LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLISTS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week —Success depends upon a liberal patron of printing offices.—John Jacob Astor.

—The week of prayer will be observed in Knox Church next week. Rev. A. Blair, B. A., will assist the pastor.

—The first sittings of the Fourth Division court for 1898 held last Wednesday, had the largest docket for several years.

—Keep pushing: "tis wiser than sitting aside, and sighing and watching and waiting the tide, in life's earnest battle they only prevail, who daily march onward and never say fail."

—The eleven o'clock train on Thursday morning decapitated a dog belonging to a resident in the east end. The canine attempted to cross the track when the train was in motion.

—The property of Duncan A. Grant, on Prest street, who left town between two days several weeks ago, is advertised for sale to satisfy a mortgage held by the Canadian Mutual Loan and Investment Co.

—A special gospel service will be held in the Disciples' Church to-morrow evening at 7.30. Sunday morning subject: "The Core of Troubles"; evening: "The Natural Man, the Spiritual Man, and the two Natures in one Man."

—A kindly spirit of christian fellowship was manifested in the fervent petition for the success of the various services at the Methodist Church, givers utterance by Rev.
H. A. Macpherson in his evening prayer in Knox Church last Sabbath.

—Some humor when the sky is clear and wholly blue is seen; but a spot of dark cloud is their great haven of blue and some with thankful joy are filled if but one streak of light, one ray of God's good mercy gild the darkness of their night.

—A letter from an old subscriber in Florida says: "I am for another year for your welcome weekly visitor, the Free Press. It seems to us like a letter from home and arrives at our home here in Florida, regularly every May day morning."

—The funeral of the late Mrs. Jeremiah Brown was last Thursday attended by a large number of friends and neighbors.
Mrs. W. H. Storey, John Kenny, Sr., Thomas Easton, and W. P. Campbell acted as bearers, and Rev. J. K. Gordon, M. A., conducted the service.

—Mr. J. J. Lawson has secured the right for the manufacture and sale of a new clothes reed, very neat and convenient. It will simplify the work of the housewife, can be used where there is not sufficient space for the old fashioned clothes lines, and will be a very durable and useful adjunct to the home.

—In order to introduce the Free Press into new homes we are from week to week sending out numbers of sample copies.
We would ask for the paper a careful perusal and it meets your ideas of a local family newspaper we will be pleased to enter your name upon our list, upon receipt of $1.00 for a year's subscription.

—On Monday evening last Miss Warren received a very pleasant surprise when her Sabbath school class visited her and presented her with a handsome teacher's Bible.
This thoughtful kindness is much appreciated by her. The scholars spent a couple of hours very pleasantly in entertaining and being entertained at her home on Mill street.

—If your local paper has tried on you too little in performing its mission don't get your back up and abuse the editor, but stop and take a long breath, think for a second, and see if you can't remember some kindness it has shown you in the past. Then reflect that it may not be long you want a favor again.—Think a moment.

—If news from your neighborhood does not appear regularly in the Free Press sit down, and write it up yourself. Our present correspondents are doing good work for their friends and especially for those who have moved away from home and long for news of their old neighborhood.
Don't forget us. Update of all news read, in the Free Press. It is like a despatch to get a bright, newsworthy letter from home every week.

—Fagan—An I. O. U. for nearly three hundred dollars. If loser will call and pay for this notice he will get it from Mrs.
S. A. Scott.

nearer until we noticed a foot. On account of the heavy fog people were deceived as to away while others thought it quite close.

The churches were closed and while some
