SCARLET FEVER:

Betty had the scarlet fever, Betty stayed in bed; all the pillows that she wanted Had about her head.

Mammy played with her, and made her Paper dolls all day. When you have the scarlet ferer, Have it just this way! Betty had the scarlet fever, And she had some broth,

On a little table, with a Napkin for a cloth. Had it in a china bowl, All with flowers gay. When you have the scarlet feror, Have it just this way!

Betty had the scarlet fever. Mammy hung a string With a basket from the window, Such a funny thing! Something nice came up for Botty Two, three times a day. When you have the scarlet fever. Have it just this way!

There never was, and never will be, a universal papaces, in one remedy, for all ills to which flesh is heir-the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient -what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtained in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual judicions use, the frailests ystems are led_into_convalescence and atrength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondence and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep, imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance-result, improved appellte.
