LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFINGS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week

-Frosts are frequent now.

-The cynosure brought exceedingly cool weather.

-Ogglet's hour has struck—good times are here.

-What is being marketed more freely this week.

-Evening fair at Georgetown to-day and to-morrow.

-The gardens give evidence of the past week's frosts.

-The fall sales will be held in Milton on Monday, 14th Oct.

-You can have the Free Press sent to any address till the end of the year for a quarter.

-Corn harvesting and cutting into the silos occupies the farmers' attention largely at present.

-Ballfield's Civic Holiday was held yesterday. A programme of sports was carried out.

-Messrs. J. L. and J. M. Warren have just finished a fine new job at their Cedar Creek farm.

-The farmers would appreciate a good rain. It would help the fall grain and the pastures.

-The rain yesterday morning deterred a good many from taking in the County Fair at Milton.

-Mr. Samuel Laird's dwelling on Church Street has been much improved by a coat of paint the past week.

-According to the Globe's interview with Arad's Bro. that firm will erect a larger factory immediately.

-Messrs. W. H. Storey & Son have been running overtime for several weeks and are still belted with orders.

-The well-known Palmer Cox and his "Brownies" will appear in the Royal Opera House Guelph, on Friday evening.

-With the good time the Free Press subscription list is rapidly increasing.
New subscribers are being added in numbers daily.

-Stories of the deprivations of tramps come from all over the country just now.
The country is fairly alive with these unwelcome itinerants.

-If you contemplate having an auction sale this fall remember the Free Press excellent class of sale posters. They are always neat, correct and attractive.

-The annual convention of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church Hamilton Conference, will be held in Guelph, on the 5th, 6th and 7th October.

-In remitting for a job of printing checked a week or so ago a "one-sided" writer: "As usual we are well pleased with your work. In fact, we can always rely upon the Free Press to do the correct thing."

-The Grand Trunk's new steel arch bridge at Niagara Falls will be opened on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 29th, 30th and 31st. In connection with the ceremony there will be a great carnival of music, sports, etc.

-The item referring to the annual harvest festival of St. Alban's Church was mistakenly left out. The services were of marked interest and well attended. The harvest decorations of grain, fruit, flowers, etc., were most attractive.

-Millinery Opening, Wed. and Thurs., Sept. 20th and 21st. Grand display of fashionable Millinery at McBeath's under the direction of Miss Jordan, late of Orangeville.

ANOTHER EFFORT TO SWINDLE FARMERS.

A new swindle has been invented, and is being worked quite extensively in some sections. A farmer who wants to sell his place is called on by a man, calling himself "Mr. Jones," who claims to be a representative of the Ontario Land Commission. He will ask the farmer to sign a copy of the form with attractive pictures in the leading papers, and charge a commission of five per cent when he sells the farm. The farmer signs a contract, and later on, when the farmer wants to sell his farm, he finds that the man who called on him is nowhere to be found. He writes to the Ontario Land Commission, but the commissioner writes him back, saying that he never saw the man who called on him.
The farmer is left with a contract which he cannot get out of, and he is unable to sell his farm. The man who called on him is now in the hands of the law.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Monty of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

A Missionary Visitor.
Friends in town enjoyed a very pleasant visit on Saturday from Dr. Mary Brown, who returned recently on furlough from Ohio. Dr. Brown is a daughter of Hugh Brown, Esq. of Mississauga. It may be interesting to know that about fifteen years ago she was a resident at Acton and was employed at the Canada Globe Works.
She has spent seven years in China as a medical missionary in connection with the Presbyterian Church and leaves shortly for another term of eight years among the Szechwan.

Suddenly Called Home.
A sad event on Tuesday morning brought sorrow to the home of our esteemed townsman, James Clark, Esq. of the Roller Mills. For some time Miss Nellie, the second daughter, had suffered from long trouble, and during Monday night was attacked with severe hemorrhage, from which she never rallied. Mr. Clark and family are comparatively strangers, having been resident here only a few months, but kind friends are with them during their heavy bereavement. The funeral will take place to-day at one o'clock at the cemetery at Eden Mills.

Municipal Council's Liability.
There are some people who appear to think Municipal Councils have absolute rights respecting those portions of the city which are not private property. Such is not the case. In all improvements private property must be protected against damage to existing conveniences as well as to its appearance and value generally. A newly-built roadway, with other concessions, which are contemplated in such a manner that individual property is not injured. Last week decision in a case of this nature was given against the town of Galt. The town authorities caused damage to property belonging to the Havill estate, for which a claim of $250 was made by the authorities of the estate. This amount was awarded by Judge Chisholm. The corporation also has to pay the costs.

