LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week.

The harvest is now pretty well in.

Toronto exhibition opens next week.

We had Queen's weather for Civic Holiday.

The exhibition season will afford the next holidays.

That was a very pleasant trip to the Falls on Monday.

The annual talk of big threshing exhibits is again being indulged in.

Mr. Ed. Matthews is building a stone shop 18 x 24 on the lot next his residence on Mill Street.

W. P. Campbell is adding another to the big list of houses erected by him on Mount Campbell.

In the adjourned hearing of the case against J. P. Muller, on the Commercial Hotel, last Friday the charge was dismissed.

Interesting copies of the Illustrated Buffalo Express, G. A. R. edition, have been received from Mr. H. F. Hill, of that city.

Owing to the rise in wheat Guelph bakers have put the price of bread up to 12 cents.

Notwithstanding the late harvest the farmers are pretty generally at their sealing.

A fife and drum band is likely to be organized in connection with Anton Lodge L. O. L. through the efforts of ex-Councillor Kenny.

Collector Graham is presenting his annual billet box inviting property owners to his tax-paying reception on Sept. 4th and November 6th.

Mr. N. Noble has had his grain warehouses at the G. T. B. reshingled and otherwise put into good order, for the season's grain trade.

"The camels are coming" was the time the band struck up when the bicyclists appeared around the bend, bumping them selves like all possessed.

B. J. Bennett, of this town, wheeled from Acton on Wednesday in 30 minutes. The distance 12 miles. - Miller Reformer. Local bicyclists claim this to be an impossibility.

The St. Albans Church and Parsonage property have been much improved in appearance lately by the removal of the old fence surrounding the former and the erection of a new one at the latter.

In its last issue the Canadian American, of Chicago, makes the following kindly reference: "The handsome specimens of the art typographic, as far as Canadian weeklies are concerned, is the Acton, Ont., Free Press." Editor Moore is to be congratulated on his enterprise in getting up such a weekly in so small a place as Acton."

If Acton Baseball team conducted themselves as ungentlemanly when they went out of town, to play at the Berlin did no Monday, Acton would disown them.

The visitors from the Waterloo capital were drunk and uproarious after the game and during the evening. Several of them became so paroxysmal they were unable to leave the home until next afternoon.
