THREE NOTED EPISCOPIANS.

Who have signed Dr. Agnew's Cataractal Powder, and in doing so have testified to its efficacy.

In the ecclesiastical history of Canada the names of the Right Rev. A. Rocaumont, D.D. 1845, Lord Bishop of Toronto, and Rev. John Langtry, M.A., D.C. L., stand out prominently, and with his own parish may be added to the names of the Rev. W. B. Williams, Dr. Langtry's successor, and the Rev. J. A. Macdonald, who having learned of the fact that there has been a source of benefit to themselves, it is their duty to tell the good news to others.

One short puff of the breath through the blower, supplied with each bottle of Dr. Agnew's Cataractal Powder, diffuses the powder over the surface of the nasal passages. Painless and delightful to use it reflects in 30 minutes, and permanently cures catarrh, hay fever, colds, headache, sore throat, tonsillitis and deafness. 50 cents. Sold by J. V. KENNEDY.

AN EFFECTIVE LIE.

Answering French advocates in the course of his address to the court, furnished about his hand in such a manner as to show of a magnificent diamond ring. He was young, good looking and was pleading for a lady of quality who demanded a separation from her husband. The husband, who happened to be present, interrupted him in the middle of a period and turning to the judge exclaimed, "My lady, you will appreciate the fact which M. X. is displaying against me and the sincerity of his argument when you are informed that the diamond ring he wears is the very one that I placed on my wife's finger on the day of that union he is so anxious to dissolve."

THE DOG'S NAME. A boy's fishing pole was fastened to the trunk at a tree on the river bank, and he was sitting in a boat playing with his dog, fishing the time away as he had been fishing all day and caught nothing.

HELPING SOMEBODY. It is said that once, when the wife of Sir Bartle Frere had to meet him at the railway station, she took with her a servant who had never seen his master. "You must go and look for Sir Bartle," she ordered. "But," answered the surprised servant, "how shall I know him?" "Oh," said Sir Bartle Frere, "look for a tall gentleman helping somebody." The description was sufficient for the quick-witted maid. He went and found Sir Bartle Frere helping an old lady out of a railway carriage, and knew him at once by the description.

Not Very Well-But Care. It is said of many remedies that they relieve for a time but the disease after wards comes back. Burdock Blood Bitters, being a radical cure, not only relieves but permanently cures Dyspepsia, Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Bad Blood, etc. Hundreds of healthy witnesses testify that B. B. B. cures to suit your cure.

The most positive men are the most credulous, since they most believe themselves, and advise most with their falsest flatter and worst enemy—their own self-love.

With Invalids. You will find the appetite is capricious and needs looking after. It is just as reason they improve so rapidly under Scott's Emulsion, which is as palatable as cream.

It is not what people gain, but what they save that makes them rich. Hope is the rudimentary morning of psychology. It is its golden tinge.

Every day brings to us some new tramp in life of the heart is willing to grasp it. He that adventurously well and judiciously shall not be forgotten by the multitude that consume his products.

Since time is not a person, we can save it, and we can save it in many ways. With much and cheerfulness of heart while he is passing.

No man can for any considerable period appear one thing to himself and another to the multitude without becoming bewildered as to which may be his true self.

When you make a mistake don't look back at it long. Take the reason of the thing into your mind, and then look forward. Mistake are lessons of wisdom. The past cannot be changed. The future is yet to your power.
