Young People's Day at Ebenezer Church last Sunday saw a series of successful and highly interesting services. The sunrise prayer meeting at 7 o'clock, led by Mr. Geo. Midgley, was well attended and full of fervor. Rav. Dr. Sranlan's di-course at the morning service was highly appropriate to the occasion. The Dr. and his family have already won a warm place in the hearts of the people. The afternoon service was a grand rally of the Sunday School and friends, and Buperintendent Marshall guided the service in such a way that it was felt to be most profitable to all. The attendance at the evening service was the largest of the day, After a song service Miss Laing read a comprehensive paper setting forth methods of work in the varions departements of the League. Mrs. (Dr.) Scanlan sang as a solo "Saved by Grace." Mr. H. P. Moore, of Acton, then gave a spirited and inspiring address uponpractical missionary work by the League and the Church generally. The sermons or Sunday by Rev. J. W. McMillan, B. A., of Lindsay, were able expositions and much enjoyed. The congregation was swelled at the evening service by that of the Methodist' Church, the service there being withdrawn. The anniversary entertainment on Monday evening was of a very enjoyable character: Addresses were delivered by Revs. J. W. McMillan, Lindsay; H. A. Macpherson, Acton : J. W. H. Milne, Mansewood, and G. A. Mitchell, B. A., and Thos. Rogers, Georgetown. A feature of the anniversary services, both on Sunday and Monday, was the solps rendered by Miss Chapman, of St.

Catharines. These were of a highly cultured and meritorious class. The Jubilee services in the Baptis Church this week have been times of refreehing indeed. The sermons last Sunday by Rev. D. Hutchinson, of Brantford, were of a high order and could not help but in duce desires for a higher experience in spiritual life. The re-union of members on Monday evening had much of tender rem iniscence and a devout spirit of gratitude to Almighty God. About twenty-five former members of the church participated. Rev. C. A. Eston's lecture on Toesday evening fulfilled all anticipations and delighted all who heard this talented orator. Next Bonday's sermons by Rev. J. L. Gilmour, B.A., of Hamilton, will conclude

MANTLE ROOM NEWS.

The Jackets, Wraps, Ulsters, and Coats we show in our Mantle Room represent the best productions of five of the best manufacturers in Germany, Britain and Canada. We mention Canada last simply out of native modesty, for the products of our Canadian manufacturers in some lines discount those of their old world competitors in point of style, finish, value and wear. In every case we buy direct from the manufacturer. Some of our confreres who talk loudly of "buying direct" are handicapped with. a commission charged, which they have to pay to the people through whom they buy. This percentage we save to our customers, and our garments are the best value to be found. Children's Coats represent a stock of immense variety rather too large for our trade, and we have in consequence marked them at about one-half the usunl profit in order to hurry their sale. Come and price them.
