The Fordwich Telephone pays the following compliment to a former resident of Actou: - "The manse is nearing completion, and it is a credit to the Presbyterian congregation as well as to those who have had to do with the erection of it. We had the pleasure of viewing this splendid resideuce from cellar to attic, and without doubt it is second to none, as no expense has been spared to make it both comfort able and attractive. The building is brick structure and the plane of same, which were drawn by Mr. Thomas Ramshaw, of Wrozeter, and which were presided over by him until all the contracts were chanical skill of which he has gained so wide a reputation as an architect. The designs throughout are of the latest styles."

Evangelistic Services. A series of evangelistic services was commenced in the Methodiet Church on Sunday. The attendance at each succeeding meeting has been large and much interest is manifested. The paster is being assisted by the Misses Hall, of Guelph, whose efforts in similar services elsewhere have been very effective. They are experlenced and consecrated workers and have the poculiar faculty of keeping the interest of each service unbloken from beginning to close. Their addresses and exhortations have an earnestness and a directness which awaken personal interest and touch every heart. They are sweet singers and during the rendering of their ducts each evening the keenest attention is given. The methods adopted are in every respect coneistent with the usages of the Methodist Church. Already the services are bearing fruit and much good is auticipated as the work moves forward.
