'Sarsaparilla Sense.

Any sarsaparilla is sarsaparilla. True. So any tea is tea. So any flour is flour. But grades differ. You want the best. It's so with sarsaparilla. There are grades. You want the best. If you understood sarsaparilla as well as you do tea and flour it would be easy to determine. But you don't. How should you? When you are going to buy a commodity whose value you don't know, you rick out an old established house to trade with, and trust their experience and reputation. Do so when buying sarsaparilla.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been on the market 50 years. Your grandfather used Ayer's. It is a reputable medicine. There are many Sarsaparillas but only one Ayer's. It

THE KINGS OF ENGLAND.

Those who have once learned this jingle, which gives the names of England's kings and queens since the Conquest, have, no doubt, found it very useful. We suggest to teachers especially the helpfulness of such aids to memory as this old rhyme: First William the Norman, then William

Benry, Stephon, and Henry, then Richard and Next, Henry the Third, Edwards one, two and

And again, after Richard, three Henrys we see Two Edwards, third Richard, if rightly I guess; Two Henrys, sixth Edward, Queen Mary, Queen Then Jamie the Bootchman, then Charles whom

Yet received, after Cromwell, another Charles Next, James the Second ascended the throne Then William and Mary together came on.

THE BISHOP'S KNEE BREECHES

It is told of a certain bishop that, while dining at the house of one of his friends, he was pleased to observe that he was the object of marked attention from the son of his host, whose eyes were firmly rivited upon him. After dinner the bishop approached the boy and asked : "Well, my young friend, you seem to be

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy, for all ills to which flesh is heir-the very nature of many coratives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtained in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual judicious use, the frailest systems are led into convalescence and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Naturo's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondence and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep, imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veine, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance-result, improved appetite. Northrop & Lyman, of Toronto, have given to the public their Quinine Wine at the neual rate, and, guaged by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market.
