Tampering with the Fire Alarm. Hamilton, (Barton St.) & East End, Alliston A young man in town was tamperi with the electric fire alarm box on Youn street one day last week, and because h did not succeed in turning out the brigade circulated the report that the alarm system is no good. The system is all right, but any further tampering with it will be fol lowed by severe penalties.

Successful Garden Party. For a number of years a garden party, at the home of Chancillor Stalker, on the third line, has been an event of the summer in connection with the Ladies' Aid of Knor Church. The residence and grounds there are well adapted for a large gathering and an enjoyable time is invariably sport on these occasions. A large crowd gathered there last Thursday evening to participate and a delightful time was spent. As usual artillery. Mr. and Mrs. Stalker were most energetic in their efforts to ensure pleasure and comfort to all. The proceeds of the evening

With a view to furthering the interes in the cause of good roads the Toronto World and the Cleveland Bicycle Co. have entered into competition to ride a relay race from Toronto to Chatham next Saturday. The race will be over separate routes, will start from Toronto at 5 a. m and if all's well the last relay should arrive at Chatham by 7 in the evening. The route chosen by the Cleveland is the north one, which passes through Georgetown, Acton, Guelph, London, and on to Chatham. Each route will be divided into 25 relays and nine districts. The relay will reach Acton between 7.30 and 8 a.m. Acton Won Aguin.

An exciting base ball match was played here on the afternoon of Jubileo Day between Acton and the Argyles, ol Toronto. The game was a most interesting and exciting one throughout and the large crowd in attendance were at times greatly excited by the fast play and close contest exhibited by both teams. At the end of the ninth inning the score was even 7 to 7. Acton went to bat for a tenth innings and succeeded in scoring two runs while their opponents made but one, leaving the home team the victors. Tthe score was as

A Jubilee Day Wedding. An event of memorable interest to two families and many outside friends was enacted at Palmerston on Jubileo Day, when the nuptials of Miss Annie Laurie, youngest daughter of of Dr. M. Forster, one of Palmerston's best beloved maidens, and Rev. T. Albert Moore, pastor of the Mothodist Church, chairman of the district and assistant secretary of the Hamilton Conference, were consummated at the residence of the bride's parents. Rev. J. S. Wil liamson, D.D., of Mount Forest was the officiating clergyman, and was assisted by Rov. George Hartley, Palmerston. The bride was charming as she entered the drawing room on her father's arm, as the piano by Miss Williams, of Georgetown, and Miss Board, of Glenwilliams, Her dressed in pink satin and lace trimmings
