LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week.

Summer merrymaking are now popular.
New potatoes are now on the bill of fare.

Orange blossoms will predominate next Monday.

The pastures generally are becoming very bare.

Business men! Advise as if you meant business.

Munday will be a gay day here for the Orangemen of the county.

The temperature this week has been more congenial than the great heat of last week.

Rev. Dr. Wild's house and valuable library were destroyed by fire at Bronte on Saturday.

Wild raspberries are now on the market. Copious rains would improve quality and quantity.

Mr. William Denstret sold his fine pair of prize matched geys in Ayton recently at a good figure.

The fall fairs for Halton will not be held this year until Thursday, December 13th. Chancellor Boyd will preside.

Mr. B. L. Haworth has commenced the manufacture of gloves here. His factory will be known as the Maple Leaf Glove Works.

David Wren has sold his farm but to Coop. 7, Nassagaweya, to David Williamson for about $4,000. Mr. Williamson now owns 300 acres.

The dry weather has favored the development of grasshoppers. They have done considerable damage to pastures and to the growing crops.

A championship ball team coming.
The Actons have arranged for a match with the Maple Leafs, of Guelph, at Acton on Tuesday, 21st July.

A glee party will be held at the home of Mr. James L. Warren, Cedar Creek Farm, in the interest of the Baptist Church, on Friday evening, 17th inst.

Do not spend your time thinking what the new Government proposes to do, but spend it in devising and putting into operation schemes that you can do.

A lacrosse practice will be held to night.
All the players are expected to turn out, as a game with Acton will be played in the near future.—Guelph Mercury.

A post of Buffalo moths is breeding havoc in many homes here. They attack carpets, clothing and furs and are most expedient in their operations.

Mr. N. T. Weber had a surprise fall from her wheel while out in the country for a run on Monday morning. She is slowly recovering from the effects.

There is a law against permitting noxious weeds to grow along the roads and tanes. Now is the time to destroy them, if the ripening of the seed is to be avoided.

Capt. John Shaw, of the 5th Hussars, commenced cutting fall wheat last Friday, and July. This, he says, is the earliest date that harvest ever commenced in this section.

The Horse Co. made a very creditable run in the horse race competition at Milon Dominion Day. They were only two seconds behind the long experienced Milon company in the race.

The cups and medals to be presented for competition at the Orange Demonstration next Monday are on exhibition at the jewelry store of George Hynd, 107 High Street, an attractive exhibit.

Last night one of the bands on Monday evening, probably between the town hall and Mr. McNab's residence, a large gate watch charmed. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving at the Free Press office.

A Milton correspondent writes to the Brampton Free Press as follows:—On Tuesday evening, the 8th instant, we were celebrating the victory of Captain Mr. W. C. Cook when gave birth to a son. The child will be christened Wifred Laurence Cookson.
