

BANK OF HAMILTON

HEAD OFFICE: HAMILTON

CAPITAL PAID UP $1,000,000.
RESERVE $100,000.
TOTAL ASSETS $1,100,000.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

John Hart, President

A. G. Hamdy, Vice President

John Peter, Vice President

A. H. Lee, Toronto

W. G. Gibson, Vice President

T. H. C. Fisher, Cashier

H. S. Stephen, Asst. Cashier

J. H. Watson, Inspector

AGENCIES

Hamilton, Berlin & East Galt, Allan

Bethel, Guelph, Waterloo, Kitchener,

Waterloo, Milton, Mount Forest, Orange-

ton, Port Hope, Simcoe, Toronto,

Waterloo, Guelph, Simcoe, Toronto,

Waterloo, Guelph, Simcoe, Toronto,

British Correspondents:

LONDON: National Provincial Bank of England

American Correspondents:

New York: National Bank, and

Bankers Trust Co., Boston: International National Bank of Illinois, and Union National City, National Bank of Com-

Agents in Montreal:

The Bank of Toronto.

GEORGETOWN AGENCY

Notes discounted and advances made on outstanding accounts.

Collections made and drafts bought and sold

Globe Britain and the Continent of Europe

most favorable terms.

Savings Department:

Deposits accepted, interest received, and

Interest allowed from date of deposit to date of withdrawal.

PERSONAL DEPOSITS

Also received at current rates of interest.

M. L. LIVINGSTON, Agent.

School Books

Scribbling and Exercise Books.

Copy and Drawing Books,

Slates,

Pencils,

Pens and Ink,

School Books,

School Supplies,

Call at

GEO. HYND, ACTON, ONT.

JEWELLERY WORKS

The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, AUGUST 23, 1895

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

—Next Monday Labor Day.

Do we want fire protection?

Sunday will usher in September.

Toronto Exhibition opens next day.

The school bells ring out their schools peals again.

The present harvest moon indicates fine weather.

The fall session will take place at Milton on Tuesday, 10th September.

The Free Press will be sent to new subscribers until the end of 1895 for thirty cents.

The holiday season is pretty, visitors and pleasure seekers generally are returning to their homes.

—Acton is to have another general store which will be opened in a few days in Kelly's old store.

A great contingent from Camp Evans S.O.S. attended the Brampton demonstration last Wednesday.

—Every property owner in town should attend the meeting to discuss Fire Protection to-morrow evening.

—Acton Horticultural and Agricultural Exhibition will be held four weeks from next Tuesday and Wednesday.

As rivers to the ocean flow so do the streams of good to man. Don't wait until the last moment.

An enjoyable sacred concert and literary entertainment was held in the Congregational Church, Churchill, last evening.

If within this business world you make yourself a berth, let printers' ink the fact until you are on the earth."

The lawn social at St. Thomas Somerville's next Monday evening will be thoroughly enjoyable. Mark it to point to be present.

—Acton Court Hand and a number of citizens attended the Harvest Home Festival at Ebenezer Church, Nasoga ways, last evening.

A number of farmers in the neighbourhood of Brampton have been summoned before the police magistrate for neglecting to cut their Canadian thistles.

Corn is a remarkable crop this year. A stalk from the garden of Mr. William Gurney, Church street, is on exhibition at this office, which measures eleven feet.

The Guelph League has extended a very cordial invitation to the public to attend the lawn social at the home of Mr. Thomas Somerville next Monday evening.

The fifty first anniversary service of the Methodist Church will be held on Sunday, 10th November. Rev. Dr. Budge, Book steward, of Toronto, will preach morning and evening.

Dr. A. B. Elliott, son of Mr. J. T. Elliott, one of Kemptville's most prominent farmers, has commenced the practice of his profession in Acton. His office is now main street three doors south of Knox church.

The melodic tones of the bell in St. Joseph's Church were heard on Sunday calling the congregation to worship. The first time since a fire a couple of months ago. The repairs of damage caused by the lightning and fire have just been made.