Light-Weight Bread in Georgetown.
The authorities in Georgetown are canceling again a light-weight bread. Commissioner Wilson last week conducted a quantity made by a local baker which was four ounces short in weight. The principal cause of the by-law says: "That all bread sold or offered for sale in the village of Georgetown of whatever shape or form shall be of a weight of one pound and four ounces respectively and all bread sold or offered for sale of any less weight shall be seized and forfeited and disposed of by direction of the Reeve. A following section says:
"Bread baked more than twenty-four hours shall be liable to seizure if it is not more than one ounce light for every twenty-four hours after the first twenty-four hours for every 4-pound loaf in proportion. There has been considerable flurry among the bakers as a result of the action taken."

Orange Blossoms at Cheshambyr.
The Cheshambyr, Wm. Daily, of the 5th Oct. contains the particulars of an event which will call forth the congratulations of many Free Press readers. We quote as follows:—"At 7 o'clock last evening the Rev. Mr. G. M. Kennedy, of Orangeville, Mr. D. O. Lawson and Mrs. L. E. Lovell, of this city, were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. A.
Johnson, assisted by Rev. Dr. Brown.
Only a few intimate friends witnessed the wedding, which was a most charming affair. The groom is a well known resident of Cheshambyr and holds a responsible position with the electric light company of this city.
The bride is also well and favorably known here and commands the respect and high esteem of a large circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson will be at their home to their friends after September 15th, at 109 East Nineteenth street. Anxious to welcome "our Dan" and his bride when they come east to renew friendships in the old home."

"Friend After Friend Departed." There was mourning in the hearts of many friends and sincere regret felt by hundreds of citizens as they attended the funeral of the late Miss Maggie Kennedy last Saturday at noon. On the side of the late Mrs. Kennedy, who died on the 21st of August, was a most respected daughter. She was born in the old home on Main Street, opposite the old Presbyterian Church, and lived there up to the time of her death. To her home was "Home, Sweet Home" indeed, and the teacher mentions clustering about the home life of the family under the roof where father and mother said their last farewell, and from whence one by one the various members of the large family went out into the world, were memories moved to her.
She was a friend to everybody and like her mother, who passed away about four years ago, it was frequently remarked that she had an enemy in the world. Miss Kennedy's death makes the first break in the ranks of the people of the late Robert Kennedy, the late interesting resident, who died on the 14th, 1894, and many a silent tear will be shed by her old schoolmates as the news reaches them. For twenty-eight years Miss Kennedy was a faithful employee of the Canada Globe Works, and during the past fifteen years was fore-woman of the glove makers' department.
Here the kindly feeling always prevailed and the employees who worked under her will sadly miss her presence and counsel.
Three or four months ago she was seized with an affection of the stomach of a cancerous type. Skillful treatment proved unavailing and she gradually failed until last Wednesday, 16th inst., when she passed away. During her long illness her sisters and other friends gave her most loving care and attention and during all her suffering they never had a murmur. The funeral was very largely attended and was conducted by Rev. H. A. Macpherson and Rev. J. E. Golden, M. A. Very comforting words were spoken by Mr. Macpherson in his address. Messrs. W. A.
Stoney, W. Storey, J. T. Lawson, C. Jen-son, J. R. Kennedy and W. Pollard were the bearers. Floral tributes of very appropriate design were placed on the casket by the employees of the Messrs. W.
A. Stoney & Son, Mr. Dean Oraine, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McGowan and Misses Donald, Galt, Green and Misses Mc-Donald and Thompson, McDonald, Jen-son, Lewis, McDonald, Clark, Miss Janet A. Pringle, Elizabeth, Miss Mary, and Mrs. J. B. McGowan, Mrs. J. D. Warren, Georgetown.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

ROCKWOOD.

The Church of England was very beautifully decorated with fruit, flowers and grain for their harvest home festival last Friday evening. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Watt, of Beeton. A large number from Acton attended the festival.
Rev. Mr. Martin preached in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday.

Miss E. Gillette returned home after a visit at Hagersville.

Mr. E. Tyndall and family set out for New York city this week. They intend settling there.

Mr. E. Major returned to Miller, Idaho, after a two months visit at his home here last week.

A number from Rockwood attended the Epworth League convention at Guelph on Tuesday.

NASSAGAWEYA.

Miss Daniels, of Cornwall, England, has arrived in Canada on a visit to her brother, Mr. H. Daniels, of Nassagaweya. She left the old land about the first of the month and arrived at her brother's on Tuesday, 14th Sept.

Nassagaweya fall exhibition will be held at Campbellville, on October 10th. For prize list and information apply to Mr.
Heattie, Campbellville.

Nassagaweya was fairly well represented at the Guelph Central Exhibition last Wednesday and Thursday and a fair share of the honors came to our township.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster, of Lowville, spent Sunday with friends in Nassagaweya.

Miss Susie Haw, of Bayville, Muskoka, returned home on Wednesday last, after a four week's visit to friends in Nassagaweya.

