LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears, of Free Press Reporters this week.

—Renew your subscription to the Free

Press.

—Hay sold in Guelph market this week at $8 to $9.

—Another flour and feed store will shortly be opened here.

Ticket for the Sons of Scotland concert can be secured from T. H. Harding.

—Messrs. L. G. Matthews and Anson

Smith are Acton's official auditors for the year.

—Don't worry about the ice crop. January is only half done and February is to come yet.

—Founds—A lady's black shopping bag containing small sum of money. Apply at this office.

—Founds—In the Methodist Church shed,

a straight orange whip. Owner can have it at this office.

—Weary walkers continue to hold down the couches at the town hall. They say that Georgetown freezes them out.

—Rev. A. H. Ranton is now conducting

Special services in the Methodist Church,

Ottawa. Rev. G. A. Calvert, pastor.

—The annual convention of Halton

District School Association will be held at Georgetown, on the 4th and 5th February.

—The prayer meeting at the Methodist Church this evening will be conducted by the members of the Woman's Missionary Society.

—Action Hockey Club will play their first outside match next Saturday evening on the Milton rink with the club of the County Town.

—The Free Press has a few of its calen-ders for 1897 remaining. As long as they last subscribers and their friends are welcome to a copy.

—Nearly every farmer who comes to Milton complains that the streets in town are in a wretched condition than the country roads. —Milton Reformer.

—The Action Free Press sends out a very neat calendar with pictures of the editors of the paper since its inception.

London Daily Free Press.

—The Guelph Standard will meet next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock for organisation. The change in hour of meeting was made by a recent regulation.

—The man who circulates an evil report against his neighbor without knowing it to be true is only less to blame than the other man who deliberately manufactures such a report.

—The Hamilton Conference committee on circuit boundaries will meet in Acton on Monday, 26th January. Rev. J. Vanwyk

B. President of the Conference, will preside.

—The Division Court sitting last Wednesday attracted a big attendance. The participants in the several cases found there were no bargains and out prices in law-suits.

—Miss Jessie Nodlin and Miss Walker

and Messrs. Harry Jones and W. Stark provide the programme for an entertainment, under the auspices of the Hillsburg band, in that village to-morrow evening.

—The Free Press has received from Mr.

J. V. Kanninen interesting copies of the

New Year's edition of the Los Angeles

Press. Splendid little engravings of California city and country scenery are given.

—The Action Free Press sends out a very neat calendar with pictures of the editors of the paper since its inception.

Rev. T. Albert Moore, well known to Hamiltonians, is one of them.—Hamilton

Press.

—Mr. J. C. Hurst, a former merchant of this town, now a broker in the city of Washington, D. C., was married last week to Miss Hyde, of Stratford, Ont., daughter of the late Dr. Hyde. Mr. and Mrs. Hurst will reside in Washington.

—Mr. A. Cornfield, Grocer, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors.

Since coming to Acton a year ago, Mr.

Cornfield has been very unfortunate. For several months his home has been like a hospital. At the present time, both Mr.

and Mrs. Cornfield are seriously ill and confined to bed.

—Messrs. Choyne and Cheyne announce that they will have the skating rink open as follows: To the Hockey Club on Monday,

Wednesday and Friday afternoons, from 3 to 4 o'clock, and to the public on Tuesday

Thursday, Saturday afternoons and

Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evenings from 7.30 to 10 o'clock.

THE NEWS-AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

Annual Meeting of Knox Church.

The annual meeting of Knox Church will be held on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock. The members and adherents of the Church are invited to a lunch to be given by the elders and managers in the basement from 5.30 to 7.30... The pastor preached in Normal on Friday of last week, and on Saturday in Hespeler.

Additional Residents Pastor.

Rev. Mr. McLean, pastor of the Congregational Church, Guelph, and Caledon, has taken up his residence in Acton.

An effort is being made to have the church of Georgetown and Acton reunited with

Rev. Mr. Forbes as pastor. Until a few years ago this was the arrangement—during the days of pastorate of Rev. Joseph Unsworth.

Acton Grains Markets.

The opening of the grain market at the

G. T. R. here has evidently been appreciated by the farmers. During the considerable grain has come in. Mr.

Noble enjoys confidence of the farmers of this section and they consider his prices satisfactory. The prices ruling this week are as follows: Wheat, white, $0.50 to $1; red, 75 to 80c; Barley, 22c to 28c;

Oats 40c.; Oats 7c. to 12c.