Little Wilford Weston, third son of old Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Weston, died Saturday evening after an illness of about three hours. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Weston, extend their sincere sympathy in this affliction. Rev. Mr. Langford conducted the funeral on Monday afternoon.

Almost every mail takes printed matter to all parts of the province which has been executed for customers in the Free Press job department. Invariably we receive replies as follows:—"Enclosed find $2.00 to cover last order which was promptly received and is entirely satisfied."

Look for the new ed. of Bumper, 12¢, talper, next week.

If you want first class Gingham and doilies at cheap prices, T. Lusk can fill your order at his planing mill.

THE NEWS-AT-HOME.

Montly of Local Characters, and Everything Interesting.

A Big Day's Threshing.

One of the biggest day's threshing ever accomplished in this section was performed on Monday for Mr. David Williamson, William Clegg, who had a manufactory of grain, 100 bushels and 20 minutes, at follows: 125 bushels of peas, 200 of wheat, 300 of barley, and 300 of oats. This work required five changes during the day and must be considered hunting.

House Ball Matches.

A splendid exhibition of base ball was given in the park Saturday afternoon at the match between Acton and Milton. The ball playing was witnessed by about 30 spectators. The home team proved to be the best for visitors and defeated them by a score of 10 to 5. T. Kenney acted as manager. The game will be played at the County League series will be played at Guelphville on Saturday with Acton.

Action Exhibition Oct. 1st and 2nd.

The officers and directors of Action Horticultural and Agricultural Exhibition men Saturday to finally revise the price list and complete arrangements for the exhibition show date. Several important changes were made to the rules: number of entries were added to the prize list and even more were put up. The society's interests were put into fine shape.

The structure was never so encouraging.

The High School boys and girls have returned to their studies at Georgetown. Mrs. Noshul and children visited Action schools last week.

If the night is fair a most enjoyable lawn social will be participated in at the home of Mr. Thomas Somerville next Monday evening. The attendance will no doubt be large.

A few here took in the R. C. picnic at Guelphville on Tuesday.

GEORGETOWN.

The Brampton Times referring to the Sons of Scotland demonstration last week says: "Perhaps of the oldest Scotch in our possession was Colonel Allen, who was 100 years of age. If the oldest, however, he was undoubtedly the most erect and sprightly boy in a company of 1000 in the line. The Colonel came to Toronto in 1818 with the 3rd Highland regiment, in which regiment he served in the Far East for 10 years. He then removed to Acton, where he has resided ever since. He received his commission as Colonel to the 20th Battalion some years later, in which capacity he served for 7 or 8 years." The Colonel is a tall, healthy gentleman, who takes a most active interest in anything pertaining to his countrymen.

MILTON.

The base ball team got defeated at Acton Saturday, notwithstanding the Toronto Hamilton contingent. Acton had the usual quota of importations.

Hans the Georgetown shoemaker charged with attempted assault upon a twelve year old girl who went to have a pair of shoes repaired was sentenced by Judge Sinden to two years in penitentiary.

Mr. George Hume entertained the band at his handsome residence one evening last week.

Mr. Yoshio Suzuki, a successful physician, practised in Guelph on Sunday evening.

G. E. McFarlane, L. B. Ross, and G. M. Patterson, all of whom are noted practice here and Mr. Ross a law lawyer.

Miss Letitia Mitchell, daughter of the Rev. J. Mitchell, a Maitland townswoman, the highest number of marks of distinction in the county who wrote at the recent High School Entrance Examinations standing was fifth.

ASHGROVE.

Also, Mrs. Murdoch, a well known divided friend in St. Catharines, died last week.

Another funeral took place at the A. H. Adams residence last Friday.

Miss Emma and Jessie Gadsby of St. Catharines and Miss Watkins of Guelph were guests of Miss Suzy Mitchell.

Mr. Dave Smith of Wellington is renewing old acquaintances here.

