The Acton Free Press EVERY THURSDAY MORNING,

-AT THE-Free PressSteam Printing Office, MILL STREET. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION-One dollar per year strictly in advance. All subscriptions discontinued when the time for which they have been paid has expired. The date to which every subscription is paid is denoted on the address ADVERTISING RATES-Transient advertisements, 10 cents per Nonparell line for first in-ertion, B cents per line for each subsequent CONTRACT RATES-The following table shows ur rates for the insertion of advertisements for

pocified periods:-SPACE. | 1 YR. | 6 MO. | 3 MO. | 1 MO 12.00 3.00 7.00 2.50 2.00 1.00

Advertisements, without specific directions will be inserted till forbid and charged accord ngly. Translent advertisements must be paid n advance. Advertisements will be changed once each month if desired. For changes oftener than once a month the composition must be paid for at rogular rates. Changes for contract advertisements must be a the office by neen on Tuesdays. Accounts payable monthly. H. P. MOORE

Business Directory.

Editor and Proprietor

J. F. UREN, M. D. C. M. Duico and residence—Corner Mill & Frederic

DR. DRYDEN,

EYE, EAR, THROAT AND NOSE, McLean's Block, Douglas St., near P. O., . GUELPH. OFFICE HOURS-10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 3 to 6 p.m SUNDAYS-10 a.m. to 1 p.m. VETERINARY SURGEON.

LFRED P. HUSBAND, V. S. Graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College. Honorary member of the Veterinary Medica OPPICE-Wm. Husband's, lot 24, con. 4, Nass-Calls day or night promptly attended to.

DENTAL. L. BENNETT, L.D.S., DENTIST. GEORGETOWN, ONTARIO

S. ELLIOTT, M. D. M. B., GRADUATE TORONTO UNIVERSITY. OFFICE-Corner Mill and John Streets

DR. F S. MERCER, Graduate of Toronto University and R.C.D.S Office over Drug Store, Acton.

VISITING DAYS-THURSDAY AND FRIDAY.

T. M. BELL, D.D.S., L.D.S. PENTIST. HONOR GRADUATE OF TORONTO UNIVERSITY. Work made Satisfactory. Prices Moderate. Visiting Days.—Monday afternoon, Camp-bollville; Tuesday, Acton, Office—Clark's Hotel; Friday, Rockwood.

R.O. H. COOK, DENTIST, Cor. College St. and Spadina Ave., Tononto, Will visit Acton on the first and third Saturdays of each month

OFFICE-Mr. Adam Cook's residence, Main

LEGAL.

MCLEAN & MCLEAN Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyar Office:-Town Hall, Acton. WM. A. MOLEAN. JNO. A. MCLEAN.

J. MACKINNON, BARDISTER, SOLICITOR, CONVEYANCER.

OFFICE-Mill Street: in Matthews' Block. IN G. MATHESON, & J. B. McLEOD. ABILISTERS, BOLICITORS, CONVEYANCERS Georgetown and Milton.

Money to loan at lowest rates.

R. J. MONABB, Clerk, Fourth Division Court County of Halon, Conveyancer, Agent Fire and Life Assurance Real Estate Agent. Money to loan, etc.

ACTON - Porryman's block. MISCELLANEOUS.

HENRY GRIST. OTTAWA, CANADA. Solicitor of Patents, for Invention, etc. Propares Applications for the Canadian, Amerlean, and European Patent Offices, and for the Registration of Trade Marks, Bond for pamphiet. Thirty-two years experience.

TRANCIS NUNAN BOOKBINDER, Wyndham St.,

St., Guelph, Ontario. (Over Williams'Store.) Account Books of all kinds made to order Periodicals of every description carefully bound. Ruling nearly and promptly done

MARRIAGE LICENSES. H. P. MOORE, ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES. Private Office. No witnesses required. Issued residence in the evening. Free Press Office, ACTON

MONEY. FARMERS, if you wish to reduce your interest or secure a first-class loan of money at.

low interest and on easy terms of repayment call on me. I make a specialty of lending measy and have plenty of funds. I also lend on village property. W. C. JACKSON, CONVEYANCER AND MONEY LENDER OFFICE : Wyndham St., near City Hall, GUELPH

Wellington Mutual Fire insurance Company ESTABLISHED 1840

INSURANCE on Cash and Mutual plan. Any communications forwarded to my address, liox 628, or telephone 58, will be promptly at-JOHN TAYLOB, Agent, Guelph,

M/M. HEMSTREET, LICENSED AUCTIONEER For the Counties of Wellington and Halton. Orders left at the FREE PRESS office, Acton, or at my residence in Acton, will be promptly at-ended to. Fees reduced to $5.00 FOR FARM SALES. Also money to loan on the most favorable sums, and at the lowest rates of interest, in noming and filing done.

