Acton Bible Society -- Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of Acton Branch o the Upper Canada Bible Society will be held in Knox Church hext Wednesday evening, 12th inst. Rev. R. J. Elliott, Burlington, who is always an effective and interesting speaker, will deliver the annua address. The local clergy will also be present. The chair of the church will take part in the meeting. Mr. J. L. Warn the president, will take the chair at 7.30 o'clock. A broad and cordial invitation is extended by the executive to all interested in the spread of the Gospel.

At the last meeting of the Esquesing Township Council it was decided to hold a invited. convention of the pathmasters of the town ship, and all ratepayers interested in good roads and the performance of statute labor, convention to be held in Georgetown on Wednesday, Feb. 19th, at 10 a. m., and it was also decided to send an invitation to the councils of adjoining municipalities to attend. This convention will be of general interest not only to members of Municipal Councils but to all ratepayers who are interested to the betterment of the public highways.

An Important Convention.

A Convention Month. February is usually noted for conventions but the present month seems to have a remarkable number in which many of our | ing. citizens are interested. The annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association will be held in Toronto to-day and to-morrow. held at Oakville on Monday. Halton Teachers' Association meets in Acton next Thursday and Friday, 18th and 14th. The County Bunday School Convention will be held at Burlington on the 20th and 21et and Hamilton Conference Epworth League

Convention meets at Berlin on the 25th Officially Invited to London. The Brantford Courier says : -"At the quarterly official meeting of the Askin Street Methodist Charch, London, held on Monday evening, Rev. A. L. Russell, B. D. chairman of the district, presiding, the call to the Rev. R. Hobbs to become their pas tor at the close of his term in the Colborne street church, was again sustained. In view of the fact that out of the three or four names submitted, Mr. Hobbs was almost the unaminous choice of the official board, it is understood that he will accept the invitation subject to the transfer and stationing committee." Rev. Mr. Hobbe will spend Sunday, 9th March, in Acton. He will preach the annual missionary sermone. His former parishioners will be pleased to have him with them again. Communion and Reception of Members The services in the Methodist Church last Sunday were very interesting and long remmembered. The sermone of the paster, Rev. J. E Howell, M. A., especially that of the evening, were of a very able character. At the reception service thirty five new members were received, six by certifi. faith. Nearly all of these were adolts. The sacrament was administered at the close of the evening service and the number previous communion. Rev. Wm. Bryers assisted the paster at the service. At the meeting of the Quarterly Official Board on

pessed inviting Rev. Mr. Howell to remain as pastor for a third year. Halton Sunday School Association. The county convention of Halton Sunday School Association will be held at Burlington on Thursday and Friday, Feb. 20th and 21st. The place of meeting will be the Methodist Church, and the programmes just issued present a fine list of subjects carefully arranged and in good hands for presentation to the gathering. Mareville, will occupy Mr. Howell's pulpit Among those from abroad are: Prof. Wallace, of McMaster University, Toronto. Rev. Dr. Fraser, of Knox Church, Hamilton, Rov. A. C. Crewe, of Toronto, Scaretary of Epworth Longues, Mr. Alfred Day. General Secretary of the Provincial S. B. Association, Miss Jessie Munro, Cor. Sec. of the Provincial Association. A mass meeting of Sunday School scholars will be held in the Presbyterian church on Friday afternoon. The local committees have already begun their work and will leave nothing undone toward making the couvention a great success. Burlington

> The International Art Printer's Opinion The International Art Printer, published by Arthur M. Rutherford, Owen Bound, in its last issue says: "One of the bost assortments of specimens of printing that we have had the pleasure of examining for some time, has been received from H. P. Moore, publisher of the Acton Face Pages. Mr. Moore is one of the most progressive printers in Cauada. Judging from his specimens Lis office must be full of the latest up-to-date type faces and borders. The same may be said as to outs and orea. ments. A faw of the jobs that most partioularly caught the writer's eye are: A bill head of his own, in light blue, perantum red and gold.
