TO THINE OWN SELF BE TRUE. By thine own soul's law learn to live. And if men thwart thee take no heed And if men hate thee have no care; Sing thou thy song and do thy doed, Hope thou thy hope and pray thy prayer And claim no crown they will not give, Nor days they grudge thee for thy hair.

Koop thou thy soul-worn steadfast oath, And to thy heart be true thy heart; What thy soul teaches learn to know, And play out thine appointed part; And thou shalt reap as thou shalt sow, Nor helped nor hindered in thy growth, To thy full stature thou shall grow.

Fix on the future's goal thy face, And lot thy feet be lured to erray Now hither, but be swift to run, And no way tarry by the way, Until at last the and is won, And thou mayest look back from thy place And see thy long day's journey done. -PARENHAM BEITTY

We have, however in Quinine Wine, when obtained in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual judicious use, the frailest systems are led into convalescence and stroughly by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondence and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep, imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance-result, improved appetite.