AUTON Machine and Repair Shops

HENRY GRINDELL, Proprietor. ARE well equipped with all the machinery necessary to execute all repairs to machininds of steam-fitting, horse-shooing and general | Life." seksmithing. Woodwork repairs performed Call or write for circular. in a satisfactory manner. We can repair and machino or implement of any make. Saw

Extra Strong in 1898

WALL PAPERS

Newest and latest designs and colorings. Baby Carriages.

Window Shades. Prices for 1898 Extra Low Call and see goods and prices, Day's Bookstore, Guelph.

DAY SELLS CHEAP.

Trust Us To look after your Wall Paper wants carefully.

Trust Us To make the price as low as honest business methods and straight cash buying can make it.

When you want your pictures neatly framed. We will see you do not

Trust Us

WATERS BROS.,

St. George's Square,

GUELPH.

うじつ国じついじ

SPRING

MILLINERY

The Newest Designs in Shapes, Shades, Flowers and Trimmings.

After a successful Fall Trade we look forward to the Spring Season with confidence, as we are better prepared to meet our customers' wants.

Miss Jordan's numerous friends will be pleased to know that she is again in charge of our Millinery Department.

All are cordially invited to inspect our

J. G. McBeath

ACTON, ONTARIO. しごうし国うしごう

Spring is here again Cooper &

. . Akins The Tailors,

Are prepared for it with a very attractive Spring Suitings Spring Overcoatings Spring Trouserings In all the latest goods Our workmanship is always satisfactory

Our prices are always right. We have plates for the newest styles Bicycle Sults, and are bound to please the Call in and inspect our stock.

Cooper & Akins, MAIN STREET, ACTON. Tailors

H. Hamilton.

Marble and Granite, Hamilton's Bock QUELPH.

Having on hand a large quantity of Scotch, Norway, Swedish and Russian

CRANITE

And in order to dispose of it to make room for spring stock now purchased I wil sell at a reduction of 20 PER CENT. And will allow all expenses to customers and from our works.

Potatoes Wanted !

Highest price paid in trade for all good potatoes delivered at Symon Bros., Acton. We carry a full line of Hardware, Groceries, Boots & Shoes.

SYMON BROS., COR.MILL AND MAIN STS., ACTON

Spring Term Commences APRIL 4th at the Guelph Business College and Shorthand Institute "A most reliable and well managed school

Guelph.

J. SHARP, Principal.

-THB-

TRADERS' BANK OF CANADA

Authorized Capita..... $1,000,000

Guelph Branch Sums of $1 and upwards received on deposit and highest current rate of interest paid or compounded half-yearly. Deposit Receipts issued for large sums Advances made to responsible farmers on their own names. No charge made for collecting Sules Notes f payable in Guelph. A General Banking Business transacted. A. F. H. JONES.

$45 and $50 are common sense prices for a bicycle. Even if you pay double these prices you will have no greater cycling pleasure and no better or more durable wheel,

"Garden City" $50. "Yale" $45 and $38.

"Dominion" $43 and $36. If you buy from us you'll make a clean saving of from $10 to $15 on your wheel. This should be worth your consideration. Catalogue by writing.

J. M. BOND & CO.

GUELPH.

Housecleaning The season is here for the house to upside down and the busy housewife i worrying about. Wall Paper You need not worry. Call at the People's Drug Store and see the beautiful 1898 Wall Papers and you will be happy. Be up to date and get the latest, namely the Ingrains which are all the rage. we will be delighted to show you thern. Anyway don't buy your wall paper till you 30,000 Rolls to chooser from. The very latest in all other lines also open or your inspection. From 5c roll upwards. All 1808 Paper have seen the Ingrain or you may rue it.

BIG CHOICE BIG BARGAINS

McKee's Drug Store

Telephone Correspondence. SECORD'S BLOCK, ACTON

SEED CRAIN SPRING WHEAT SPRING RYE PEAS OATS BARLEY

I carry the largest and best assorted slock of Seed Grain in Guelph. The grain is as pure and clean as money can buy. Also Timothy, Clover, Rape, etc. Ge prices on my "Permanent Pasture Mixture." Field, Flower and Garden Seeds.

