LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Readers this week?

—Guy Fawkes' Day to-morrow.

—The rain this week has given the cycles a rest.

—Wheat has been creeping up in price again this week.

—The Four Pines to any address till the end of the century for $1.75.

—Dear reader! have you perused the Free Press' note to its many friends, on the fourth page?

—A number of street crossings are badly in need of repair. They should receive immediate attention.

—Actor Roller Mills continues to be busy.
Mr. Clark shipped a car of his popular frolic to Glasgow this week.

—The boys behaved themselves very well on Saturday night. Halloween parades were not numerous nor serious.

—Joe Walsh, the newly elected President of the Toronto Young Liberal Club, is a Halton boy, being a son of M. Walsh, Oakville.

—Reeve Nicklin presided at a meeting in the town hall last evening to consider the establishment of a Public Library here.

—During the past nine years less than twenty-eight new dwellings have been erected in the annex known as Cook's Survey.

—While working in the bush one day about a week ago James E. Snyder, and two or three who were with him, plucked ripe, wild raspberries.

—The special services in the Brick Church were concluded last week. The meetings have been very interesting and much good has resulted.

—There has been more wheat delivered at the grain warehouses at the G. T. R. and at the roller mill than for this fall than for half a dozen years previously.

—The Guelph Daily Advertiser manifests evidence of prosperity. It has been enlarged to a seven-column paper. Its atty budget of gossipy contents.

—Our chief municipal office is to be provided with police accoutrements which will give dignity and power to the office.
An official cap or helmet will probably also be supplied.

—Mr. James Wade, of Guelphville, N.
Y., has sent the Free Press copies of the New York Journal illustrating the terrible train accident which occurred near Potsdam last week.

—E. T. Barnum once said: "The man who can stick type, and the next morning talk to a thousand people while I talk to one, is the man whom help I want to make my business prosper."

—Albert Loring has sent the Free Press a copy of the Springfield, Mass., newspaper, which reports a concert given by the Loring Bros. when the attendance was nearly 1,000, and of these 700 were women.

—While working in the bush the other day one of Mr. David McIlroy's horses had the misfortune to run a porcupine's limb—more than two inches in diameter—several inches into the breast. The animal is slowly recovering from the effects of this painful wound.

—The ubiquitous verdit of ladies of pleasure has dimmed the display of Blank Dress Goods, and residents of enormous wealth have been compelled to buy only the best. The new fashions in Blank Dress Goods, however, should be well liked, we think most people are rather more careful about what they go to wear. Blank Dress Goods are now made in a variety of styles and in the city the other day, told a prominent financier that he intended spending on behalf of the Williams estate $80,000 in rebuilding and refurbishing the Royal Hotel. Mr. Beardmore is going to give Hamilton a hotel equal to anything at present in Toronto.—Hamilton Herald.

—Greater Than the Klondike Rush.

The official reports from Montreal are to the effect that the Post Office authorities have been obliged to put on extra clerks to handle the letters arriving with subscriptions for the Family Herald and Weekly Star,
