> A Note from Rossland. Mr. Alex. C. Campbell at one time member of the FREE PRESS staff, has written the following letter to a friend here :-Rossland does not impress me much yet as I cannot see much for the snow, which is pretty deep. Expenses are high. I am charged $4 a week in advance for au 8 x 9 room, the furniture of which is a washetand and one chair. A row of nails driven in the wall does duty for a wardrobe or bureau. Board costs $5 per week at lowest, or 25 cents a meal in advance. An average of forty people come to the town daily. It is said that 8,000 people are here now, and I am to believe the papers, an influx of about 15,000 may be confidently looked for in the spring. What they will do beats me. Registrar-general of the province has been issued. From the registrations of the past year we glean the following interesting information :- In the county of Halton the number of births registered was 446, an increase of 51 over the previous year; there were 92 marriages, a decrease of 22 under the year before. The death rate was unusually heavy, there being 566 Sunday. deaths, an increase of 84 over the last report. The ratio of deaths was, however, lower than the average of the province. Halten's ratio per 1000 of population was 8.9, while the ratio for the province was 10 1. Our birth rate was above the 'average, being 19.4 per 1000, while over the province the ratio was 8.8. In marriages we fall over a third below the average of the province. Halton's rate is 4.0 per 1000 while the general average is 6.3, one county -Essex-going as high as 15.6.