James Hewer, Seedsman, - Cuelph

Robt. Noble

The Highest Price for WHEAT At the PEAS Warehouse, OATS

Acton BARLEY Station. Acton Flour and

FLOUR BRAN SHORTS SEEDS, All Feed Kinds of FEED ... TRY ...

NORVAL FLOUR The Best Family Flour in the marke

FRANK HARRIS, Manager

Your JOHN H. HAMILTON Portrait

> Have you had one taken lately? If give Ramshaw, will be delighted with the result. Courteous Photographs. reasonable. day. This weather just suits.

H. Ramshaw, Photo Artist Acton.

JOB PRINTING. short potice. Apply or address

H. P. MOORE

. ...

Poetry.

THE SIN OF OMISSION. In our bustling, stirring life, is there not danger lest the "still, small voice" prompting to tender, thoughtful acts and words, should be unnoticed? Often in hurrying on to do what seems to us imperative, we miss God's purpose for the

It isu't the thing you do, dear, ... It's the thing you leave undone, Which gives you a bit of heartache At the setting of the sun. The touder word forgotten, The letter you did not write. The flower you might have sent, dear, Are your haunting ghouts to-night.

The stone you might have lifted Out of a brother's way, The bit of heartsome counsel You were hurried too much to say The loving touch of the hand, dear, The gentle and winsome tone, That you had no time or thought for, With troubles enough of your own.

They come in night and silence-Each chill, reproachful wraith-When bopo is faint and flagging. And a blight has dropped on faith. For life is all too short, dear. And sorrow is all too great, To suffer our slow compassion That tarries until too late And it's not the thing you do dear .-

The little acts of kindness.

So easily out of mind;

Those chances to be augels

Which overy one may find ;

Select Family Reading.

At the setting of the sun.

It's the thing you leave undone.

Which gives you the bit of heartache

Miss Stebbin's Reform.

BY NELLIE BURNS.

former. All her life long she had been dabbling in some species of reformation for Miss Stebbin was ushered into his presence. | to be the subjects of criticism by answering the betterment of the human family. Her Poor Hensley's fright at the sight of her the questions of the idly curious. warring genius made no exception of evil | was something pitiful to witness. A lady wherever it was found. The church, caller was an undreamed of possibility in asks as as to weight, age, if married and society, domestic life, all in turn became his bachelor life. So great was his agita- when, if not whether you ever have had a thinks I, b'gosh, I'll have a swim, seein' it laughable remark. Should the darkness reformatory mi-siles. It was the ambition to speak or offer her a seat. But Miss much money you have to spend, how many gener'lly go swimmin' in the crick when giggle, cough, or perform some other trick of her dreams to be the promulgator of Stebbin had rehearsed for this occasion too relatives you have, living or dead, with I'm home, but I thought I'd like to try the to show the low wit of which he is so some innovation in human progression often to be frustrated at the very moment whom you associate, and why do you not New York style of bathin' jest fer a change. proud.

came a public issue that she truly found some unjutelligible noise in response. Perhaps you haven't seen them. If not the soil of her soul with a depth and Miss Stebbin found that it was a much prompt answers are not vouchsafed, the me before I could climb out of the bathtub.

> to marry him, why is it not just as a calm exterior, there was a fierce, sweet object to publishing their private affairs will have to yield under the pressure of of this movement. Turning her eyes equal rights. All that is needed is for a toward him she was horrifled at his appear few brave women to make precedents of ance. His face had anddenly bleached to courting the men of their choice and a anashen hue, his eyes were dilated; he revolution in courtship is sure to follow. I shook like a.man with the paley.

feel in my soul this is a duty woman owes o sacrifice themselves on this altar? Who to both of us-to make you a-proposal-which to begin a great reform.