Several ladies here attended a picnic at Eldorado on Saturday and one was duchess.

Special services were held in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening.

Rev. J. W. K. occupied the pulpit at Knox Church last Sabbath, looking much refreshed as a result of his vacation. The previous two evenings he was in the A. H. Adams residence.

The latter was a stirring sermon and appealed especially to young men to stand up boldly for the right and to eschew every form of evil.

Pointed reference was made to the fact that considerable gambling is going on in Guelph and much evil resulting therefrom.

A point memorial service was held in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening.

—A great contingent from Camp Evans S.O.S. attended the Brampton demonstration last Wednesday.

—Every property owner in town should attend the meeting to discuss Fire Protection to-morrow evening.

—Acton Horticultural and Agricultural Exhibition will be held four weeks from next Tuesday and Wednesday.

As rivers to the ocean flow so do the streams of good to man. Don't wait until the last moment.

An enjoyable sacred concert and literary entertainment was held in the Congregational Church, Churchill, last evening.

If within this business world you make yourself a berth, let printers' ink the fact until you are on the earth."

The lawn social at St. Thomas Somerville's next Monday evening will be thoroughly enjoyable. Mark it to point to be present.

—Acton Court Hand and a number of citizens attended the Harvest Home Festival at Ebenezer Church, Nasoga ways, last evening.

A number of farmers in the neighbourhood of Brampton have been summoned before the police magistrate for neglecting to cut their Canadian thistles.

Corn is a remarkable crop this year. A stalk from the garden of Mr. William Gurney, Church street, is on exhibition at this office, which measures eleven feet.

The Guelph League has extended a very cordial invitation to the public to attend the lawn social at the home of Mr. Thomas Somerville next Monday evening.

The fifty first anniversary service of the Methodist Church will be held on Sunday, 10th November. Rev. Dr. Budge, Book steward, of Toronto, will preach morning and evening.

Dr. A. B. Elliott, son of Mr. J. T. Elliott, one of Kemptville's most prominent farmers, has commenced the practice of his profession in Acton. His office is now main street three doors south of Knox church.

The melodic tones of the bell in St. Joseph's Church were heard on Sunday calling the congregation to worship. The first time since a fire a couple of months ago. The repairs of damage caused by the lightning and fire have just been made.

Little Wilford Weston, third son of old Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Weston, died Saturday evening after an illness of about three hours. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Weston, extend their sincere sympathy in this affliction. Rev. Mr. Langford conducted the funeral on Monday afternoon.

Almost every mail takes printed matter to all parts of the province which has been executed for customers in the Free Press job department. Invariably we receive replies as follows:—"Enclosed find $2.00 to cover last order which was promptly received and is entirely satisfied."

Look for the new ed. of Bumper, 12¢, talper, next week.

If you want first class Gingham and doilies at cheap prices, T. Lusk can fill your order at his planing mill.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

News Items Supplied by Correspondents and Exchange.

CHEWSONS CORNERS.

Mr. Edward Kingsbury had a runaway horse last night while returning home. He got out to open the gate when the horse ran away and completely demolished the fence and barn.

Mr. Jas. Stevenson has a five acre field of bungafar grass which measures five feet in height. Mr. John Griggs has corn which measures twelve feet seven inches.

Miss Maude McDonald, of Elora, is visiting her aunt Mrs. J. Gamble.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Jas. Ramsay, and Mr. Chas. Gamble visited friends in Lowville over Sunday.

LIMELINE.

The remains of a very old resident of Limeline were laid to rest in the cemetery late yesterday. The grave of Jas. Cook, son of Jas. Cook, was 100 years old.

Miss Eva Williams is visiting friends at Campbellville.

Mr. C. C. Henderson visited friends in Milton this week.

Miss E. Ahern, of Toronto, spent Sunday with Antes friends.

Miss May Paxton is visiting friends at Drayton and Moorefield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Anderson from Corlett are visiting from Corlett.

Mr. Fred. Tush