THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and overy Itom Interesting.

Rev. T. R. Forbes Surprised. The Churchill Congregational friends surprized the pastor and his wife in laying seige to their new home on Bower Avenon Friday evening last. After a very pleasant evening, to the proceedings of which all contributed, they left the home with many proofs of kindness and good will. Rev. Mr. Forbes has won a warm place in the hearts of his people. Christian Fellowship Exemplified.

The union of the congregations of the Presbyferian and Methodist Churches last Suuday was most cordial and profitable, Owing to the absence of Rev. J. E. Howel at Conference this plan was suggested and the courtesy of Rev. Mr. Macpherson in acting as pastor of the united congregations for the day was much appreciated by pastor and members of the sister church The congregations were very large. They worshipped in the Methodist Church in th morning and in Knox Church in the evening. The sermons by Rev. Mr. Macpherson were able expositions and peculiarly fitting to the occasion.

His New Field. At the conference just closed Rev. J. Howell, M. A., was appointed to the church at Waterloo. During his pastorate at Berlin Mr. Howell and his family made many friends at Waterloo, and they will remove' thence under many pleasant auspices. The fact that, after a pastorat at Berlin, a point so contiguous to bis new field, the appointment of Mr. Howell is Be generally acceptable to the church at Waterloo, is a superior compliment to his ability and pastoral qualifications general ly. It also speaks well for the discrimina tion and observation of the people of Waterloo. The members of the congregation here will unite in wishing Rev. Mr. Howell every encoses there. The exchange will take place at the end of the present