Now in all this created world there was to make you this offer-to ask you to benot so bashful a man, a man so mortally to be-my-husband." afraid of women, as this poor Hensley. Not that he was a woman-hater. Indeed. to tell the truth, deep down in his soul, too his chair with a vice-like grip. With a deep to be seen by prying eyes or scarcely lover's tenderness Miss Stebbin laid her suspected by himself even, there was an bare hand on his, and went on; "If you adorning reverence for the sex he so feared. | could know how tenderly I regard you In secret silence he admired their beauty how gladly I would devote my life to your and jaunty ways. But not for the world happiness, you could not have the heart to would be have admitted the fact even in refuse this offer. I do not ask you for an the most secret closet of his soul. He immediate answer. This has come to you would no sooner approach any female with saddenly and I would not want you to gallant dourtesy than he would have made | decide rashly. You will need to weigh the his head a target for Kropp's big gon.

fleeting criminal, to avoid meeting lady eration and at the end of the week I will acquaintances. He shunned public gath- | call sgain." erings for fear he would be forced to neighcrowded seat. He lived a lonely, loveless stant was gone.

occasion. It was exactly 10 o'clock a. m. | dry life. And as shocking as the thought when the details of her proposed reformation were concluded. And at a quarter to l o'clock, the time John Hensley would that stimulated the restoration of John not return to his place of business, by the Hensley's equilibrium. Anyway, he began the merest chance of course, Miss Stabbin to come to himself after a sesson, and in artist, a sitting and vou happened along on the street as that gentle- deflance of his settled buchelorhood, his man emerged from his doorway. advantage. Although she was offering her Stebbin's proposal. And, strange to say, attention. Satisfactory self as a martyr to the cause of duty, she the more he thought of it the more attrac-Prices did not spurn the power that lies in per- tive the idea grew to him. He reviewed sonal charms. For the past two hours she his lonely bachelor life, and in contrast hopefully employed over the tollet. Each pictured himself with a wife in his home, ourl, feather, roffle and ribbon, seemed to and he in the enjoyment of domestic happibe acting a knowing part in the capturing ness with loving attentions as daily fare, conspiracy. Moreover her soul was so in- and to think he could enjoy all this without spired by this new purpose that it was suffering the embarassing preliminary of reflected in pleasant animation in her friendly greating, joining him on the sidewalk and continuing by bis side. I Reads, Circulars, &c., &c. executed in the best style of the art, at moderate prices and on though he had been caught in some dark intensity. orima:

Stebbin, glancing smilingly into his face, and keeping pace with his swift stepr. "Why-why-why-yes I s'pose 'tir," stammered poor Hensley, who at this juncture reached a corner and went durting off inanother direction, leaving our brave suitor to her own sproulations. In outlining the plan for this reform, lugs with her prospective partner. But up. I had to come and tell you that Itry as she might and go where she would | will-be your husband." the was unable to see Mr. Heneloy again. He went to and from his business now by lips in rapture. a back alley. It would seem that he had some premonition of impending evil and was trying to shield himself by seclusion. But Miss Stebbin never faltered in her ings in fact, for four long weeks; her only reward was a flitting gleam of him on one or two occasions. She was not, however, to be defeated by trifling hindrances.

"Pshaw !" she exclaimed one day ; "I'm disgusted with myself. Why have I trifled along like this, waiting for chance to throw along in a cilly sontimental fashion, like my sex some great good and at last it is the weak characters of a novel. I ought to accomplished." be ashamed of myself to set such an example in a reform courtship. There is no reason why a proposition for marriage should be reached by any such idiotic wishes to marry another, what is to pre- point-those persons who have intense pair of stairs to my room. vent him or her from saying so in plain | curiosity but whose questions are not make known any other request ?"

Stebbin's new resolution, as John Hensley | curiosity, and delicacy evidently is a word eat in his bachelor parlor in dressing gown Miss Cynthia Stebbin was a born re- and slippers, the quietness was broken by women are too good natured when dealing a linkle of his doorbell. A moment later with such persons. They allow themselves

her forte. This subject struck root into Now that the time had actually arrived, seldom asked in a kindly spirit, and that, if like a reg'lar cataract an' about drownded affinity born only, in her estimation, of an easier matter to sit in the quietude of her questioner is usually quick to jump to the inspired significance. She grasped the home and make an offer of matrimony conclusion that you are unwilling to reply subjects in all its multifarious bearings | than it was to propound the vital question | because of some unworthy motive. and metaphorically hugged it to her heart. in reality to a scared looking, flesh-and- Personal affairs are not for the public boss of the hotel an' told him to send up lawyer the merits and demerits of the bul-"And by the law of equal rights, if it is blood man. The cold-blooded, matter-of- and good breeding sets itself against quesproper for a man-to court a woman, it is fact proposal she had elected as the ideal tions of a private nature. It is time for the room was flooded. An' then, after all own pugilistic powers and is willing to proper for a woman to court a man," Miss courtship, scemed to her now like a vile American women to rise in a body against I went through, bein' scalded in the fust Stebbin reflected consolingly one day, as desecration of nature's plan. The subtle | the human interrogation point. First they influence of Cupid's power was at work should be careful not to ask such questions, about two thirds scart to death basides -"If a woman loves a man and wishes on her spirits. And although she sat with remembering that, although they may not what d'ye s'pose they wanted me to do?"

