After many weary weeks of painful il ness death ended the sufferings of Mrs Burrowe, of Church street, widow of the ate Richard Burrowe, on Tuesday morn ing. Mrs. Burrows came to Acton with lier husband over thirty years ago. He was in the boot and shoe business on Main street and died in the large building then standing on the site of the brick store and dwelling occupied by Mr. J. G. McBeath and known as The Barracks. Mr. Bur rows died about twenty-five years ago and the Barracks was destroyed by fire when John McKee's general store was burned Since that time Mrs. Burrows and her daughter have resided on Church street Miss Hannah, the daughter, is left alone and much sympathy is felt for her in her present hours of loneliness.

A Kindly Farewell to Mrs. McLennan On Thursday, December 80th, the ladies of Knox Church connected with the Ladies' Aid and Womens' Foreign Missionary Society met to say farewell to Mrs. Jas McLennan, who has been a very valued worker in the church and one who will t missed very much. The following address was read to Mrs. McLennan :-

To MRS. JAS. MOLENNAN: It is with deep regret that your friends have eard of your intended departure from our midst to take up your abode in a distant city. We have on many occasions met to say good-bye to faithsul workers and have each time keenly felt the loss sustained by their departure. Now we have to say good-bye to you who for so many, years have been one of the main stays in our work. You have always taken a deep interest in every department of church work and have over been ready to lend your valuable aid whenever it was needed. And, although your movements in our sidst have been marked by a quiet and unpreentious life, we feel satisfied that upon those with whom you have been associated and upor be entire church an influence has been felt that n which you have sacrificed your own interests for the sake of the Master's cause. .

Now, since the time has come for us to part we very reluctantly say good-bye and tender to you our very best wishes for the future and that in your new home you and your family may be the Methodist Church on Sunday. The abundantly blessed. We trust that as you form castor is in charge and the attendance has | new friendships you may always retain in your affections your many friends in Knox Church

The collections the night of the meeting and on the previous Sunday amounted to $100, and subscriptions to $500. Thi leaves a balance on the church dobt of $500. As the church was built only a year ago last summer and cost $4,000 we feel that success has crowned our efforts. The building is constructed of solid brick with stone basement. The windows are of stained glass and the building is heated throughout with a furnace."

CORWHIN.

The anniversary tea-meeting of the Cor hin Methodist Church took place on Wed nesday evening, Jan. 5th, and was a great success. The sleighing being good and the weather mild made it so that a great many turned out to this pleasant gathering. The chair was occupied by Mr. John Marshall, of Nassagaweys, who ably filled the position. The services of the Acton Methodist S. S. Orobestra were very much appreciated and their selections suited very well for the occasion. The first part of the programme was furnished by the Sunday School scholars, and consisted of singing, recitations and dialogues, and those present could not fail to admire the way in which the little people did their part. Refreshments were then served, after which Mr. H. P. Moore, of Acton, gave an excellent llustrated address to the children on 'Webs," and to the older people a summary of the book of Acts on the blackboard. Prof. Dean, of the O.A.C., then gave an impressive address ou. "Success in Life," which held out many good points to young people. Rev. Geo. R. Kitching, of North Bay, also spoke and gave a solo entitled, "There is glory in my soul," which was most uplifting. Rev. Dr. Scanlan spoke briefly in his lively way, using some of his drawings to make his thoughts easy to remember. The tired hearers then returned home, having much enjoyed the good things of Corwhin .- Daily Mercury.

NASSAGAWEYA. Lot was hardly more alarmed when fire fell from heaven and licked up the town he was living in, than the good people at Sodom church last Friday morning when Mr. James Monehan rushed in shouting to the worshippers : "Help, help, my barn is on fire." Fire had broken out in the straw stack of Messrs. Frank and James Monehan, Sodom. Sodom Presbyterian Church is near by, and as it was the Friday before communion, the building was filled with worshippers. When the alarm was given the worshippers rushed out and gave the fire flend battle saving all the stock, and about 600 bushels of wheat, also all the implements. Three hundred bushels of wheat, all the hay, roots and feed were destroyed. The barn and outbuildings are wrecked. The loss will be about $2,000 with $1,400 insurance .- Advocate. Saturday morning Mr. L. Picket left his home in Nasssageweya with eighty-two dollars in his purse. When he had been about an hour in the city he had occasion to use some money, but to his surprise his purse was gone. Mr. Picket does not suspect it was stolen; he bolioves it dropped out of his pocket, where he does not know. -Guelph Herald. Mr. Pickett advertised hiss loss in the Mercury and the purse was returned to him intact on Tnesday. Missionary sermons will be preached on the Nassagaweya circuit on Sunday, Jan. 28rd, by Rev. J. G. Scott, of Guelph, chairman of the district. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wilson, of Knatch-

Indigestion Permanently Cured. St. William, Co. Norfolk, Oct. 19th, 1897. DEAR Size—It gives me great pleasure to state the fact that Sloan's Indian Tonic has caused a most remarkable change in my condition. For two years I, have suffered from Indigestion and weakness and not finding relief from any other medicine until your agent came here one day and advised me to try Sloan's Indian Tonic. I did so and have used four bottles. It has made a great change in my life and I can now rest and sleep with ease and comfort. I believe Sloan's Indian Tonic is the best medicine in the world.
