THE NEWS AT HOME.

A Quiet but Pretty Wedding.

A couple of our esteemed young people, Mr. George Agnew and Miss Jessie Douglas, were quietly wedded last Thursday evening and were united in the bonds of wedlock at St. James' Church, Rectory. Rev. A. J. Bell, M. A., tied the nuptial knot. The bride was attended by Miss Nellie Haynes and Mr. Murray McDonald supported the groom. The happy young couple will take up their residence in the cottage on Willow Street next to the lawn, where they will receive their numerous friends.

Accidents were Numerous That Day.

Last Thursday was a busy day for the surgeons. Early in the morning there was a call to the home of Mr. Thomas Ebbage to reduce the fracture sustained by his daughter Lottie to her right limb the evening before. Shortly after seven p. m. Henry Blauzer, who works in Beardmore & Co's factory, made a misstep and fell into a vat of molten metal. His left arm was caught in the right hand and was severely injured. The hand was broken at the second and third joints. The same foreman Mr. James McLan, blacksmith, was adjusting the plunger of the deep well at the tannery, when by an unguarded jerk his left thumb was dislocated.

An Entertaining Concert.

With the first frost last fall Miss Lottie Ebbage, the fourteen year old daughter of Mr. Thomas Ebbage, met with an accident while at play with her companions by which she lost the use of her left hand. She has been confined to bed almost continuously until last week, when she was sufficiently recovered to get about. Last Wednesday she went out to enjoy alighting with two or three other girls in their frolic on the other girls left against her and the limb was again fractured. She is now in the child of convalescence; she being the third fracturing with a year ago. The nursing entailed is a severe strain upon the mother and other members of the family.

A Veritable Art University.

The most interesting of the four Hill brothers—all of whom are successful professional artists—their boyhood's home, recalls the fact that the studio here has been very prolific in turning out artists who are a credit to the profession. The studio was established in 1873 by Mr. J. C. Hill, now proprietor of a profitable art business in Toledo, Ohio. He was succeeded by Mr. C. W. Hill, now of Monroe, Mich., one of its most prosperous citizens, a property owner and doing his whole duty in both church and state. Mr. H. Stanshaw, the present owner, received his education and inspiration in the gallery he now so successfully operates. The following are graduates, all having served their time in Acton—Chester T. Hill, of Cleveland, Ohio; Henry F. Hill, Buffalo, N. Y.; W. J. Hughes, of Detroit; Miss Clara Z. Moore, of Lancaster, Ohio; Chas. A. Matthews, of the Anatomical Co., Jamestown, N. Y.; George Thurston, of White Plains, N. Y.; Albert Adams, at present in town. Very few Canadian country boys, with their general and thorough country tuition and wholesome ideas of honest service, invariably get to the top in the cities to which they migrate.

Now Subscribers Regard The System.

While the paper for many years has been a Canadian Press Association at Toronto the query, "How does your cash in advance work?" are your subscribers loyal to you in carrying it out?" was a frequent one from the part of newspaper friends who were there. It was a pleasure to reply that it is entirely satisfactory and that our subscribers have honored the plan almost universally by prompt remittance. The following is a letter just received from a subscriber, a resident hundred miles from Acton, who has been a subscriber since the paper was first published—notice had been sent that the last copy had been forwarded and less than a month ago he received the issue of this week:

DEAR MR. EDITOR:—A very striking colored circular reminds me that my subscription is due. I have not been able to do so for some time, and I am very sorry for my failure to do so. I have no excuse to offer for my failure to do so, but I am very sorry for my failure to do so. I have no excuse to offer for my failure to do so. I am very sorry for my failure to do so.

COMING AND GOING.

Visitors to and From Acton and Various Other Personal Notes.

The First Passes invites all its readers to come to the office. If you or your friends are going away on a holiday trip or if you have friends visiting you drop a card to the First Passes.

Mr. J. A. Speight and Miss Speight visited friends at Ashgrove this week.

Rev. H. A. Macpherson and wife arrived home on the evening train on Tuesday.

Mr. John Moffat, son of Mr. C. Moffat, Acton, left last Thursday for St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Amy, of the paragon, Nassagaweya, spent a day or so with the wife and Mr. Moffat.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Moore, of Georgetown, spent two or three days under the parental roof this week.

Mr. R. D. Graham is attending the Grand Lodge of the A. O. U. W. in session at Toronto this week.

Councillors Smith and Meira, J. H. Matthews and R. D. Graham visited Rockwood Lodge A. O. U. W. on Friday evening.