John Heusley sat by a table over which others to do so. Next they should be careheart to her? Marriage is of just as a soft light shed its rays. On one side was ful to bring up children not to askquestions vital importance to her as to him; so why a vacant chair which chanced to stand in from idle curiosity. They should not heaishould the privilege of selection be denied near proximity to his own. Miss Stebbin | tate, when they meet the human interrogaher? It is one of those unreasonable at last arose and crossing the room took a tion point, to let her understand very exclusives that custom have fashioned seat in this chair close to Hensley's side. | plainly that she is asking questions which around woman, but which, thank heaven! But she had not reckned on the effect | do not conorn her and which will not be

"Doar Mr Hensley," she began soothing ly, "don't, please don't be so frightened "And since I advocate this advancement I am not going to harm you. I have come for women, why shouldn't I be one of those to see you on a matter of vital importance knows what the influence of such an in fact -a matrimonial offer. I know you it ?" example might be! Yee, I will do it, I will think it unusual for a woman to do such a thing, but that is simply owing to So argued and so decided Miss. Stebbin. the false customs by which our sex has Then she reviewed the merit and demerits been hampered. Under the plan of equal of each, and at length determined on a cer- rights the privilege of courting will belong velvet, there is nevertheless concealed in it slongeide of it, is plenty good enough for every set of her dear little one is building tain old bachelor living in her vicinity, by to woman as well as to man. And dear name John Hensley, as the subject upon Mr. Hensley, I am taking advantage of this new blessing that has come to woman

Here the eager proposer paused. Hensley's hand was clutching the arm of question in your heart. So, dear Mr. He would scoot across streets like a Hensley, I leave the offer for your consid-

She arose, stooped over and imprinted bor with some petticoated creature in a warm kiss on his brow, and the next in life, a victim to bired housekeeping and No tongue or pen could describe Hen men's hard jokes. As to ever courting and sley's condition as he sat there after her marrying-the very contemplation of such departure. He was as pallid as a corpse familiar approaches to any woman would and as helpless as a paralytic. Creepy have shooked him into imbecility. This was chills chased each other through his the man whom Miss Stebbin, in uncon- anatomy. Cold beads of sweat burst out scious mercy, decided to rescue from single on his flesh. As to his mind-there was no trace of it left. Yet notwithstanding all Procrastination was not one of Miss this agony, the touch of that soft hand and Stebbin's eins. That ie, if the past had the thrill from that kiss remained with accused her of dereliction in duty, no such him, a lingering ecstasy to the old bachelor charge could be laid against her on this It was a wholly new sensation in his stale was to his modesty, he ac'ually liked it. It was no doubt this delightful emotion bashfulness, his horror of women, the first Miss Stebbin never appeared to better thing he did was to begin considering Miss courting. That, he knew he could never do. He knew, too, that if he let this "Good day, Mr. Hensley," she said in opportunity pass he would live out his purposeless life a lonely old bachelor. How hateful and dreary ouch an existence "Why-why-good morning," returned | had suddenly become to him ! All night her astonished and confused victim, a wave long he pondered the question of matri-

Miss Stebbin had just finished her break-FREM PARSE office, Actor "It is a beautiful day," persisted Miss fast and was citting anticipating the result of hat night's venture, when her doorbell rang. Answering it, to her intense surprise she was confronted by-John Hensley. Not the trembling, ghastly Hensley she last saw, but a new Hensley. Infused with new life and courage and inspired by his happy prospects; he stood before her a proud and smilling man. Mies Stebbin decided to make the initiatory | When he reached her parlor he turned and advancements in her suit in chance meet- said : "I couldn't wait until the week was

"My darling!" burst from Miss Stebbin's with cotasy pozing from every feature, "what a blessing this equal rights business my name in a book." will be to some of us poor timid follows. determination. She promenaded the I'm the happlest man in the world this streets, attended church, all public gather- morning, and it's all owing to this blessed equal rights. I tell you it's the grestest invention or discovery or whatever you've yel" a mind to call it, that the world has ever

"And O, my dear, you can never know what joy I feel over this success," oried Miss Stebbin, with a conqueror's elation him in my way? Why haven't I gone to "Not only have I gained a husband, but him like a person of reason and told him of my name will be immortalized as the my resolutions and choice? Here I am pioncer in gaining this new right for womconducting a great reform and dallying au. I have been striving all my life to do

THE HUMAN INTERROGATION

POINT.

