from School Tax

The following is a favorite stanza with the bicyclists. How often, oh, how often, in the days that have gone by, have I sat upon that cycle and swiftly glided by, and how well do I remember, how, upon one balmy day that fire got a puncture and I walked home all the way

The eleven o'clock train going east was over half an hour late on Tuesday being crowded with passengers for the North West. They Recognize His Worth.

At the last meeting of the Board of Management of the North-st Methodist church appreciation of the worth of the pastor, Rev Jos. Edge, was manifested by increasing his salary in a substantial manner and giving him a vacation of three weeks. Since coming to this town Mr. Edge has succeeded in gaining the good will and esteem of his entire congregation, and it must be a source of satisfaction to him to know that it has not only been manifested by words of praise but has also been acknowledged in the more tangible form. Goderich Signal.

McIntyre, of Everton Circuit, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church on Sunday morning very acceptably and addressed the Sunday School in the afternoon He is a good speaker and his sermon gave evidence of careful preparation, and vigorous thought Rev B. Laing occupied the pulpit of Knox Church on Sunday morning and Rev J. E. Howell in the evening. This spirit of denominational interchange will be continued next Sabbath, Rev J. E. Howell will preach to the united congregations in Knox Church in the morning and in the Methodist Church in the evening Rev J. W. Rae is enjoying a couple of Sabbaths rest at Grimsby Park. The quarterly communion services of Everton Circuit at the Brick Church last Sunday morning were largely attended and most interesting. Rae, pastor of Knox Church and Moderator of Guelph Presbytery will next week celebrate the eighth anniversary of his induction to his present pastorate On Tuesday, 23rd August, 1887, he was inducted and the congregation, which had been without a pastor since October 4th, 1885, rejoiced that a well qualified shepherd had been found for the flock. The membership has doubled, the Sabbath School has increased, the Christian Endeavor has been organized and is a power for good in the church. A splendid new manse has been built and last winter one of the prettiest churches within the bounds of the Presbytery was opened amid the rejoicings and gratitude of an appreciative congregation. In addition to his pastoral work Rev. Mr. Rae has been identified with all local movements for the benefit of the community, and has been a faithful servant of his Presbytery, Synod and Assembly in arduous committee work His name is also a power in the land in county and provincial Sabbath School work.

A MOUTHFUL OF PEARLS

The teeth perhaps more than any other feature, enhance or destroy that intangible, because complex, thing we call beauty What more repellent than ill kept discolored teeth? What unsightliness more needless and inexcusable? Ivorine is delightful, whether as a cleanser or in its property of imparting to the teeth that dazzling whiteness so much desired and admired and as ethereally does it render the breath sweet and fragrant Ivorine is simply incomparable as a toilet requisite which accounts for its recommendation and use by leading dentists