Messrs. Joseph and Charles Lauby and Mrs. M. A. Christie went to Port Huron last week to attend the funeral of the late Levi Lauby.

Mr. Levi Lambert and family are now going settled in their new home. They appreciate the weekly budget of news which goes from Acton.

Mr. Chas. A. Matthews, who has been spending a month or so with his father, postmaster Matthews, left on Monday for New York to resume his situation there.

Rev. B. B. Williams, pastor of the Congregational Church, Guelph, has resigned his pastorate. The resignation has been accepted and will take effect April 1st.

Rev. J. E. Howell, M. A. and Mrs. Brynes and Miss Frances Lovins and Lulu Howell were appointed delegates to attend the Hamilton Conference Epworth League Convention at Paris next week.

Mr. Walter Lauby, of Hastings, Minn., spent a day or so with relatives here after attending the funeral of his brother, the late Levi Lauby, of Duluth. Mr. Lauby has been a resident of Minnesota for thirty years and has grown up with our country. He is a prosperous farmer quiet in love with the Western States, but working strenuously for the equipment of national prohibition.

DAMAGED LINEN SALE

A Thinker!

If you turn your thinker back one, two and three years, you will recall our very successful Damaged Linen Sales.

G. B. RYAN & CO. will hold another sale of Damaged Linsens, commencing THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18th. It will be no exception to the past as far as success is concerned. Can you recall any sale we have advertised in the past that wasn't a success? Why are they always a success? Because we always do what we say.

This Damaged Linen Sale will consist of Linen Towels, Towelling by the yard, Damask Tableting, bleached, Damask Tableting, unbleached, Damask Table Cloths, Napkins, &c. You will have no difficulty in locating the damage, as in every case it will be indicated by a red string. In many cases the goods are very little damaged, the imperfection in many cases consisting of a flaw in the weaving, a small pin-hole, or being slightly soiled. All women have a weakness for dainty linsens, and it is a very pardonable one. What looks prettier than a table handsomely decorated with snowy linen?

A TRIO OF AFFLICTIONS.

Varied Agonies For Long Years.

A MAN OF SEVENTY-FOUR YEARS FEELS YOUNG AGAIN.

Paine's Celery Compound Gives Him New Blood, Activity and Strength.

THE GREAT MEDICINE REMOVES HIS TROUBLES AND BURDENS.

His Cure Vouched for by a Justice of the Peace.

Mr. Thomas R. Baxter, of Keresdale, N. S., aged 74 years and fast nearing the grave from a terrible complication of disease—rheumatism for 40 years, bleeding piles for 16 years, and sciatic rheumatism for over a year—was rescued from torture, agony and death by Paine's Celery Compound after all other means had failed.

After reading the following statement, vouched for by a Justice of the Peace, how can any sane man or woman entertain doubts as to the curing virtues of earth's only honest life giving medicine?

Mr. Baxter writes as follows:

"I desire to let you know of a wonderful cure by your preguis medicine, Paine's Celery Compound."

"I was afflicted by three complaints that made my life a misery and a burden. I had rheumatism for 40 years, bleeding piles for 16 years, and sciatic rheumatism for over a year."

"I tried the doctors and all kinds of medicines, but no help or relief was afforded me, and I could not eat or sleep. I was then advised to use Paine's Celery Compound, and oh what a mighty change! The use of the first bottle enabled me to eat and sleep, and after using seven bottles I was quite another man; was perfectly cured, and feel young again. All that I have written can be proven by merchants, doctors, ministers, and by three ministers of the Gospel, and by scores of other people. I shall always thank you and your wonderful medicine, Paine's Celery Compound."

"I hereby certify that Paine's Celery Compound has made a well man of Thomas R. Baxter."
 James H. Thynon, Justice of the Peace.

ASHGROVE

Miss Amy Adams, of Springfield, was visiting friends in this vicinity during the performance of the marriage ceremony. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Aggie Laird, and Rev. W. M. McKay, of Norval, assisted the groom. The gifts to the couple were beautiful and numerous, showing the high esteem in which they are held. The happy couple left for their residence at one time, zealous workers, and another from the young lady's Sunday School class. Among the guests from a distance were: Charles Laird, New York; E. Laird, Ont. City; R. and Mrs. Laird, Toronto; Mrs. Spence, Inverness, Alberta; Mr. Balling, Inverness, and Miss A. Balling, Galet. After the marriage ceremony the 50 guests spent at dawn to partake of the wedding breakfast, during which an impromptu programme was carried out. The happy couple left for their residence at one time, zealous workers, and another from the young lady's Sunday School class.