It is the human interrogation point who it's fer ?" sez he, sassy as ye please. targets against which she directed her tion he could not command power of mind proposal. She also desires to know how hain't goin' to cost anything extra. that would not only give her name popu- of realization. She calmly sat down at her associate with others whose names you So I shucked off my clothes an' got into larity in life but immortality after life. | own invitation and began a conversation on | do not have on your visiting list. One may | the bathtub an' turned one of the thinga-But while Miss Stebbin had for so long triffing subjects. Her distressed auditor, not have a very good reason for objecting majigs an' I'm blamed if a lot of b'ilin' been engaged in the task of correcting sitting on the edge of his chair and looking to answer any of these questions, yet the water didn't squirt out and nearly scald human frailties and wrongs, it was not as if he intended any moment to bolt facts remain that the knowledge does not the hide off'n my legs, an' then I grabbed until the question of "woman's rights" be- through the window, occasionally made concern the questioner or the world at another and gave it a yank, an' the cold other place where the chief amusement is large in any way; that the questions are water begun to pour down from overhead | the latest slang or witty expression which proper for her to reveal the fact to palpitation going on beneath her jacket. broadcast, they have no right to force of the growd. auswored .- The Housekeeper. .

WHISKERS.

The teacher of the Sunday-school class was telling the little boys about temptation, and showing how it sometimes came in the most attractive form. She used as an illustration the paw of a cat. "Now," said she, "you have all seen the paw of a cat. It is as soft as velvet, "iso't

"Yes'em," from the class. "And you have seen the paw of a dog?" "Well, although the cat's paw seems like something that burts. What is it?"

No answer. "The dog bites," said the teacher, "when he is in auger, but what does the cat do?" "Scratcher," said a boy. "Correct," said the teacher, nodding her head approvingly. "Now, what has the cat got that the dog hasn't?"

"Whiskers !" said a boy on the back Boat .- The Alliance. EXCESSIVE LIBERALITY. A negro preacher was once preaching ways by which people lose their souls. often did so through excessive liberality. "What ?" he exclaimed, "You tell me that application. He looked it over and reach you never heard of that before. You say ministers often tell us we lose our souls for | thought I ought to do something to amuse our stinginess, and for being covetons : but who ever beard of a man that hurt himself | monolony of a business man's existence. by going too far t'other way? I tell you how they do it. They sit down under the sermon, and when the preacher touches it to themselves but give this part to one brother, and that to another brother; and so they give away the whole sermon, and it does them no good. And that's the way they lose their souls by being too liberal." STOPPED DRINKING TO DEATH He was run over by the cars and killed-"an unknown man," In one of his pockets was found an empty whisky bottle, in another some letters. - Among the letters was one, much worn, beginning: "Dear papa," the refrain of which was: "Now stop drinking and be a man." Hardened men, to whom even violent death was not upon this sin or that sin, they do not take an ungenal sight, stood by apparently unmoved by the spectacle of a mangled corpse. But when they saw that letter, treasured evidently by the wretched father. though he could not or would not heed it and listened to its pathetic appeal, the turned away and brushed hot tears from their faces. "One touch of liquor makes the whole world akin."-Christian Work. WHAT HE THOUGHT.

"I know," said the candidate for the office to the veteran, "that you wouldn't sell your vote." "No, sub. wouldn't !" "That you osu't be bribed? "Now yo' talkin, sub!" "But suppose should make you a present of '10? What would you think?" The voter looked thoughtful, then said, "Well, Marso Jim, jedgin' by yo' pas' record, I'd either think always felt tired and worn. His nerves

NO USE FOR HIGH-TONED HOTELS.

Uncle Jake Boggles has got tack to Cranberry Corners from a recent visit to the metropolis, and when any one asks him how he enjoyed his trip to New York he shakes his head and gloomily responds :

One thing that worried Uncle Jake considerably, it seems, we the style they put on at the hotel he putronized while in the

"Not any too well, thank ye."