CREWSON CORNERS.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the re-opening of the Methodist Church in Acton on Sunday last and enjoyed the services very much.

The prayer meeting last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. John Brown was well attended. Prayer-meeting this week will be held at Mr. J. A. Ramsay's on Wednesday evening.

A large number from here attended the unveiling of the late Mr. J. W. Campbell monument in Fairview Cemetery Acton on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. R. Nichol, of this place, is exhibiting dairy and farm produce at Milton Fair this week.

Messrs. G. T. and Chas. Ramsay, of Lowville, and Miss Sada Usley, of Woodstock, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ramsay on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cann spent several days this week with friends in East Lothian.

MILTON.

The shoe factory will be running again in a couple of weeks.

The County Fair the past two days has rendered business pretty lively in town.

Mr. G. C. McInday has been in town the past week. His health has been poor of late.

Wm. Moore, Esq. of the Scotch Block, slept over a dozen "Shropshire sheep" last week to a Indiana buyer.

H. E. Nichol, of Lowville, was at Ottawa last week and took a number of large orders for hay which he will purchase and ship from this neighborhood.

On the death of Mr. Osborne, Rev.
Dr. Osborne has found it necessary to change his plans for the future. He will resign his incumbency of the parish of Milton and Omagh at the end of this month and leave Milton as soon as his successor has been appointed. On Monday the wardens and lay delegates of Grace Church went to Hamilton to meet the Bishop of Niagara to discuss the appointment of Dr. Osborne's successor. They submitted the name of Rev. Mr. Smith, of Montreal.—Champion.

GEORGETOWN.

Licence Inspector Reynolds was here on Friday in connection with a charge against McGibbon Bros., of selling liquor to minors. The evidence of several youthful witnesses was heard by the Reeve and G.
H. Kennedy, J. P., but the charge was not sustained. On a second charge of illegal selling the Court reserved its decision.— Herald.

A quiet wedding took place in the Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday afternoon, 16th Sept., when Miss Mary Josephine, daughter of David Little, Esq., of Orangeville, and Mr. James Moore Whiteford, of New York city, were united in marriage in the presence of a small circle of friends.
After the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Louis Perrin, pastor of the church, the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's parents, where a bonny repast was partaken of. The newly-wedded couple left by train for Hamilton amid showers of rice and good wishes. They will visit Niagara Falls, Buffalo and other points before arriving at their new home at 220 Carroll st., Brooklyn, N. Y.

The annual harvest festival in St.
George's Church last Friday evening was very interesting. Rev. G. A. Forester, of Hamilton, presided at the season.

Miss Tom, McCollum, eloquently will give a public recital in the town hall tomorrow evening.

The officers of the Epworth League for the ensuing six months have been elected as follows:—President, Rev. G. A.
Mitchell, B. A.; President, H. W. Kennedy, B. A.; Vice-Pres., of Christian Endeavor department, Miss Lilyday, B. A.; Vice-Pres., of Social department, Miss B. Holmes; Vice-Pres., of Literary department, J. M. Pringle; Treas., Miss St. Tyndall; Rec.-Secy., S. Woodall; Cor. Secy., C. H. Bennett.

The farmers in this locality have finished sowing their fall wheat. A number in the southern part of the county found it impossible to finish because the ground was too hard to work.

The immense yield of hops has given employment to a large number of people this season. The frost of Monday night did some damage where the crop had not yet been secured, but making ready for the fall this week.

Mr. Bailey and daughter, of Keowatin, are visiting friends here this week.

Mrs. Wm. Jackson and daughter, of Toronto, are guests at the Methodist parsonage here this week.

The Rev. G. A. Mitchell, B. A. attended the Milton District meeting and Epworth League convention which was held at Burlington last week.

Miss E. B. Harris will preach in the Methodist Church at St. Catharines, on Wednesday evening, 25th inst. Her subject will be "The Kingdom of God is within you."

Business is reviving and every one talks of better things.

Game Law Notes.

The Free Press recently referred to the special legislation recently passed to protect game. In one point the change was made as to dates and the extent of the close season. This Mr. C. S. Roney, Game Warden for the county, corrects as follows:
"You are entirely out in the time to shoot partridge, snipe and woodcock. The law does not prohibit shooting but only the sale or bartering of them, until 1900.
Shooting time for above open 15 Sept. and closes 15th Dec. Quail opens 15th Oct., closes 15th Dec.

Good Blood

It is essential to health. Every one corner of the system is reached by the blood, and on its quality the condition of every organ depends. Good blood means strong nerves, good digestion, robust health, impure blood, catarrh or other disease. The surest way to have good blood is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine purifies, vitalizes, and enriches the blood, and sends the elements of health and strength to every nerve, organ and tissue. It creates a good appetite, gives refreshing sleep and cures that tired feeling. Remember,
