WANTED... Agents for 'Queen Victoria'...

"If sincere repentance and trust in Christ can make any of us worthy, he is He that said 'Little Polly, should take it with him. 'She has done this for me,' he said. 'It's her work.'"

"The beginning of a fortune is made when a man learns to respect the day of small things. The largest of exchange is a redoubtable power. 'Little and often fills the safe.' 'Take care of the penny and the pounds will take care of themselves.'"

"The multitude are kept poor by their passions for buying. We walk along the streets and covet in the shop-windows, a thousand things that we have not the remotest need for. Impulse says, 'Buy, buy, buy.'"

BALANCED THE ACCOUNT... The driver of a grocer's delivery wagon collected his debt by a little smile, and while the grocer's man was not to blame, he patiently bore a great deal of abuse from the other.

INNOCENT TOMMY... "Papa," said Tommy, "is it cowardly to strike something bigger than you than can't defend itself?"

A MAD AUCTIONEER... "Though John Doyle has intimated at one time or another that he would accept the office of auctioneer..."

LEAVE THE OLD LOG HOUSE, STANBURN... "Not a raft nor a beam shall be teched by mortal hands."

YOUR "HONORABLE" BUSINESS... "Dr. Wm Taylor, of Cincinnati, told the late Mrs. Mary A. Woodridge a sad story of woman's degradation through strong drink..."

WHEN THE WELL FELL IN... "An Irishman took a contract to dig a well. When he had dug about twenty-five feet down he came one morning and found it had fallen in."

Mrs. Peter Brown and Her Brown Dress... "Mrs. Peter Brown was a worthy and thrifty housewife and though poor her Brown family she got tired of trousers--we refer to brown coats."

WHY HE LEFT THE LIQUOR TRADE... The following is taken from the Christchurch paper: "After four years' connection, I have come to this conclusion: 1. That it is bad business, morally and physically, for those who engage in it."

NEURVOS DEBILITY IS A COMMON COMPLAINT... "Nervous debility is a common complaint, especially among women. The best medical treatment for this disorder is a permanent course of Dr. Serravallo's to cleanse and invigorate the blood. This being accomplished, nature will do the rest."