"In the first place," said Boggles when telling the story, "the feller behind the "And you'can never know," he continued desk-owner of the hotel, I recken, by the way he acted-wux bound to hov. me sign

"No, ye don't," sez I, "I've seen that game played before, an' ye don't git no chance to cut my name out an' fill in a -30 days' note above it. Not this trip, thank

"Waal, he seen it wa'n't no use 'arguin', so he put the name down hisself an' then called a young feller in a uniform to take me up to my room. 'Fust thing he done was to try to git my value away from me, but I hung on to it with one hand and his him a coff alongside of the head with the other, an' he quit his little game an 'tended to business in a hurry. He tried next to get me into one of these here mantraps that they yank up to the roof an' then drop sorter accidentally an' kill ten or a dozen people at once. But sez I, "I druther walk an' be on the safe side, thank ye," an' I Has it ever been your misfortune to made him go ahead an' show me the way latter he is not quite so arrogant, on degrees of sentimentalism. If one person know intimately the human interrogation while I tramped along behind him up 14 account of the dreaded blue coat. He straight English, the same as we would asked for the purpose of becoming better the doors an' showed me one room about as view the passersby. Here he is in his informed on any matter of importance. slick as I over seen, with a bureau an' That evening, a few hours after Miss They ask questions merely to satisfy idle fancy bed in it, an' another room connecting with it, all rigged up with a marble unknown to them. As a rule, American wash dish an' a marble bin big enough to hold a ton of coal alonguide of it. "What's that fer ?" sez I.

"Seein' it's a bathtub, I reckon it's intended to take a bath io. What d'ye think

I tried to turn the gasted thing off, but only made it equirt faster, an' by the time I got my shirt an' pants on an' hunted up the He can discuss with the acuteness of a some one to shut off the old waterworks lies of his vicinity. He will heast of his place an' half drownded afterward an'

"Wanted me to pay a big bill fer damages done by the water, but I sez, "Not a dum cent, b'gosh !" an' I collared my valise | her majesty's free cating houses under lock au' got out an' hunted up a place where the and key. The question arises who is to cockroaches et at the same table with the other boarders an' nobody cared a continental whether ye ever washed or not an' everything wuz plain an' comfortablelike, so's a feller could git aroun' without puttin' his foot in it, so to speak, or turnin' come confounded contrivance loose that he didn't know how to turn off ag'in.

"They that care fer these fancy hotels, with their wash dishes an' bathtubs an' perpetual waterworks an' other highfulutin' fixin's kin go abead and patronize 'em if disobeys, it learns to disrespect, not only they want to but I don't hanker fer any its parents, but everything in authority, more style of that kind. "A common, everyday hotel, with an old What an awful responsibility rests on fashioned bed, in a room 10 feet square, an' | the parent ! What a lot depends on a tin washbasin, with a couple of quarts of the early training of a child! If our water in a-pitcher an' a hunk of yaller soap | mothers could think for a moment that me, thank ye."

NOT A SUCCESS. The young man had a very dejected

"It simply goes to show," he was saying to a friend, "how mediocrity often seems to prosper where brilliancy fails. As long | was told that if he would saw a certain as I go ahead and remain mediocre I get quantity of wood he should have het along very well, but the minute I make an | biscuits and coffee for two. He disappeareffort to be brilliant I become involved in ed behind the barn, but when the farmer's difficulty. You see I happened to need a wife went to see what progress he was little money; and the cashier said he would | making he was vanishing in the distance, with much earnestness upon the different | advance it to me if I would make out an | having left behind a paper pinned to the application and get the head of the firm to Among other ways he remarked that they | O. K. it. So I stated the situation to the | words: "Just tell them that you saw me. head of the firm and handed him my ed for his pen. I felt so grateful that I him, something to lighten the dull He had written the letter O when I broke in with the observation "I assure you, sir, that this is one of the happiest O. K. sions of my existence." "What did ho do ?" "He threw down his pen and said Young man, I wish you would put that remark in writing." "And you did so ?" "Yes. I was so delighted over the good time I thought he was going to have when he saw the joke that my hand trembled but as soon as I finished he put the applica tion away and said he'd take some time to consider whether anybody with no more sense than I had ought to be trusted with money."-Washington Star.

That headache can be instantly relieved by taking one of Milburn's Sterling Headache Powders. 1 powder 5c., 3 for 10c.

Call the devil by any name that sounds well, and notice he will pull in his claws and shake hands with you. Hagyard's Yellow Oil cures all pain mun or beast; for spraine, cuts, bruises, callous lumps, swellings, inflammation rhoumatism and nouralgia it is a specific.

The more you think of some people the less you think of them. . Bright's Disease Beaten. Mrs. John Hook, 3 Edward Street, St. Thomas, Ont., writes: "Doan's Kidney Pille cured my son of incipient Bright's Disease. He had tertible backaches and and is now completely cured.

EIGHTY-CENT WHEAT. The Canadian farmer, as we all know, has had a gool year, and he is happy too in finding a poet to give expression to his feelings in the ollowing lines :-When the wheat is in the granary, And the prices reach the sky, And the roosters are a crowing, And the chickens flyin' high; Whon the city fellers squabble For the farmer's views and votes.

And the barn is full of timothy, - And the bins are full of outs. Oh! it's then that a feller Is a fooling at his bost, With the risin sunto great him From a night of glorious rest, And the bables caper 'round bing And the colts are kickln' high,

Whon the wheat is in the granary, And the prices leach the sky. There's something kind o' hearty-like About the sky and field," : With the stubble there a laughin' 'At the thirty-bushel yield, With the happy birds a-singin'. And the cattle in a doze. And the hired man a-comin' round To show his new store clothes. A feller feels contented, And at peace with all the world, Whom the golden flag of plenty Like a blessing is unfurled, Oh, I tell you, Nancy's happy, . And the gals are flyin' high. With the granary a-bustin'

And the prices in the sky! -A. C. C. in the Canadian Guzette.

THE STREET CORNER-ROWD He is found in Acton. He is found in most villages, towns and cities. In the likes to prop up a telegaph pole, a lamp "When we got there, he throwed open post or a wall at the corner where he can element, his hands in his pockets, a cud of tobacco in his mouth, which he chows vigousquely, and the juice of which he is not particular whether he deposits on the sidewalk, his comrades' boots, or a lady's

He will quietly pass remarks to his chums about Miss So and So, who has just gone by, and his friends and he will vie with "Waal, after he had gone an' left me, each other as to who can pass the most The expelled schoolboy and the incor> ial for such a class. When the weather is he eagerly picks up and masters for future He is usually loud monthed; has a good memory for prize fights and local serups.

fight, according to his tongue, any man he some other excuse and his boosts go un-He soon launches out into the competing sea of the world and where does he end? Some reform, some tramp, others ornament blame for these peculiar leanings? Did pature's birth-gift-doom him to such a miserable existence? . We hardly think so. Man is not naturally bad in childhood. He may have a strong, will, a tendency to do as he pleases, but if properly looked after in time, those qualities may be made to develop into a good man. The thief fault lies with the parent and begins at the mother's knee, when she allows her offspring to disobey her. And every time it even the chief anthor of its existence.

its training, of its company, and its early school days.

up its destiny how careful she would be of

YOU DID NOTSEE ME SAW. A California tramp, having asked for breakfast at the door of a well-to-do farmer sawback, upon which he had written these but you didn't see me saw."

THE NEED OF COURAGE. What we need is courage -courage in the pulpit and courage in the powe, courage for the woman in the household and courage for the man of brawn, courage for the whole army of men and woman who know-not how to meet the difficulties with which their lives are beset. We need first of all to be well equipped, and then we need courage and determination to do our best and to say, "I go -- I go to do the best " I can,"

Brief and Decisive Opinions About Diamond Dyes.

Mrs. J. H. Coulter, Neepawa, Man., eays : "I always have much pleasure in using Diamond Dyes; I think they are grand agents for making old things look like her experience in soven words: dolighted with Diamond Dyes." Mrs. Chas. Hutchings, Jones' Falls, Ont. "Have usul several packages of your Diamond Dyes and find them better than any other make. They nover fade or crock, and are entirely entislactory.

Mary A. Raycraft, Leeds, P. Q., gives

Mrs. John Morritt, Sandy Cove, N. S. "Have used Diamond Dyes for over seven years and found them great and CCESCS.

"Diamond Dyes far surpass all other lyes that I have tried."

Mrs. David Grant, Mountain Station

yo'd done los' yo' min', or else yo's in do were unstrung and his appetite poor. He more money on bicycles than on bread. I counterfeitin' business !"-Atlanta Constilu- commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills know, but then, people onn't show off with a loaf of bread.